Clough, 1998 Clough history U of Northern Colorado analyzes 13 personal accounts by Kenyans in order to make a case for not only their historical value but their role in the struggle to define the importance of Mau Mau within Kenyan historiography and politics He argues that the recollections of the authors whose experiences ranged from organizing the secret movement to supplying the guerillas to active fighting to resistance in the British detention camps serve to refute both the British and Kenyan versions of the revolt Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Alexander Memoirs, 1940-1945 Alexander of Tunis, 2010-08-19 After his first meeting with General Alexander in August 1942 Lieutenant General Sir Brian Horrocks wrote that By repute he was Winston Churchill's fire brigade chief par excellence the man who was always dispatched to retrieve the most desperate situations Churchill was indeed in need of a fire brigade chief Allied forces had been chased back across the desert by Rommel Alexander bought a new hope to the Desert Rats he instilled them with his own confidence and thought of victory Under his command Montgomery was ready to fight and win the battle of El Alamein Even as his generals drove the enemy from North Africa Alexander was planning far ahead for Sicily and Operation Husky the first major seaborne invasion by either side during the war It was said that before El Alamein the Allies never knew victory and after El Alamein never knew defeat much of the credit belongs to Alexander For decades his contribution to the British efforts in both wars has been overlooked Here however is a comprehensive edition of his personal and candid memoirs which includes judgments on such men as Montgomery Patton and Churchill He also details his role in leading the withdrawal of the 1st Infantry Division at Dunkirk his dealings with Stilwell in Burma and the bombing of the Monte Cassino abbey
