The Nebraska Educational Journal ,1922 Between Teaching and Caring in the Preschool John C. Pruitt, 2020-07-06 In Between Teaching and Caring in the Preschool John C Pruitt argues that preschool teaching is more than a set of roles and duties tied to institutional expectations Drawing on two years of ethnographic fieldwork twenty three interviews and countless conversations with preschool teachers and analysis of preschool documents Pruitt opens the black box of the preschool to show the complexity of the preschool teacher identity as it unfolds in everyday practices of teaching and caring His analysis of preschool teachers talk and interaction addresses pertinent sociological and early childhood education themes including classroom management social control emotions and identity construction He demonstrates there is more going on in the preschool than teaching young children and caring for them Through practices of classroom management and teaching language preschool teachers socialize children into education contexts and exert social control in and through teaching practices By managing emotions preschool teachers also manage impressions of themselves and the preschool He also shows how preschool teachers use resources like Montessori pedagogy and their lived experience to construct authenticity Pruitt concludes that institutions such as ECE shape identities within and away from the institution

The Giving Earth John G. Neihardt, 2025-07-21 Internationally known for Black Elk Speaks and A Cycle of the West John G Neihardt 1881 1973 wrote in almost all major genres fiction lyric and epic poetry biography autobiography travelogue literary criticism and the familiar essay The Giving Earth includes nearly forty selections representing every phase of Neihardt's art from the passionate poetry of his youth to the masterworks of his maturity to the lapidary reflections of his old age. In her introduction Hilda Neihardt who was with her father when he interviewed Black Elk at Pine Ridge provides many personal details surrounding the publication of his works. She also introduces each section. Included among the early lyrics are Let Me Live Out My Years. The short stories that brought him his first fame are represented by Dreams Are Wiser Than Men and the memorably horrific Alien. An excerpt from The River and I documents a trip down the Missouri as atmospheric and eventful as any described by Mark Twain. A Cycle of the West the five volume masterwork written over nearly thirty years receives its due with chapters from The Song of Three Friends The Song of Hugh Glass The Song of Jed Smith The Song of the Indian Wars and The Song of the Messiah. The extent of Neihardt's achievement is apparent long before the reader comes to the selections from the classic Black Elk Speaks and the fine late novel When the Trees Flowered. Concluding the anthology are selections from the literary criticism that helped form his philosophy of literature and the autobiographical writing of his twilight years. The Giving Earth is the gift of a writer's generous spirit and unlimited imagination.

Milwaukee Garage Bands Peter Roller, 2013-02-12 Milwaukee hasn't earned a reputation as a launching pad for hopeful rock stars but for generations it has had the perfect acoustics for the garage band rock scene. Of course the whole point of garage rock is that every place has the perfect acoustics but just try telling that to the folks who heard Blitzkrieg Over Kenosha for the first time. With dual citizenship in the research library and the basement show Peter Roller follows Milwaukee's garage rockers everywhere they haul their amps observing bands like the Stilettos the Angry Daisies the Palmettos the Chevelles and the Violent Femmes in their natural habitat. American first editions; bibliographic check list of the works ...

Suddenly the front wheel of the truck became caught in one of the many deep ruts and gravel lining the road causing the vehicle and its passengers to flip over several times crushing steel and breaking fragile bones as it crashed. Holly was lucky. She only suffered a broken wrist and cuts and bruises. But when the Jaws of Life finally pried Hilary's shattered body free of the wreckage she was in shock and barely breathing. She had suffered two broken legs several broken ribs a ruptured colon and bruised lungs. Her back collarbone tailbone pelvis and right femur were fractured Her hips were crushed It had taken nearly 30 minutes for an ambulance to arrive and she had already lost a large amount of blood Then as EMTs scrambled to stabilize her in the middle of a muddy Mississippi field Hilary Williams died But that was only the beginning This is a story of struggle and pain But more so it is a story of second chances of love and resolve and recovery When she was pulled back into life Hilary s world changed It was the beginning of a long courageous and inspiring journey during which she would undergo twenty three surgeries and years of therapy Along the way with her family at her side Hilary has learned the meaning of strength not only the strength to survive but the strength to live with the legend the talent the burden and the privilege of her place in country music s most famous family
