Slavery at Sea Sowande M Mustakeem, 2016-11-01 Most times left solely within the confine of plantation narratives slavery was far from a land based phenomenon This book reveals for the first time how it took critical shape at sea Expanding the gaze even more deeply the book centers how the oceanic transport of human cargoes infamously known as the Middle Passage comprised a violently regulated process foundational to the institution of bondage Sowande Mustakeem's groundbreaking study goes inside the Atlantic slave trade to explore the social conditions and human costs embedded in the world of maritime slavery Mining ship logs records and personal documents Mustakeem teases out the social histories produced between those on traveling ships slaves captains sailors and surgeons As she shows crewmen manufactured captives through enforced dependency relentless cycles of physical psychological terror and pain that led to the the making and unmaking of enslaved Africans held and transported onboard slave ships Mustakeem relates how this process and related power struggles played out not just for adult men but also for women children teens infants nursing mothers the elderly diseased ailing and dying Mustakeem offers provocative new insights into how gender health age illness and medical treatment intersected with trauma and violence transformed human beings into the world's most commercially sought commodity for over four centuries

The African Union Ten Years After Mammo Muchie, Phindil Lukhele-Olorunju, 2013-10-21 This book looks at the first ten years of the African Union This is the second in a series of books that will be produced each year from annual conferences held on the multi faceted issue of African liberation The key themes of the book explore ways of improving the effectiveness of the African Union fostering unity amongst African countries through entrenchment of pan Africanism and building ownership of the African Union by the African people and their communities In addition the thoughts of key figures of pan Africanism and black emancipation such as Sylvester Williams and Frantz Fanon are re positioned to even greater contemporary relevance Through its promotion of Ethiopianism pan Africanism and the African renaissance we trust that this book will add new interest and a fresh perspective to how Africans move forward together into a post colonial era where policies and actions are determined by the united agency of liberated Africans the world over Holding the Line George White,2005 The Eisenhower administration s confrontation with Africa demonstrates the significance of race in the creation and execution of American foreign policy In this new work historian George White Jr explores the ways in which Eisenhower diplomacy influenced by America s racialized fantasies fears and desires turned the Cold War into a global sanctuary for the rehabilitation of Whiteness The Repeating Body Kimberly Juanita Brown,2015-08-27 Haunted by representations of black women that resist the reality of the body s vulnerability Kimberly Juanita Brown traces slavery s afterlife in black women s literary and visual cultural productions Brown draws on black feminist theory visual culture studies literary criticism and critical race theory to explore contemporary visual and literary representations of black women s bodies that embrace and foreground the body s vulnerability and slavery s inherent violence She shows how writers such as Gayl Jones Toni Morrison Audre Lorde and Jamaica Kincaid along with visual artists Carrie Mae Weems and Mar a Magdalena Campos Pons highlight the scarred and broken bodies of black women by repeating passing down and making visible the residues of slavery s existence and cruelty Their work not only provides a corrective to those who refuse to acknowledge that vulnerability but empowers black women to create their own subjectivities In The Repeating Body Brown returns black women to the center of discourses of slavery thereby providing the means with which to more fully understand slavery s history and its penetrating reach into modern American life 'Make Haste & Let Me See You with a Good Cargo of Negroes' Sowande'. Mustakeem,2008 Roots Matter Paula Owens Parker,2016-07-15 Roots Matter recognizes the impact of transgenerational trauma as a result of chattel slavery on the African American community It emphasizes the importance of discovering the silent stories those that were overlooked and ignored unearthing the secret stories those that were intentionally covered up and being attentive to the reverberations of the severed stories of slavery and how they influence family history and family members Interrupting the transference of generational trauma through mourning forgiveness and prayers for healing accelerates the transference of generational resilience Through celebration and blessing the fortitude courage and determination in the family narrative moves current and future generations toward healing and wholeness Roots Matter prunes the family tree of trauma the silent secret and severed stories that stunt the growth of the family and tends to family roots fertilizing them with the recognition of the resilience achievements gifts and talents of the ancestors thus creating a healthier environment for future generations to flourish Gender and the Abjection of Blackness Sabine Broeck,2018-05-23 An anti racist critique of gender studies as a field In Gender and the Abjection of Blackness Sabine Broeck argues that gender studies as a mostly white field has taken insufficient account of Black contributions and that more than being an ethnocentric limitation or blind spot this has represented a structural anti Blackness in the field Engaging with the work of Black feminist authors Sylvia Wynter Hortense Spillers and Saidiya Hartman Broeck critiques a selection of canonical white gender studies texts to make this case The book discusses this problem at the core of gender theory as a practice which Broeck terms enslavism the ongoing abjection of Black life which Hartman has called the afterlife of slavery This has become manifest in the repetitive employment of the woman as slave metaphor so central to gender theory as well as in recent theoretical mutations of these anti Black politics of analogy It is the structural separation of Blackness from gender that has functioned over and over again as the scaffold enabling white women s struggles for successful recognition of equality and subjectivity in the human world as we know it This book challenges white readers to rethink their own untroubled identification with gender theory and it provides all readers with a white feminist theorist s sophisticated theoretical and self critical scholarly account of her own reckoning with and learning in dialogue from Black feminism s critique Broeck draws on a wide range of experience to provide a frame for rethinking gender as category that can work towards something like Black freedom Most importantly Black theoretical insights in this work move beyond intervention to offer a whole new way of being and the author grapples with the new conceptual terrain she is now occupying Rinaldo Walcott author of Queer Returns Essays on Multiculturalism Diaspora and Black Studies No Tea, No Shade E. Patrick Johnson, 2016-10-13 The follow up to the groundbreaking Black Queer Studies the edited collection No Tea No Shade brings together nineteen essays from the next generation of scholars activists and community leaders doing work on black gender and sexuality Building on the foundations laid by the earlier volume this collection s contributors speak new truths about the black queer experience while exemplifying the codification of black queer studies as a rigorous and important field of study Topics include raw sex pornography the carceral state gentrification gender nonconformity social media the relationship between black feminist studies and black trans studies the black queer experience throughout the black diaspora and queer music film dance and theater The contributors both disprove naysayers who believed black queer studies to be a passing trend and respond to critiques of the field s early U S bias Deferring to the past while pointing to the future No Tea No Shade pushes black queer studies in new and exciting directions Contributors Jafari S Allen Marlon M Bailey Zachary Shane Kalish Blair La Marr Jurelle Bruce Cathy J Cohen Jennifer DeClue Treva Ellison Lyndon K Gill Kai M Green Alexis Pauline Gumbs Kwame Holmes E Patrick Johnson Shaka McGlotten Amber Jamilla Musser Alison Reed Ram n H Rivera Servera Tanya Saunders C Riley Snorton Kaila Story Omise eke Natasha Tinsley Julia Roxanne Wallace Kortney Ziegler Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1996-06 Ideas in Unexpected Places Leslie M. Alexander, Brandon R. Byrd, Russell Rickford, 2022-04-15 This transformative collection advances new approaches to Black intellectual history by foregrounding the experiences and ideas of people who lacked access to more privileged mechanisms of public discourse and power While the anthology highlights renowned intellectuals such as W E B Du Bois it also spotlights thinkers such as enslaved people in the antebellum United States US Black expatriates in Guyana and Black internationals in Liberia The knowledge production of these men women and children has typically been situated outside the disciplinary and conceptual boundaries of intellectual history The volume centers on the themes of slavery and sexuality abolitionism Black internationalism Black protest politics and power and the intersections of the digital humanities and Black intellectual history The essays draw from diverse methodologies and fields to examine the ideas and actions of Black thinkers from the eighteenth century to the present offering fresh insights while creating space for even more creative approaches within the field Timely and incisive Ideas in Unexpected Places encourages scholars to ask new questions through innovative interpretive lenses and invites students scholars and other practitioners to push the boundaries of Black intellectual history even further Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971
