The Rodgers and Hammerstein Encyclopedia Thomas S. Hischak, 2007-06-30 Still the most influential and popular songwriting team in the history of the American Musical Theatre Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein represent Broadway musicals at their finest The team revolutionized the musical play with Oklahoma in 1943 and then went on to explore territory never put on the musical stage before in such beloved shows as Carousel South Pacific The King and I and The Sound of Music The team also worked in film as with State Fair and in the new medium of television with Cinderella For the first time the lives careers works songs and themes of Rodgers and Hammerstein have been gathered together in an encyclopedia that covers the many talents of these men In addition to their plays and films together every work that each man did with other collaborators is also discussed Hundreds of their songs are described and there are entries on the many actors directors and other creative artists who they worked with A complete list of awards recordings and books about the team are included as well as a chronology of everything either man wrote But The Rodgers and Hammerstein Encyclopedia is not just about facts It explains their work explores themes in their musicals and illustrates why they remain a driving force in the American Theatre This is the first encyclopaedia to look specifically at the careers and works of Rodgers and Hammerstein covering all their musicals together for stage screen and television but also everything they wrote with others The purpose is to create a comprehensive guide to the American Musical Theatres foremost collaboration The encyclopedia is 1 comprehensive describing the works the people involved in those works and many of their famous songs 2 up to date including the most recent revivals of their works and new recordings of their scores and 3 easy to use being alphabetically arranged with cross reference listings chronological lists lists of awards and recordings and bibliographic information for further reading

Kahlil Joseph and the Audiovisual Atlantic Joe Jackson, 2024-07-11 It's wonderful to read a book that ranges across music cinema music video art and literature with such ease One of the beautiful things about this book is that it is really attentive to relationships and this is particularly clear when talking about Kahlil Joseph's creative mentors and comrades including Arthur Jafa and Terrence Malick Tsitsi Ella Jaji Helen S Bevington Associate Professor of Modern Poetry Associate Professor of African American Studies Duke University USA Kahlil Joseph has collaborated with musicians FKA twigs Flying Lotus Sampha and Shabazz Palaces among many others He has directed numerous films music videos and advertisements across Africa America and Europe The award winning filmmaker's disruptive style which frequently merges visual representations of transcontinental experiences with the countercultural energies of Afrodiasporic music challenges the Eurocentric biases underpinning Western media At the same time his works generate various contradictions and tensions because they are themselves products situated within an economic framework of neoliberal capitalism at once offering alternative ways of being while simultaneously participating in and thereby sustaining the social structures that they otherwise seek to subvert and dismantle This is the first book length study of Kahlil Joseph's work Distinguishing the artist's personal and professional personas it traces Joseph's career trajectory and artistic output emphasizing how the director's construction of a multifaceted filmmaking persona operates in tandem with his artworks to challenge fixed unidimensional or stable notions of identity Through biographical study and deep examinations of the director's respective transmedia artworks this book draws from various discussions shaped by Paul Gilroy's ground breaking text The Black Atlantic 1993 By applying The Black Atlantic's disruptive audiocentric ideas to contemporary digital media forms generated by Kahlil Joseph and his peers alike this book challenges the latent Eurocentricity on which dominant theorizations of modernity as well as the overlapping fields of Film Media and Screen Studies are grounded In turn it offers an alternative framework for negotiating the paradoxes contradictions and transnational flows of our media saturated present namely the Audiovisual Atlantic This book has been selected as runner up for Best First Monograph 2025 by BAFTSS British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies
