 A piece of wood, two trucks, four wheels: a skateboard. You start by rolling down a sidewalk and end up rolling through life. For some, the ride stops at the end of the street; for others, the ride never ends. This book was written by those for whom the ride is never ending: by the 15-year-old grom who falls asleep dreaming of skateboarding; by the 40-something dad you see at the local skatepark; by the women whose stories have never been told; and by the 73-year-old architect who didn't begin skateboarding until the age of 65. Over 170 stories and 200 photographs. The everyman, everywoman are accompanied by contributions from some notable skateboarders and other personalities from the skateboard world. Some of the great skateboarding photographers have graciously contributed to the book.

Description from www.amazon.com: Sky Surfing Skateboarder Bill Myers, 2002-05-05
 Through a series of incredible misadventures, so what else is new? Our boy blunder finds himself participating in the Skateboard Championship of the Universe. It would be of the World except for the one kid who claims to be from Jupiter, a likely story in spite of his two heads and seven arms. It's a tough crowd where anything goes as long as you win. Amidst the incredible chaotic chaos, by incurably corrupt competitors, say that five times fast. Wally learns there is more to life (or in his case, near death) than winning.
