A Sort of Ecstasy Arthur James Marshall Smith, 1954 Selected Writings A.J.M. Smith, 2006-09-23 Arthur James Marshall Smith prize winning poet essayist influential anthologist and critic died in 1980 His last book The Classic Shade Selected Poems on which Selected Writings is based stands as his final intention in the world of literature To this long out of print book the editor has added original material by Smith in which he defined and advanced modernism in Canadian writing This edition also includes annotation an extended introduction and a bibliography

The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

The Voyageur Canadian Essays & Criticism 2-Book Bundle A.J.M. Smith, Charles G. D. Roberts, 2014-03-14 Voyageur Classics is a series of new versions of Canadian classics with added material and special introductions In this bundle we find two classic works of the art of the Canadian essay Charles G D Roberts was a distinguished writer of his time who published more than forty volumes of poetry romance fiction and nature writing making him one of the most popular writers of his time He pioneered the animal story in which he went beyond surface elements of nature and endowed his animal characters with qualities of feeling and intelligence that brought them closer to their human cousins Roberts career as a writer transcended his Canadian roots and he was internationally known and popular in America and England Arthur James Marshall Smith prize winning poet essayist influential anthologist and critic died in 1980 His last book The Classic Shade Selected Poems on which Selected Writings is based stands as his final intention in the world of literature To this long out of print book the editor has added original material by Smith in which he defined and advanced modernism in Canadian writing Includes Selected Writings A J M Smith The Kindred of the Wild Irving Layton and Robert Creeley Ekbert Faas, Sabrina Reed, 1990-06-01 The correspondence includes heated and lively debates over the work of poets such as Robert Graves Louis Dudek and Charles Olson anecdotes from the personal lives of Creeley and Layton at crucial stages in both their careers and glimpses of a time of change when the Black Mountain and other postmodernist movements were beginning Admirers of Creeley and Layton will find this book of special interest as will students of literature and scholars of modern poetry Creative Canada ,1972-12-15 Did he ever play Hamlet Has she worked in television What was the title of his first novel Under whom did she study How many children has he Answers to such questions about contemporary Canadian artists have often been difficult even impossible to find This series has been created to provide the answers it covers creative and performing artists who have contributed as individuals to the culture of Canada in the twentieth century Each volume in the series presents a cross section of many different kinds of artists authors of imaginative works artists and sculptors musicians performers composers conductors and directors and performing artists in ballet modern dance radio theatre television and motion pictures directors designers and producers in theatre cinema radio television and the dance choreographers and for cinema cartoonists and animators Within each category of art is included a selection of those who have achieved national and international recognition those who have been recognized locally and some now deceased who markedly influenced their contemporaries locally nationally or internationally This is not a critical compilation rather it is an objective and factual reference work for those interested in contemporary Canadian culture Information was collected by painstaking research in a wide variety of sources and wherever possible it has been verified by the artist to make each entry as accurate and comprehensive as possible Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1955 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December An Anthology of Canadian Literature in English Russell Brown, Donna Bennett, 1982 This is the first annotated anthology of Canadian poetry and prose from the eighteenth century to the present Volume I contains the work of 40 writers Some 200 pages are devoted to poetry and 350 pages to prose which includes not only short fiction but five autobiographical pieces eight essays of literary criticism and a play There are many cross connections in related subject matter in the criticism and memoirs that reflect on other selections so that the anthology offers a firm context for the study not only of individual writers but of the literary culture of Canada With introductions to the writers and their works and annotations The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1956 Revolutionary Memory Cary Nelson, 2013-10-11 Revolutionary Memory is the most important book yet to be published about the vital tradition of leftwing American Poetry As Cary Nelson shows it is not only our image of the past but also our sense of the present and future that changes when we recover these revolutionary memories Making a forceful case for political poetry as poetry Nelson brings to bear his extraordinary knowledge of American poets radical movements and social struggles in order to bring out an undervalued strength in a literature often left at the canon's edge Focused in part of the red decade of the 1930s Revolutionary Memory revitalizes biographical criticism for writers on the margin and shows us for the first time how progressive poets fused their work into a powerful chorus of political voices Richly detailed and beautifully illustrated with period engravings and woodcuts Revolutionary Memory brings that chorus dramatically to life and set a cultural agenda for future work
