The final three essays are focused upon traditional suite forms in which gupai and non gupai tunes are mixed examples drawn from the Minnan nanguan repertoire Jiangnan silk bamboo tradition and the ritual music of North China This is the first Western language study on the nature and background of the gupai tradition and the methods by which model melodies have been varied in creation of repertoire The volume is essential reading for East Asian music specialists and contributes to the fields of ethnomusicology musicology music theory music composition and Chinese music and performing arts Xun Xu and the Politics of Precision in Third-Century AD China Howard L.
