Becoming Yourself Alison Miller,2018-05-11 In contrast to the author s previous book Healing the Unimaginable Treating Ritual Abuse and Mind Control which was for therapists this book is designed for survivors of these abuses It takes the survivor systematically through understanding the abuses and how his or her symptoms may be consequences of these abuses and gives practical advice regarding how a survivor can achieve stability and manage the life issues with which he or she may have difficulty The book also teaches the survivor how to work with his or her complex personality system and with the traumatic memories to heal the wounds created by the abuse A unique feature of this book is that it addresses the reader as if he or she is dissociative and directs some information and exercises towards the internal leaders of the personality system teaching them how to build a cooperative and healing inner community within which information is shared each part s needs are met and traumatic memories can be worked through successfully

ListenTalk Kirk Livingston,2015-07-06 ListenTalk Is Conversation an Act of God explores the profound mysteries of everyday conversations uncovering how the mundane and the sublime commingle in the words people exchange in working and playing alongside one another How people choose to express themselves to frame their deepest longings and thoughts either expands or shrinks the deep realities of mind body and human community Kirk Livingston drawing upon education in philosophy and theology and experience in the commercial world of copywriting investigates how words exercise power to make things happen in this world and how those emerging conversations connect people to one another and bind them to God As the title hints ListenTalk ends chapters with questions crafted to encourage conversation among people who share the journey of reading this work together Frequent and effective section headings provide ample markers along the way so that readers may keep themselves oriented to the books presentation To support deeper reflection ListenTalk also suggests further reading and offers pertinent documentation and a topical index If you find yourself awash in conversation talk and wonder if more may be going on than simply filling silence with sound then this book promises to address how God uses ordinary conversations They can become tools to achieve reunion both among people who too often simply pass by one another in the midst of busy days and between people and the God who made them to enter into the divine conversation

Cultivating the Spirit Alexander W. Astin,Helen S. Astin,Jennifer A. Lindholm,2010-10-26 Cultivating the Spirit THIS GROUNDBREAKING WORK IS BASED on a five year study of how students change during the college years and the role college plays in facilitating the development of their spiritual qualities Students the authors argue grapple with the big questions in life Who am I What are my values Do I have a mission in life Why am I in college What kind of person do I want to be What sort of world do I want to help to create Their answers to these questions help determine their academic and career choices and are tied to the development of personal qualities such as empathy caring and social responsibility The study finds that while students religious engagement declines during college at the same time they become substantially more caring tolerant connected with others and actively engaged in a spiritual quest Spiritual growth also enhances academic performance leadership development and satisfaction with college The study provides strong evidence pointing to specific experiences during college that can contribute to students spiritual growth The need for spiritual development in college is apparent Two thirds of the students in the study express a strong interest in spiritual matters well over half report that their professors never encourage discussions of religious or spiritual matters and about the same proportion report that professors never provide opportunities to discuss the purpose and meaning of life Cultivating the Spirit aims to raise the awareness of academic administrators faculty and the public at large to the vital role that spirituality plays in student learning and development Throughout the book the authors identify strategies for enhancing students development and encourage the academy to give greater priority to the spiritual aspects of students educational and personal development

The Yogin and the Madman Andrew Quintman, 2013-11-05 Tibetan biographers began writing Jetsun Milarepa's 1052-1135 life story shortly after his death initiating a literary tradition that turned the poet and saint into a model of virtuosic Buddhist practice throughout the Himalayan world Andrew Quintman traces this history and its innovations in narrative and aesthetic representation across four centuries culminating in a detailed analysis of the genre's most famous example composed in 1488 by Tsangnyen Heruka or the Madman of Western Tibet Quintman imagines these works as a kind of physical body supplanting the yogin's corporeal relics

The Shed Jo Ettles, 2018-10-01 Jo Ettles life changed the day a psychic said to her By the way tell your husband to clean out his shed when he does this luck will come back into your lives and so began a journey in spring cleaning her environment and her life The Shed Change Your Life By Cleaning Out Your Shed is a book about how the chaos in our external environment affects the positive energy flow in all areas of your life Your home is your safe haven your body is what carries you through this life and your thoughts determine how you feel and respond to the world Clearing each one of these areas and filling them with love laughter and beauty will bring your life immense joy Mess and disorganisation according to feng shui principles is thought to create blockages and stagnant energy and it also reflects a cluttered mind Devoting time and energy to organising your surroundings and your life enables greater productivity and the potential for anything Jo Ettles This is a book for everyone who wants to make positive practical and real changes in their life through an easy ten step clean up program for the body mind and soul

Christian Philosophy J. Aaron Simmons, 2019 One of the marks of being a philosopher is participating in debates about what counts as philosophy Of particular note in such debates is the question of how to distinguish philosophy from theology Although a variety of answers to this question have been offered in the history of philosophy in recent decades the prominence of Christian philosophy has been heralded by many as a genuine triumph over the problematic narrowness of strong foundationalism positivism and scientism For others however it signals that philosophy continues to risk being replaced by confessional theology Wherever one comes down on such issues and however one interprets recent trends in philosophy of religion the idea of Christian philosophy continues to present pressing questions for those working in meta philosophy epistemology metaphysics hermeneutics and value theory In this volume established scholars representing a variety of cultural traditions religious perspectives and philosophical priorities all wrestle with how the idea of Christian philosophy should be understood appropriated and engaged in light of where philosophy is and where it is likely to go The volume includes classical essays that have deeply marked the field and also new essays that explore the relevance of Christian philosophy to issues in disability studies engaged pedagogy lived phenomenology the academic study of religion and the workings of social power Rather than offer a unified view that seeks to settle things the contributors demonstrate that Christian philosophy remains a topic of lively debate Wherever one comes down on the issues considered here this volume shows that Christian philosophy is neither merely of historical interest nor of interest only to Christians but instead remains a thoroughly philosophical topic worthy of serious consideration and substantive critique With a Foreword by Nicholas Wolterstorff Noah Porter Professor Emeritus of Philosophical Theology at Yale University Senior Research Fellow in the Institute for Advanced Studies in Culture at the University of Virginia and Honorary Professor of Australian Catholic University

Controversies in Tax Law Professor Anthony C Infanti, 2015-04-28 This volume presents a new approach to today s tax controversies reflecting that debates about taxation often turn on the differing worldviews of the debate participants For instance a central tension in academic tax literature which is filtering into everyday discussions of tax law exists between mainstream and critical tax theorists This tension results from a clash of perspectives Is taxation primarily a matter of social science or of social justice Should tax policy debates be grounded in economics or in critical race feminist queer and other outsider perspectives To capture and interrogate what often seems like a chasm between the different sides of tax debates this collection comprises a series of pairs of essays Each pair approaches a single area of controversy from two different perspectives with one essay usually taking a mainstream perspective and the other a critical perspective In writing their contributions the authors read and incorporated reactions to each other s essays and paid specific attention to the influence of perspective on both the area of controversy and their contribution to the debate With contributions from leading mainstream and critical tax scholars this volume takes the first step toward bridging the gap between these differing perspectives on tax law and policy     A Woman's Heart Ellyn Sanna,2012-10-01 Here is a delightful women s devotional that celebrates the joy of everyday life and the blessings it brings Thoughtful readings will speak to your heart and inspiring quotes and scriptures add to rich spiritual depth of the book Set in a beautiful 4 color design A Woman s Heart is the perfect book to give as a gift or for your personal quiet time
