The First Liberation Working With Themes At Sherborne House:

The First Liberation J. G. Bennett, 2002-01-01 Bennett was a master at conducting theme meetings and could draw out the most profound lessons from the most faltering of contributions He helped people to see for themselves the practical core of the spiritual path and avoid the twin evils of doubt and philosophizing First Liberation The Sherborne Theme Talks Volume 1 are taken from tape recordings of meetings at Sherborne House between 1972 and 1975 At present we are able to publish only a small selection from the hundreds of tapes More are forthcoming The Way To Be Free John Godolphin Bennett, 2012-04-02 The central theme of this book is the difference between work from the mind and work from the essence Work from the mind produces skillful prisoners of illusion but prisoners all the same Work from the essence is the way to be free It is centered in the heart This book is compiled from conversations that took place between Bennett and his students and includes several sections from previously unpublished notes that were to be used in a definitive work on a complete system of Gurdjieff study It includes an essay on the Octave of Salvation written in the 1940s which shows Bennett's remarkable familiarity with the spiritual traditions of Buddhism Hinduism and Christianity and which is a significant treatise in its own right Bennett was a master of structural thinking but always remained closely in touch with the concrete detail of experience This 2006 edition has a new foreword by Anthony Blake and was compiled and edited by Anthony Blake
