

THE BETA THETA PI.

VOL. XI.

APRIL, 1884.

No. 7.

Whole no. 97

TWO SONGS.

I.

AN OLD ITALIAN AIR.

My hands went over the strings, and a strain from the years long over
Woke to their quickening touch, like the pulse of an olden pain,
And I saw the sun on the uplands, I heard the bees in the clover,
The sound of the running water, the pipe of the far-off plover,
As I saw and heard in a summer that never will come again.

The ghost of a hope re-arisen, the dream of a first love slain,
Came through the twilight grey, where the circling sea-birds hover,
As, with touches that woke the sound of a song I sang in vain,
My hands went over the strings.

Something of youth's lost gladness thrilled out in the answering strain,
I heard a voice on the silence like the whisper of April rain,
I caught the glimmer of eyes that the churchyard grasses cover,
As under the golden starlight, by the waves of God's murmuring main,
For the last, last time, my Love, in the life of your girlhood's lover,
My hands went over the strings.

II.

IN HARBOR.

We have flung the oars ashore and the voyage is ended,
We have anchored the boat, to toss on the tide no more—
Blown into the port at last, by the winds of God befriended,
We have flung the oars ashore.

Far from the cruel storm-wreck, far from the breaker's roar,
We rest in the long-sought haven, from the angry sea defended.
We have found the peace of the waters fate's wind never wandered o'er.

Ah, well! but the seas were grand and the skies were splendid
As we watched the waves run white and the rain and lightning pour;
Farewell now to the waves and the waters through which we wended,
We have flung the oars ashore!

James Lindsay Gordon.

Heroic Fraternities Anthony B. Bradley,2023-02-28 An original vision for redefining American manhood in an age of anxiety and an era of socioeconomic change Heroic Fraternities examines the impact of the frat film genre invented by Animal House on ideas about real men and real fraternities that permeate the culture and led the news media to increasingly equate the supermajority of fraternity men with the outrages of a few The ugliest cases have sparked a drive to Abolish Greek Life even though studies show rates of misconduct don t change when fraternities disappear Common sense suggests that young men are struggling to build balanced adult male identities in a world where campus leaders call for them to be less bad and activists acknowledge male allies with notallmen The irony of the abolition movement is what they seek to destroy is also one of the more certain routes to save America s men from the alienation of a society in crisis Fraternities are uniquely positioned to address soaring rates of substance abuse anger and despair by providing men with the support friendship and multiple role models they need Examining fraternity life in the SEC ACC and Big Ten conferences this book presents reasons for hope and heroism at all colleges The University of Oklahoma David W. Levy,2015-11-13 This book the first in a projected three volume definitive history traces the University s progress from territorial days to 1917 David W Levy examines the people and events surrounding the school s formation and development chronicling the determined ambition of pioneers to transform a seemingly barren landscape into a place where a worthy institution of higher education could thrive The University of Oklahoma was established by the territorial legislature in 1890 With that act Norman became the educational center of the future state Levy captures the many factors academic political financial religious that shaped the University Drawing on a great depth of research in primary documents he depicts the University s struggles to meet its goals as it confronted political interference financial uncertainty and troubles ranging from disastrous fires to populist witch hunts Yet he also portrays determined teachers and optimistic students who understood the value of a college education Written in an engaging style and enhanced by an array of historical photographs this volume is a testimony to the citizens who overcame formidable obstacles to build a school that satisfied their ambitions and embodied their hopes for the future
