Songs Of The Good Earth:

The Man in Song John M. Alexander, 2018-04-16 There have been many books written about Johnny Cash but The Man in Song is the first to examine Cash's incredible life through the lens of the songs he wrote and recorded. Music journalist and historian John Alexander has drawn on decades of studying Cash's music and life from his difficult depression era Arkansas childhood through his death in 2003 to tell a life story through songs familiar and obscure. In discovering why Cash wrote a given song or chose to record it, Alexander introduces readers anew to a man whose primary consideration of any song was the difference music makes in people's lives and not whether the song would become a hit. The hits came of course. Johnny Cash sold more than fifty million albums in forty years and he holds the distinction of being the only performer inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, the Country Music Hall of Fame, the Songwriters Hall of Fame, and the Gospel Music Hall of Fame. The Man in Song connects treasured songs to an incredible life. It explores the intertwined experience and creativity of childhood trauma. It rifles through the discography of a life: Cash's work with the Tennessee Two at Sam Phillips's Sun Studios, the unique concept albums Cash recorded for Columbia Records, the spiritual songs, the albums recorded live at prisons, songs about the love of his life June Carter, Cash's songs about murder and death and addiction, songs about ramblers and even silly songs. Appropriate for both serious country and folk music enthusiasts and those just learning about this musical legend, The Man in Song will appeal to a fan base spanning generations. Here is a biography for those who first heard I Walk the Line in 1956, a younger generation who discovered Cash through songs like his cover of Trent Reznor's Hurt and everyone in between.

The Complete Lyrics of Oscar Hammerstein II, 2008-11-25 From every beautiful mornin' to some enchanted evening, the songs of Oscar Hammerstein II are part of our daily lives, his words part of our national fabric. Born into a theatrical dynasty headed by his grandfather and namesake, Oscar Hammerstein II breathed new life into the moribund art form of operetta by writing lyrics and libretti for such classics as Rose Marie (music by Rudolf Friml), The Desert Song (Sigmund Romberg), The New Moon (Romberg), and Song of the Flame (George Gershwin). Hammerstein and Jerome Kern wrote eight musicals together, including Sweet Adeline, Music in the Air, and their masterpiece Show Boat. The vibrant Carmen Jones was Hammerstein's all-black adaptation of the tragic opera by Georges Bizet. In 1943, Hammerstein, pioneer in the field of operetta, joined forces with Richard Rodgers, who had for the previous twenty-five years taken great strides in the field of musical comedy with his longtime writing partner Lorenz Hart. The first Rodgers and Hammerstein work, Oklahoma!, merged the two styles into a completely new genre, the musical play, and simultaneously launched the most successful partnership in American musical theater. Over the next seventeen years, Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote eight more Broadway musicals: Carousel, Allegro, South Pacific, The King and I, Me and Juliet, Pipe Dream, Flower Drum Song, and The Sound of Music. They also wrote a movie musical, State Fair, and one for television, Cinderella. Collectively, their works have earned dozens of awards, including Pulitzers, Tonys, Oscars, Grammys, and Emmys. Throughout his career, Hammerstein created works of lyrical beauty and universal feeling and he continually strove sometimes against fashion to seek out the good and beautiful in the world I know the world is filled with troubles and many injustices he once said But reality is as beautiful as it is ugly I just couldn't write anything without hope in it All of his lyrics are here 850 more than a quarter published for the first time in this sixth book in the indispensable Complete Lyrics series that has also brought us the lyrics of Cole Porter Lorenz Hart Ira Gershwin Irving Berlin and Frank Loesser From the young scribe's earliest attempts to the old master's final lyric Edelweiss we can see read and yes sing the words of a theatrical and lyrical genius The Healing Energies of Music Hal A.
