The First Hundred Years An Historical Portrait Of The Toronto Camera Club:

The First Hundred Years : an Historical Portrait of The Toronto Camera Club Andrew Oliver,1988 Picturing Toronto Sarah Bassnett,2022-03-30 In 1911 when Arthur Goss was hired as Toronto s first official photographer the city was at a critical juncture Industry expansion and population growth produced pressing concerns about housing shortages sanitation and the health and welfare of citizens Dispelling popular misconceptions Picturing Toronto demonstrates that Goss and other photographers did not simply document the changing conditions of urban life their photography contributed to the development of modern Toronto and shaped its inhabitants Drawing on archival sources from the early twentieth century Sarah Bassnett investigates how a range of groups including the municipal government social reformers and the press used photography to reconfigure the urban environment and constitute liberal subjects Through a series of case studies including the construction of the Bloor Viaduct civic beautification plans urban reform in the Ward immigration and citizenship and Goss s portrait photography Bassnett exposes how photographs were at the heart of debates over what the city should look like how it should operate and under what conditions it was appropriate for people to live This lavishly illustrated book is the first study to treat images as vital elements that shaped Toronto s social and political history Interdisciplinary in its approach Picturing Toronto displays the complex entanglements between photography and urban modernity Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy,2013-12-16 The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come Its coverage is global an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication The Encyclopedia presents new and ground breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth century arena Coverage includes all the key people processes equipment movements styles debates and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool creative medium and recorder of everyday life which it had become by the dawn of the twentieth century The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics students researchers and libraries worldwide Canadiana ,1988-09 The Architecture of Ontario Province, Canada, Toronto Metropolitan Area Anthony G. White,1990

Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner,Mary F. Williamson,1991-01-01 Identifies and summarizes thousands of books article exhibition catalogues government publications and theses published in many countries and in several languages from the early nineteenth century to 1981 Architecture Series: Bibliography ,1990 A History of Photography in Canada, Volume 1 Martha Langford,2025-09-22 From early reports of the invention to its wide application during World War I the idea of photography created anticipation and participation in the modern world The first volume of A History of Photography in Canada captures this phenomenon by looking at hundreds of photographs generated in and about Canada in the making and by listening to the chords they struck in the collective imagination. Emphasizing technological readiness and cultural eagerness for the medium, Martha Langford shows how photography served ideals of progress and improvement as Canada's settler society looked to master the world by seizing its visible traces. The imposition of these programs on Indigenous Peoples and indentured labourers is confronted throughout this volume, which offers both narratives and counternarratives of subjectification. Reproducing images of people, places, events, and objects from the unceded territories of the First Nations, Inuit, and Métis from British North America and from the Dominion of Canada and the Dominion of Newfoundland, Langford asks where and when photographs were taken, why, and by whom. How did the making and preservation of a photograph alter the circumstances in which it was produced, and how did this affect individual and collective consciousness? Alongside accomplished portraits, landscapes, still lifes, and their vernacular counterparts, the book draws glimmers of photographic experience from treatises and doggerel, official reports and personal diaries, newspapers, magazines, letters, and travelogues. Anticipation to Participation chronicles eight decades of reinvention and repurposing, from a wondrous discovery to the wide adoption of a basic tool for knowledge gathering, artmaking, and journaling. Langford's sweeping narrative rewrites the history of photography from the bottom up, vividly expanding the definition of photographic experience.
