Worlding of the South African Novel Jane Poyner, 2020-08-20 The Worlding of the South African Novel develops from something of a paradox that despite momentous political transition from apartheid to democracy little in South Africa's socio economic reality has actually changed Poyner discusses how the contemporary South African novel engages with this reality In forms of literary experiment the novels open up intellectual spaces shaping or contesting the idea of the new South Africa The mediatizing of truth at the TRC hearings how best to deal with a spectacular yet covert past the shaping for unimagined communities of an inclusive public sphere HIV AIDS as the preeminent site testing capitalist modernity white anxieties about land reform disease as environmental injustice and the fostering of an enabling restorative cultural memory Poyner argues that through these key nodes of intellectual thought the novels speak to recent debates on world literature to register the shock of an uneven modernity produced by a capitalist world economy A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka's Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the

South Africa and remains there considers herself South African Louise Yelin shows how the three writers different national identities are inscribed in their fiction The invented hybrid character of nationality is she maintains a constant throughout Locating the writings of Stead Lessing and Gordimer in the national cultures that produced and read them she considers the questions they raise about the roles that whites especially white women can play in the new political and cultural order
