The First Descent Of The Matterhorn:

The First Descent of the Matterhorn Alan Lyall, 1997-01-01 The Matterhorn Guido Rey, 1908 The Laboratory of Progress Joseph Jung, 2022-07-29 The Laboratory of Progress Switzerland in the 19th Century tells the improbable story of how a small backward mountainous agricultural country with almost no raw materials became an industrial powerhouse a hub of innovation a touristic mecca and a pioneer in transportation all in the course of a single century That a tiny landlocked country should become a dominant steamship builder for the rest of the world that a country that had never seen a cotton plant should become the world s second largest textile producer that a country with hardly any level terrain should come to boast the world s most highly developed railway network and that a country whose main export was impoverished emigrants should be transformed into one of the world s major financial centres these astonishing developments among many others are explored and explained both through the specific stories of individual innovators and through a prescient analysis of the political economic societal and cultural structures that formed the context in which Switzerland s astonishing transformation took place The book is a compelling read both for professional historians and for general readers with an interest in Switzerland it highlights the roles of transport networks and individual pioneers in industrial and political development

Fall of Heaven Reinhold Messner, 2017-08-15 A classic event in mountaineering history dramatically retold by a classic mountaineer Ascending the Matterhorn was the 19th century equivalent of standing on Mars A great historical story of tension and drama Author is uniquely qualified to delve into Whymper s complicated personality As Fall of Heaven begins we join professional mountain guide Jean Antoine Carrel as he tries and fails again and again to summit the Matterhorn one of the most famous and iconic peaks in the Alps Is it the Devil s mountain as the locals call it Should he heed the village priest who warned that its summit was not meant to be climbed Carrel is undeterred he just needs capable climbers to join him Enter Edward Whymper who in 1861 at the age of 21 decided unbeknownst to Carrel that he would be the first to climb the Matterhorn So the storyline is set except that where Carrel is captivating Whymper is utterly unsympathetic as an adventurer He is mean and disdainful of guides describing them as little more than porters who eat and drink too much Despite this attitude Whymper s quest leads him inexorably into partnership with Carrel The story follows their many attempts to find a route to the top of the Matterhorn but then fate pulls them apart just as Whymper finds the line His successful summit on July 14 1865 in which Carrel did not take part shocked the Victorian world with both awe and revulsion as four members of Whymper s party died in frightening falls Famed climber and author Reinhold Messner acknowledges that Whymper was the first man to summit the Matterhorn the last of the great Alpine peaks to be climbed and representing the beginning of an age of alpinism based on difficulty rather than conquest But rather than leaving a hero s legacy Whymper is revealed as the Captain Ahab of alpinism a team leader who accepted no responsibility for the deaths of his teammates Fall of Heaven is an exciting tale and an examination of the different types of men who were caught up in the adventuring spirit of the Victorian age and the ironic fates that can follow success or failure The First Descent of the Matterhorn Alan Lyall,1998-02-01

Performing Mountains Jonathan Pitches,2020-04-02 Launching the landmark Performing Landscapes series Performing Mountains brings together for the first time Mountain Studies and Performance Studies in order to examine an international selection of dramatic responses to mountain landscapes Moving between different registers of writing the book offers a critical assessment of how the cultural turn in landscape studies interacts with the practices of environmental theatre and performance Conceived in three main parts it begins by unpicking the layers of disciplinary complexity in both fields before surveying the rich history and practice of rituals playtexts and site specific works inspired by mountains The last section moves to a unique analysis of mountains themselves using key concepts from performance training scenography acting and spectatorship Threaded throughout is a very personal tale of mountain research offering a handrail or alternative guide through the book The White Ladder Daniel Light,2024-09-05

The true story of the thrill seekers map makers soldiers occultists artists and porters who paved the way for modern mountaineering A beautifully written and sure footed history of mountaineering before Everest full of wonderful stories and spanning continents and centuries A splendid debut Sir Ranulph Fiennes author of Shackleton Beautiful remote and dangerous for generations we have looked to the mountains in awe Yet for most that is where the fascination ends For a rare few however the allure of the peaks proved irresistible There are the devout Incan priests who scaling the Andes icy slopes to pay tribute to each mountain s Great Lord travelled higher than any European would for centuries The Gurkha riflemen who joined their commanders in canvassing the Karakoram admiring the distant summits of Broad Peak and K2 with gleeful anticipation The tweed clad mountaineers who made the first serious assaults on Everest hauling yards upon yards of battered rope through the cold Tracing the world altitude record from the ashy slopes of the sacred volcano Lullailaco to the icy crags and crevasses of the Karakoram Daniel Light takes a panoramic journey through the storied history of mountaineering before Everest Joining a cast of colourful characters The White Ladder offers an ode to mountains capacity to enthrall and the fundamental human drive to climb higher and higher Thrilling Daniel Light delivers stories that are poetic spiritual and astonishing in their courage and drive Sonia Purnell author of A Woman of No Importance Daniel Light guides the reader through a mountain scape that stretches from the Alps to the Himalaya with the sure footing of a serious student of climbing history and the lan of a skilled storyteller This is a book to curl up with on a cold dark night in a comfortable armchair before a bright fire Maurice Isserman co author of Fallen Giants Wonderful a massive story with an enormous cast of characters among them some of the most compelling figures of mountaineering history Wade Davis author of Into the Silence Episodes from the Ascent of the Matterhorn Edward Whymper,1928
