Broadway to Main Street Laurence Maslon,2018-08-03 The music of Broadway is one of America s most unique and popular calling cards In Broadway to Main Street How Show Tunes Enchanted America author Laurence Maslon tells the story of how the most beloved songs of the American Musical Theater made their way from the Theater District to living rooms across the country The crossroads where the music of Broadway meets popular culture is an expansive and pervasive juncture throughout most of the twentieth century from sheet music to radio broadcasts to popular and original cast recordings and continues to influence culture today through television streaming and the Internet The original Broadway cast album from the 78 rpm recording of Oklahoma to the digital download of Hamilton is one of the most successful yet undervalued genres in the history of popular recording The challenge of capturing musical narrative with limited technology inspired the imagination of both the recording industry and millions of listeners between 1949 and 1969 fifteen different original cast albums hit number one on the popular music charts ultimately tallying more weeks at number one than all of the albums by Frank Sinatra Elvis Presley and The Beatles combined The history of Broadway music is also the history of American popular music the technological commercial and marketing forces of communications and media over the last century were inextricably bound up in the enterprise of bringing the musical gems of New York s Theater District to living rooms along Main Streets across the nation Featuring new interviews with Stephen Schwartz Chita Rivera Steve Lawrence and prominent record producers and music critics the story of this commercial and emotional phenomenon is told here in full from the imprimatur of sheet music from Broadway in the early 20th century to the renaissance of Broadway music in the digital age folding in the immense impact of show music on American culture and in the context of the recording industry popular tastes and our shared national identity A book which connects cherished cultural artifacts to the emotional narratives at the core of American popular music Broadway to Main Street How Show Tunes Enchanted America is an ideal companion for all fans of American musical theater and popular music

Music and the Silent Film Martin Miller Marks, 1997-02-13 In this book a leading authority on film music examines scores of the silent film era The first of three projected volumes investigating music written for films this thoughtful and pathbreaking study demonstrates the richness of silent film music as it details the way in which scores were often planned from the start as an integral part of the whole cinematic experience Following an introductory chapter that outlines several key theoretical questions and surveys eight decades of writing on film music Martin Miller Marks focuses on those scores created between 1895 and 1924 He begins by considering two early examples one German written by persons unknown for Skladanowsky's Bioskop exhibitions in 1895 and 1896 and one French scored by Camille Saint Saëns for the 1908 film L'Assassinat du Duc de Guise Subsequent chapters fully discuss Walter Cleveland Simon's music for the American film An Arabian Tragedy 1912 as well as the Joseph Breil accompaniment to D W Griffith's Birth of a Nation 1915 As described in this book Breil's memorable score though a compilation derived from many sources was played by an orchestra as Griffith's sweeping images filled the screen thus contributing significantly to the great film's success while also achieving remarkable power in its own right Marks then concludes with a look at Erik Satie's witty and innovative music for the French film Entr'acte 1924 which was the first film score of consequence by an avant garde composer Giving unprecedented attention to a vibrant important and oft neglected facet of twentieth century music Music and the Silent Film will interest scholars of film theory film history modern music and modern aesthetics Music, the Moving Image and Ireland, 1897-2017 John O'Flynn, 2021-12-30 Music the Moving Image and Ireland 1897-2017 constitutes the first comprehensive study of music for screen productions from or relating to the island It identifies and interprets tendencies over the first 120 years of a field comprising the relatively distinct yet often overlapping areas of Irish themed and Irish produced film Dividing into three parts the book first explores accompaniments and scores for 20th century Irish themed narrative features that resulted in significant contributions by many Hollywood British continental European and to a lesser extent Irish composers along with the input of many orchestras and other musicians Its second part is framed by a consideration of various cultural political and economic developments in both the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland from the 1920s including the Troubles of 1968 1998 Focusing on scoring and other aspects of soundtrack production for domestic newsreel documentary film and TV programming it interprets the substantial output of many Irish composers within this milieu particularly from the 1960s to the 1990s Also referring to broader cultural and historical themes the book s third and final part charts approaches to and developments in music and sound design over various waves of Irish cinema from its relatively late emergence in the 1970s to an exponential growth and increasingly transnational orientation in the early decades of the 21st century Music and Cinema James Buhler, Caryl Flinn, David Neumeyer, 2000-11 A wide ranging look at the role of music in film Changing Tunes: The Use of Pre-existing Music in Film Robynn Stilwell, 2017-09-08 The study of pre existing film music is now a well established part of Film Studies covering classical music and popular music Generally these broad musical types are studied in isolation This anthology brings them together in twelve focused case studies by a range of scholars including Claudia Gorbman Jeongwon Joe Raymond Knapp and Timothy Warner The first section explores art music both instrumental and operatic it revolves around the debate on the relation between the aural and visual tracks and whether pre existing music has an integrative function or not The second section is devoted to popular music in film and shows how very similar the functions of popular music in film are to the supposedly more elite classical music and opera Case studies in part 1 Eyes Wide Shut Raging Bull Brief Encounter Detective The Godfather Part III three versions of the Carmen story DeMille s Preminger s and Rosi s Amadeus The Birth of a Nation M Eine Stadt sucht einen Mörder Needful Things Rat Race Case studies in part 2 various films by Almodóvar Young Frankenstein Pulp Fiction Trainspotting Amelie High Fidelity Ghost World Heavenly Creatures The Virgin Suicides and the video Timber by Coldcut Music of the Final Fantasy Series ,
