Soulcatcher And Other Stories:

Soulcatcher Charles Johnson, 2001-03-15 Short stories inspired by the history of slavery in America by the National Book Award winning author of Middle Passage Nothing has had as profound an effect on American life as slavery For blacks and whites alike the experience has left us with a conflicted and contradictory history Now famed novelist Charles Johnson whose Middle Passage won the National Book Award presents a dozen tales of the effects and experience of slavery each based on historical fact and each about those Africans who arrived on our shores in shackles From Martha Washington's management of her slaves bequeathed to her at the death of the first president to a boy chained in the bowels of a ship plying the infamous passage from Africa to the South laden with human cargo from a lynching in Indiana to a hunter of escaped slaves searching the Boston market for his quarry from an early Quaker meeting exploring resettlement in Africa to the day after Emancipation the voices terrors and savagery of slavery come vividly and unforgettably to life These highly detailed short historical fictions bring to life this most shameful period in our nation's history The New York Times Book Review

Understanding Charles Johnson Gary Storhoff, 2004 Understanding Charles Johnson offers a critical introduction to the fiction of one of the most highly acclaimed contemporary writers and the first African American male since Ralph Ellison to win the National Book Award which Johnson received in 1990 for Middle Passage In addition to providing a biographical sketch Gary Storhoff analyzes Johnson's four novels and two volumes of short stories Describing his body of work as unique in American fiction Storhoff explains how philosophical and religious orientations differentiate Johnson's writings and challenge his readers Storhoff explores the merging of Johnson's philosophical and spiritual interests with his concern for African American culture In identifying the literary principles of Johnson's texts Storhoff emphasizes the writer's commitment to Buddhism and demonstrates its impact on his themes characters narratives and rhetoric Suggesting that Buddhism is the linchpin of Johnson's work Storhoff acknowledges that scholars and critics are aware of Johnson's close association with the tradition but provides readers with what they need to appreciate fully its importance in his work which includes a Ph D in the subject Storhoff explicates the influence of the British empiricists including Bishop George Berkeley on the novelist his rejection of relativism and utilitarianism his adaptation of Aristotelian ethics and his ambivalent treatment of American pragmatism as recently propounded by Cornel West Johnson emerges from Storhoff's discussion as a profoundly eclectic sophisticated interdisciplinary writer with complex views on race relations in the twenty first century Charles Johnson's Fiction William R. Nash, 2003 A fearless experimenter and one of the most important contemporary American writers Charles Johnson challenges separatist politics and tries to get beyond race as a literary category In Charles Johnson's Fiction William R Nash emphasizes and explores the tensions in Johnson's work between his ideal of race as illusion and his methods of articulating racial grievance Nash examines Johnson's short stories novels Faith and the Good Thing Oxherding Tale Middle Passage and Dreamer and the nonfiction work Being and Race Tracing the themes of Johnson's political and artistic concerns as they evolved in his work Nash locates his fascination with the aesthetics of the Black Arts Movement and his dismissal of separatist black politics and racialist thought He also considers Johnson s adoption of Western and Eastern philosophies and belief that race is a blinding limiting category that impedes the exploration of individual and collective identity In formulating a mode of expression that balances the conflicting demands of race and aesthetics Johnson crafts a new vision of history and African American identity that signifies on a range of black and white literary predecessors including Zora Neale Hurston Theodore Dreiser Ralph Waldo Emerson Ralph Ellison James Baldwin and Herman Melville Nash argues that Johnson s hybrid philosophy of Buddhism and phenomenology defies the basic premises of identity formation and leads to the perception of a different self Juxtaposed with jarring storylines of racial injustice Johnson s notion that race is an illusion informs his aesthetic promotes his strategies for battling oppression and reminds readers what African Americans have already overcome in the quest to cultivate new visions of identity Charles Johnson s Fiction also includes eight of Johnson s cartoons published in Black Humor and Half Past Nation Time in the early 1970s

Black Cultural Mythology Christel N. Temple, 2020-04-01 Winner of the 2021 CLA Book Award presented by the College Language Association Black Cultural Mythology retrieves the concept of mythology from its Black Arts Movement origins and broadens its scope to illuminate the relationship between legacies of heroic survival cultural memory and creative production in the African diaspora Christel N Temple comprehensively surveys more than two hundred years of figures moments ideas and canonical works by such visionaries as Maria Stewart Richard Wright Colson Whitehead and Edwidge Danticat to map an expansive yet broadly overlooked intellectual tradition of Black cultural mythology and to provide a new conceptual framework for analyzing this tradition In so doing she at once reorients and stabilizes the emergent field of Africana cultural memory studies while also staging a much broader intervention by challenging scholars across disciplines from literary and cultural studies history sociology and beyond to embrace a more organic vocabulary to articulate the vitality of the inheritance of survival

Race, Transnationalism, and Nineteenth-Century American Literary Studies Robert S. Levine, 2018 This book offers new perspectives on race and transnationalism in nineteenth century American literary studies and ranges widely in developing new approaches to canonical and non canonical authors It will appeal to graduates and scholars working on nineteenth century American literature transnationalism and African American literary studies

Postmodern Counternarratives Christopher Donovan, 2005-02-10 This book provides a wide ranging discussion of realism postmodernism literary theory and popular fiction before focusing on the careers of four prominent novelists Despite wildly contrasting ambitions and agendas all four grow progressively more sympathetic to the expectations of a mainstream literary audience noting the increasingly neglected yet archetypal need for strong explanatory narrative even while remaining wary of its limitations presumptions and potential abuses Exploring novels that manage to bridge the gap between accessible storytelling and literary theory this book shows how contemporary authors reconcile values of postmodern literary experimentation and traditional realism

Writing African American Women Elizabeth A. Beaulieu, 2006-04-30 Women have had a complex experience in African American culture The first work of its kind this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women s Studies perspective While Yolanda Williams Page s Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers provides biographical entries on more than 150 literary figures this book is much broader in scope Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries on African American women writers as well as on male writers who have treated women in their works Entries on genres periods themes characters historical events texts places and other topics are included as well Each entry is written by an expert contributor and relates its subject to the overall experience of women in African American literature Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography African American culture is enormously diverse and the experience of women in African American society is especially complex. Women were among the first African American writers and works by black women writers are popular among students and general readers alike. At the same time African American women have been oppressed and texts by black male authors represent women in a variety of ways. The first of its kind, this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women's Studies perspective and thus significantly illuminates the African American cultural experience through literary works. Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries written by numerous expert contributors. In addition to covering male and female African American authors, the encyclopedia also discusses themes, major works, and characters, genres, periods, historical events, places, and other topics. Included are entries on such authors as Maya Angelou, James Baldwin, Frederick Douglass, Nikki Giovanni, June Jordan, Claude McKay, Ishmael Reed, Sojourner Truth, Phillis Wheatley, and many others. In addition, the many works discussed include Beloved, Blanche on the Lam, I know Why the Caged Bird Sings, The Men of Brewster Place, Quicksand, The Street, Waiting to Exhale, and many more. The many topical entries cover Black Feminism, Black Nationalism, Conjuring, Children's and Young Adult Literature, Detective Fiction, Epistolary Novel, Motherhood, Sexuality, Spirituality, Stereotypes, and many others. Entries relate their topics to the experience of African American women and cite works for further reading.

Features and Benefits: Includes hundreds of alphabetically arranged entries. Draws on the work of numerous expert contributors. Includes a selected general bibliography. Offers a range of finding aids such as a list of entries, a guide to related topics, and an extensive index. Supports the literature curriculum by helping students analyze major writers and works. Supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to understand the experience of African American women. Covers the full chronological range of African American literature. Fosters a respect for cultural diversity. Develops research skills by directing students to additional sources of information. Builds bridges between African American history, literature, and Women's Studies.

Soulcatcher and Other Stories Charles Johnson, 2001 Characters of Blood Celeste-Marie Bernier, 2012-12-06

Across the centuries the acts and arts of black heroism have inspired a provocative, experimental, and self-reflexive intellectual, political, and aesthetic tradition. In Characters of Blood, Celeste Marie Bernier illuminates the ways in which six iconic men and women—Toussaint Louverture, Nathaniel Turner, Sengbe Pieh, Sojourner Truth, Frederick Douglass, and Harriet Tubman—challenged the dominant conceptualizations of their histories and played a key role in the construction of an alternative visual and textual archive. While these figures have survived as symbolic touchstones, Bernier contends that scholars have yet to do justice to their complex bodies of work or their multifaceted lives. Adopting a comparative and transatlantic approach to her subjects' remarkable life stories, the author analyzes a wealth of creative work from literature, drama, and art to public monuments, religious tracts, and historical narratives to show how it represents enslaved heroism throughout the United States, Africa, and the Caribbean. In mapping this black diasporic tradition of resistance, Bernier intends not only to reveal the limitations and distortions on record but also to complicate the definitions of black heroism that have been restricted by ideological boundaries between heroic and anti heroic sites and sights of struggle

Passing the Three Gates Jim McWilliams, 2011-10-01 Known for his blending of philosophy spirituality humor and a rollicking good story Charles Johnson is one of the most important novelists writing today From his magical first novel Faith and the Good Thing to his decidedly philosophical Oxherding Tale from his swashbuckling indictment of the slave trade in the National Book Award winning Middle Passage to his more recent imaginative treatment of Martin Luther King Jr in Dreamer Johnson has continually surprised instructed and entertained his many avid readers As this collection of interviews suggests the novelist is as multifaceted and complex as his novels Trained in cartooning and philosophy martial arts and meditation and producing teleplays photobiographies and literary criticism in addition to fiction Charles Johnson represents a model of what he calls life as art Alluding to the Three Gates of Buddhist Right Speech the title of this volume aptly captures the generous spirit that characterizes Charles Johnson's work An indispensable resource for all of Johnson's many readers Passing the Three Gates represents both the transformation of the artist over time and the continuity and endurance of his aesthetic and spiritual vision A V Ethel Willis White Book

John Steinbeck and His Contemporaries Stephen K. George, Barbara A. Racial Myths and Masculinity in African American Literature Jeffrey B. Leak, 2005 The portrayal of black men in our national literature is controversial complex and often contradictory In Racial Myths and Masculinity in African American Literature Jeffrey B Leak identifies some of the long held myths and stereotypes that persist in the work of black writers from the nineteenth century to the present intellectual inferiority criminality sexual prowess homosexual emasculation and cultural deprivation Utilizing Robert B Stepto's call and response theory Leak studies four pairs of novels within the context of certain myths identifying the literary tandems between them and seeking to discover the source of our culture's psychological preoccupation with black men Calling upon interdisciplinary fields of study literary theory psychoanalysis gender studies legal theory and queer theory Leak offers groundbreaking analysis of both canonical texts representing the call of the call and response dyad and texts by emerging writers representing the response including Frederick Douglass and Charles Johnson Ralph Ellison and Brent Wade Richard Wright and Ernest J Gaines and Toni Morrison and David Bradley Though Leak does not claim that the response texts are superior to the call texts he does argue that in some cases the newer work such as Charles Johnson's Oxherding Tale can address a theme or offer a narrative innovation not found in preceding texts such as Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass In these instances argues Leak the newer texts constitute not only a response to the call text but a substantial revision Leak offers the first in depth criticism of black masculinity in a range of literary texts In a final chapter he expands his discussion to the emerging field of black masculinity studies pointing to future directions for study including memoir film drama and others Poised on the brink of exciting new trends in scholarship Racial Myths and Masculinity in African American Literature is a flagship work enhancing the understanding of literary constructions of black masculinity and the larger cultural imperatives to which these writers are reacting
