Muller, 2014-07-11 New Strangers in Paradise offers the first in depth account of the ways in which contemporary American fiction has been shaped by the successive generations of immigrants to reach U S shores Gilbert Muller reveals how the intersections of peoples regions and competing cultural histories have remade the American cultural landscape in the aftermath of World War II Muller focuses on the literature of Holocaust survivors Chicanos Latinos African Caribbeans and Asian Americans In the quest for a new identity each of these groups seeks the American dream and rewrites the story of what it means to be an

American New Strangers in Paradise explores the psychology of uprooted peoples and the relations of culture and power addressing issues of race and ethnicity multiculturalism and pluralism and national and international conflicts Examining the groups of immigrants in the cultural and historical context both of America and of the lands from which they originated Muller argues that this fourth wave of immigration has led to a creative flowering in modern fiction The book offers a fresh perspective on the writings of Vladimir Nabokov Saul Bellow William Styron Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Oscar Hijuelos Jamaica Kincaid Bharati Mukherjee Rudolfo Anaya and many others Richard Wright Keneth Kinnamon,2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author s earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics Modeling Minority Women Reshmi J. how people represent identity in the Americas Suzanne Bost argues that mixture has been central to the definition of race in the United States Mexico and the Caribbean since the nineteenth century Her study is particularly relevant in an era that promotes mixed race musicians actors sports heroes and supermodels as icons of a new America Bost challenges the popular media's notion that a new millennium has ushered in a radical transformation of American ethnicity in fact this paradigm of the changing face of America extends throughout American history Working from literary and historical accounts of mulattas mestizas and creoles Bost analyzes a tradition dating from the nineteenth century of theorizing identity in terms of racial and sexual mixture By examining racial politics in Mexico and the United States racially mixed female characters in Anglo American African American and Latina narratives and ideas of mixture in the Caribbean she ultimately reveals how the fascination with mixture often corresponds to racial segregation sciences of purity and white supremacy The racism at the foundation of many nineteenth century writings encourages Bost to examine more closely the subtexts of contemporary writings on the browning of America Original and ambitious in scope Mulattas and Mestizas measures contemporary representations of mixed race identity in the United States against the history of mixed race identity in the Americas It warns us to be cautious of the current millennial celebration of mixture in popular culture and identity studies which may contrary to all appearances mask persistent racism and nostalgia for purity
