Soshite Waga Sokoku:

Asia and Postwar Japan Simon Avenell, 2023-12-04 War defeat and the collapse of empire in 1945 touched every aspect of postwar Japanese society profoundly shaping how the Japanese would reconstruct national identity and reengage with the peoples of Asia While America offered a vision of re genesis after cataclysmic ruin Asia exposed the traumata of perpetration and the torment of ethnic responsibility Obscured in the shadows of a resurgent postwar Japan lurked a postimperial specter whose haunting presence both complicated and confounded the spiritual rehabilitation of the nation Asia and Postwar Japan examines Japanese deimperialization from 1945 until the early twenty first century It focuses on the thought and activism of progressive activists and intellectuals as they struggled to overcome rigid preconceptions about Asia as they grappled with the implications of postimperial responsibility and as they forged new regional solidarities and Asian imaginaries Simon Avenell reveals the critical importance of Asia in postwar Japanese thought activism and politics Asia as a symbolic geography Asia as a space for grassroots engagement and ultimately Asia as an aporia of identity and the source of a new politics of hope

Ordinary People, Extraordinary Lives Jackson H. Bailey, 1991-10-01 Tanohata in the 1950s was an isolated fishing village in the Tohoku region of Japan Life there was so miserable that those who could leave did and those who could not stayed on in a state of demoralization By the 1980s however Tanohata had not only joined the mainstream of Japanese culture and economic life but had done so with an adroitness that attracted national notice The story of that dramatic transformation written from the perspective of one who has both observed and participated in the changes for the last 20 years brings into dramatic focus what is happening throughout Japan in the 20th century
