The Independent ,1991 The Revelations Erik Hoel,2021-04-06 An edgy and ambitious debut by a powerful new voice in contemporary literary fiction Monday Kierk wakes up Once a rising star in neuroscience Kierk Suren is now homeless broken by his all consuming quest to find a scientific theory of consciousness But when he's offered a spot in a prestigious postdoctoral program he decides to rejoin society and vows not to self destruct again Instead of focusing on his work however Kierk becomes obsessed with another project investigating the sudden and suspicious death of a colleague As his search for truth brings him closer to Carmen Green another postdoc their list of suspects grows along with the sense that something sinister may be happening all around them The Revelations not unlike its main character is ambitious and abrasive challenging and disarming Bursting with ideas ranging from Greek mythology to the dark realities of animal testing to some of the biggest unanswered questions facing scientists today The Revelations is written in muscular hypnotic prose and its cyclically dreamlike structure pushes the boundaries of literary fiction Erik Hoel has crafted a stunning debut of rare power an intense look at cutting edge science consciousness and human connection

Incredibly Close John Updike s Terrorist DeLillo s Falling Man and Amy Waldman s The Submission this study shows the iterations of solutions and the abandonment of these ideals by traumatized white liberals While the original concept of the Great American Novel featured fluid and multifaceted explorations of the American Dream The Post 9 11 Great American Novel shows how this renewed interest in creating nation rebuilding texts threatened to stagnate and calcify this literary form Specifically because these texts primarily congeal around the occlusion of Muslims and Islam within and from the United States
