Sorrows Company Great Writers On Loss And Grief:

Sorrow's Company Dewitt Henry, 2001-09-16 In this volume DeWitt Henry has collected some of the finest contemporary writing about loss and the grieving process essays that explore emotional trauma in finely crafted prose Debra Spark recounts her sister's death and reflects on all of the ideas that have helped her come to terms with grief William Gibson writes eloquently of his mother's passing with a new understanding of the cycles of life Andre Dubus describes the terrible loss of mobility he suffered in a freak accident and what his pain and disability taught him about the human will Transported back to her native Antigua and to all the complexities of a difficult childhood Jamaica Kincaid confronts her brother's ostracism and death from AIDS All of the pieces reflect in some aspect the tenacity the strength to go forward and to love that has informed these life journeys and the resolve that what matters is not what becomes of us but what we become This collection offers a unique perspective on loss a depth of insight and compassion that only such masterful writers could summon

Lost Bodies Laura E. Tanner, 2018-07-05 If the dying body makes us flinch and look away struggling not to see what we have seen the lost body disappears from cultural view buried along with the sensory traces of its corporeal presence from the Introduction American popular culture conducts a passionate love affair with the healthy fit preferably beautiful body and in recent years theories of embodiment have assumed importance in various scholarly disciplines But what of the dying or dead body Why do we avert our gaze speak of it only as absence This thoughtful and beautifully written book illustrated with photographs by Shellburne Thurber and other remarkable images finds a place for the dying and lost body in the material intellectual and imaginary spaces of contemporary American culture Laura E Tanner focuses her keen attention on photographs of AIDS patients and abandoned living spaces newspaper accounts of September 11 literary works by Don DeLillo Donald Hall Sharon Olds Marilynne Robinson and others and material objects including the AIDS Quilt She analyzes the way in which these representations of the body reflect current cultural assumptions revealing how Americans read imagine and view the dynamics of illness and loss The disavowal of bodily dimensions of death and grief she asserts deepens rather than mitigates the isolation of the dying and the bereaved Lost Bodies will speak to anyone imperiled by the threat of loss
