Self-Taught Chris Edwards,2022-09-28 The American educational structure is a feudal system designed around an inefficient seat time model This structure sets students against each other in competition creates zip code inequalities and empowers an expensive and often damaging bureaucratic class of administrators Due to shortages of teachers and staff and to needless problems with curricula and testing this system is about to fall Historically when feudal systems collapse they create opportunities for new structures to emerge Technology has made it possible to develop a new educational model that connects students to their community and reduces pressure on students and teachers This new model makes it possible to deliver high quality education for all students regardless of zip code while turning students into active learners Self Taught Moving from a Seat Time Model to a Mastery Learning Model explains how this process can begin by asking just one question what would you do if you needed to learn something finding where one belongs in life even if it's not the answer one expected A magical and heartwarming story of love hope and the power of friendship coming of age and coming to believe amidst incredible odds Hazing Hank Nuwer,2018-03-01

When does becoming part of the team go too far For decades young men and women endured degrading and dangerous rituals in order to join sororities and fraternities while college administrators blindly accepted their consequences In recent years these practices have spilled over into the mainstream polluting military organizations sports teams and even secondary schools In Destroying Young Lives Hazing in Schools and the Military Hank Nuwer assembles an extraordinary cast of analysts to catalog the evolution of this dangerous practice from the first hazing death at Cornell University in 1863 to present day tragedies This hard hitting compilation addresses the numerous significant and often overlooked impacts of hazing including sexual exploitation mental distress depression and even suicide Destroying Young Lives is a compelling look at how universities the military and other social groups can learn from past mistakes and protect their members going forward Women of Discriminating Taste Margaret L. Freeman,2020-12

Women of Discriminating Taste examines the role of historically white sororities in the shaping of white womanhood in the twentieth century As national women's organizations sororities have long held power on college campuses and in American life Yet the groups also have always been conservative in nature and inherently discriminatory selecting new members on the basis of social class religion race or physical attractiveness In the early twentieth century sororities filled a niche on campuses as they purported to prepare college women for ladyhood Sorority training led members to comport themselves as hyperfeminine heterosocially inclined traditionally minded women following a model largely premised on the mythical image of the southern lady Although many sororities were founded at non southern schools and also maintained membership strongholds in many non southern states the groups adhered to a decidedly southern aesthetic a modernized version of Lost Cause ideology in their social training to deploy a conservative agenda Margaret L Freeman researched sorority archives sorority related materials in student organizations as well as dean of women's student affairs and president's office records collections for historical data that show how white southerners repeatedly called upon the image of the southern lady to support southern racial hierarchies Her research also demonstrates how this image could be easily exported for similar uses in other areas of the United States that shared white southerners concerns over changing social demographics and racial discord By revealing national sororities as significant players in the grassroots conservative movement of the twentieth century Freeman illuminates the history of contemporary sororities difficult campus relationships and their continuing legacy of discriminatory behavior and conservative rhetoric A Cryptic Clue Victoria Gilbert,2023-07-11
