

Dear Sir, I suppose Capt Smith made his appearance in St. Louis before I should like very much to tell you not only because I am always glad to see Democratic friends but an answer to me other business.

There is a half section of land near here all timbered (or was so) St. originally owned by a man by the name of Hill & the latter bought it and perhaps gave it to Hill it was afterwards sold to Messrs. and Isaac Pickell bought the place & John Cavender bought the St. Louis town & R. R. & H. Isaac Pickell I understand 40 acres of sec 27 and a man who purchased it and his sons are cutting saw logs making money & having timber and selling to a man who will buy nearly all over the section. I offered Robert Smith a party who both claim the land & he wants a hundred for timber for a year the same to whoever should be the owner but neither of them want to be offer. Now it would be enough for Robert to know that I am going off very fast and that he must get something for it if he had better come here and see I think if he was to make his trip from Washington City against the wishes of both Daffs and the Committee on the subject.
