Porcelain imported from China was the most highly coveted new medium in sixteenth and early seventeenth century Europe. Its pure white color, translucency and durability as well as the delicacy of decoration were impossible to achieve in European earthenware and stoneware. In response, European ceramic factories set out to discover the process of producing porcelain in the Chinese manner with significant artistic, technical and commercial ramifications for Britain and the Continent. Indeed, not only artisans but kings, noble patrons and entrepreneurs all joined in the quest, hoping to gain both prestige and profit from the enterprises they established. This beautifully illustrated volume showcases ninety works that span the late sixteenth to the mid nineteenth century and reflect the major currents of European porcelain production. Each work is illustrated with glorious new photography accompanied by analysis and interpretation by one of the leading experts in European decorative arts. Among the wide range of porcelains selected are rare blue and white wares and figures from Italy, superb examples from the Meissen factory in Germany and the Sèvres factory in France and ceramics produced by leading British eighteenth century artisans. Taken together, they reveal why the Metropolitan Museum's holdings in this field are among the finest in the world.

Rearick, 1988 French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw-Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001

Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York, this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin's highly specialized collection, which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum. To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings, Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable. In the mid 1970s, with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg, she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings. These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings, portraits or compositional studies. In the preface, Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings, often demonstrating the artistic process. Foster, curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum, and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history. It is greatly disappointing, however, that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white, often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings. Nonetheless, this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support
