Sorrowless Times A Narrative:

Sorrowless Times James Herndon, 1981 Narratives of Sorrow and Dignity Bardwell L. Smith, 2013-05-22 Bardwell L. Smith offers a fresh perspective on the Japanese ceremony performed to bring solace to those who have experienced miscarriage stillbirth or abortion Showing how old and new forms of myth symbol doctrine praxis and organization combine and overlap in contemporary mizuko kuy Smith provides critical insight from many angles the sociology of the family the power of the medical profession the economics of temples the import of ancestral connections the need for healing in both private and communal ways and perhaps above all the place of women in modern Japanese religion At the heart of Smith's research is the issue of how human beings experience the death of a life that has been and remains precious to them While universal these losses are also personal and unique The role of society in helping people to heal from these experiences varies widely and has changed enormously in recent decades In examples of grieving for these kinds of losses one finds narratives not only of deep sorrow but of remarkable dignity Sister in Sorrow Ilana Rosen, 2008-03-14 Students of Holocaust studies and women's studies will be grateful for the specific and personal approach of Sister in Sorrow A Time for Sorrow Donna Petter, Lindsay Wilson, Rhys Bezzant, Emmett Price, 2021-10-05 Six scholars trace the role of lamentation in the Old and New Testaments in A Time for Sorrow Recovering the Practice of Lament in the Life of the Church reflecting on the theological significance of lament affirming the ongoing relevance of lamentation in the life of the church and exploring its biblical roots and application in church practice In a church era dominated by positive thinking and slick upbeat worship even mentioning the word lamentation is apt to cause a dismissive disinterested shrug But Christians still suffer and this suffering is left mute when the church fails to integrate biblical lament in contemporary church practice A Time for Sorrow looks to address this by recovering the biblical practice of bringing our pain before God in an honest and faithful manner In this multiauthor work learn about the role of lamentation in the Old and New Testaments reflect on the theological significance of lament and finish with thoughts on lament and pastoral practice today Labor of Love, Labor of Sorrow Jacqueline Jones, 2009-12-29 The forces that shaped the institution of slavery in the American South endured albeit in altered form long after slavery was abolished Toiling in sweltering Virginia tobacco factories or in the kitchens of white families in Chicago black women felt a stultifying combination of racial discrimination and sexual prejudice And yet in their efforts to sustain family ties they shared a common purpose with wives and mothers of all classes In Labor of Love, Labor of Sorrow historian Jacqueline Jones offers a powerful account of the changing role of black women lending a voice to an unsung struggle from the depths of slavery to the ongoing fight for civil rights Trauma Narratives and Herstory S. Andermahr, S. Pellicer-Ortin, 2013-04-09 Featuring contributions from a wide array of international scholars the book explores the variety of representational strategies used to depict female traumatic experiences in texts by or about women and in so doing articulates the complex relation between trauma gender and signification Circles of Sorrow, Lines of Struggle

Gurleen Grewal,1998-12-01 This close study of the first six novels of Toni Morrison The Bluest Eye Sula Song of Solomon Tar Baby Beloved and Jazz situates her as an African American writer within the American literary tradition who interrogates national identity and reconstructs social memory Circles of Sorrow Lines of Struggle portrays Nobel laureate Morrison as a historiographer attempting to bridge the gap between emergent black middle class America and its subaltern origins Gurleen Grewal demonstrates how Morrison s novels perform a therapeutic and political function of recovery What is most compelling about Morrison s fiction Grewal posits is its reevaluation of the individual via the complex sociopolitical heritage that bespeaks the individual Ultimately these fictive circles of sorrow invite the reader into the collective struggle of humankind who are living the long sentence of history by repeating contesting and remaking it

The Politics of Sorrow Daniel D. Martin,2016-02-24 Drawing on several years of research with grief support organizations and the families and friends of murdered children this book examines the emotional experience of families in the aftermath of a homicide It examines the politics of sorrow offering a comparative analysis of White and African American families as they navigate the experience of homicide shedding light on the ways in which the class location or ethnicity of mourners affects their experience Analyzing the manner in which police and other authorities differentially extend emotional support to bereaved families notify them of a homicide or assign blame The Politics of Sorrow reveals how disenfranchised grief comes to be an institutionalized outcome of their practice The book further examines the effects of announcement shock and the importance to the family of the moral career of the deceased as they seek to manage his or her identity often dealing with their grief through an active pursuit of justice in court or through political involvement with a grief support organization which mobilizes families in pursuit of its political ends A rigorous study of stigma identity and stratified experiences of grief The Politics of Sorrow will appeal to sociologists interested in interactionist methods race class and emotion Sorrow in Sunlight Ronald Firbank,2023-11-21 In Sorrow in Sunlight Ronald Firbank weaves a delicate tapestry of emotion and nuance exploring themes of beauty melancholy and the fleeting nature of existence This novel rich in its lyrical prose and vivid imagery is set against the backdrop of early 20th century Europe capturing the essence of an era marked by both glamour and introspection Firbank s distinctive literary style blends modernist sensibilities with a deft eye for absurdity and irony encouraging readers to engage with both the characters inner lives and their social milieu while remaining aware of the subtleties that define human connections Ronald Firbank an enigmatic figure in literature was known for his avant garde approach and his fascination with the intricacies of human relationships Coming from a background steeped in art and culture Firbank s experiences in elite social circles reveal much about the world he depicts in his work His own struggles with personal identity and societal expectations likely informed the deeply introspective and often bittersweet tone found in Sorrow in Sunlight which deftly mirrors his own ambivalence towards the conventions of his time This book invites readers into a world where beauty and sadness coexist in haunting harmony making it a must read for those who appreciate literary exploration of the human spirit Firbank s unique voice characterized by his playful yet poignant narratives will resonate with lovers of modernist literature and those seeking a deeper understanding of the complexities of life love and loss When Sorrow Comes Melissa M. Matthes,2021-04-13 In the wake of national tragedies it matters who is mourned and who is overlooked Focusing on Protestant sermons Melissa Matthes argues that since WWII America s religious majority has defined and redefined the nation and belonging through post crisis mourning And by embracing a patriotic role preachers also act as civic educators Mapping Generations of Traumatic Memory in American Narratives Dana Mihăilescu,Roxana Oltean,Mihaela Precup,2014-06-12 This volume collects work by several European North American and Australian academics who are interested in examining the performance and transmission of post traumatic memory in the contemporary United States The contributors depart from the interpretation of trauma as a unique exceptional event that shatters all systems of representation as seen in the writing of early trauma theorists like Cathy Caruth Shoshana Felman and Dominick LaCapra Rather the chapters in this collection are in conversation with more recent readings of trauma such as Michael Rothberg s multidirectional memory 2009 the role of mediation and remediation in the dynamics of cultural memory Astrid Erll 2012 Aleida Assman 2011 and Stef Craps focus on postcolonial witnessing and its cross cultural dimension 2013 The corpus of post traumatic narratives under discussion includes fiction diaries memoirs films visual narratives and oral testimonies A complicated dialogue between various and sometimes conflicting narratives is thus generated and examined along four main lines in this volume trauma in the context of multidirectional memory the representation of trauma in autobiographical texts the dynamic of public forms of national commemoration and the problematic instantiation of 9 11 as a traumatic landmark
