Disgorgement. The Female Body's Text in Early Modern English Drama and Poetry Melanie A Hanson,2012-02-13 This book brings the ideas of French feminist H l ne Cixous to bear on a number of Early Modern English texts The female characters of Mariam from Elizabeth Cary s The Tragedy of Mariam Lavinia from William Shakespeare s Titus Andronicus as well as John Milton s Eve in Paradise Lost and the poetic voice of Isabella Whitney are investigated through the application of Cixous s theories of figurative decapitation and disgorgement The author examines the creation of a unique discourse through the blending of what is stereotypically referred to as female text with male discourse which results in what Cixous would call bisexual discourse Governing the Female Body Lori Reed,Paula Saukko,2012-02-01 Drawing on Foucault s notion of governmentality this collection explores relations between the intimate governance of bodies and political governance The contributors offer empirically grounded yet theoretically sophisticated case studies showing how gendered racialized and socioeconomic agendas structure medical and scientific practices Developing and utilizing a poststructuralist

feminist framework the chapters investigate emerging gendered discourses and practices around health such as breast cancer charities lifestyle genetic testing new reproductive technologies and the development and marketing of various psychotropic and hormonal drugs This will be a key reader for anyone interested in the social implications of cutting edge medical technologies
