A Study of the Geography of 1 Enoch 17-19 Coblentz Bautch,2003-11-01 A Study of the Geography of 1 Enoch 17 19 examines the travels of the patriarch Enoch who is given a guided tour of extraordinary and at times terrifying places located throughout the cosmos Coblentz Bautch clarifies the text of 1 Enoch 17 19 by explaining how the sites described relate to one another geographically and by reconstructing the mental map of the geography that lies behind the textual descriptions Especially provocative is the consideration of sources from the ancient Near East Hebrew Bible and the world of Hellenistic Judaism that may have informed the world view of 1 Enoch 17 19 and parallel traditions Through this study an important facet of apocalypses is illumined their portrayal of geography and sacred space

Coming Home? Vol. 1 Sharif Gemie,2014-07-18 The wars of the twentieth century uprooted people on a previously unimaginable scale to the extent that being a refugee became an increasingly widespread experience With the arrival of refugees governments of host countries had to mediate between divided national populations some wished to welcome those arriving in search of refuge others preferred a strategy of exclusion or even expulsion At the same time refugees had to manage conflicts of the self as they responded to the loss of nationhood families socio political networks material goods and arguably also a sense of belonging or home While return migration was usually perceived by governments and refugees alike as the best solution to the dilemmas of forced displacement consensus about the timing and dynamics of how this would actually occur was very difficult to achieve In practice the return of refugees to their countries of origin rarely if ever produced a wholly satisfactory outcome Conflicts clearly resulted in forced displacement but it is equally true that forced displacement created conflicts The complex inter relationship of conflict return migration and the sometimes chimerical but still compelling search for a sense of home is the central preoccupation of the contributors to the two volumes of the Coming Home series Scholars from history literature cultural studies and sociology explore the tensions between nation states and migrants as they have anticipated implemented or challenged the process of return migration during the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book begins with Western Europe and progresses to Central and Eastern Europe from the period of the Spanish Civil War to the Cold War era whilst the second volume Coming home Vol 2 Conflict and Postcolonial Return Migration in the Context of France and North Africa shifts the focus to the colonial and post colonial framework of the French North African nexus What emerges from the two volumes of essays is that as ambiguous and sometimes ambivalent as home could appear it was nonetheless central to migrants preoccupations about returning portrayed as comprising two movements the derivation of all reality from a single source the One and the return of the individual soul to it Alberto Bertozzi argues that love is the origin culmination and regulative force of this double movement The One is both the self loving source of the derivation and articulation of all reality in levels of unity and love and the ultimate goal of the longing of the soul whose return to its source is a gradual transformation of the love it originally received from the One Touching on virtually all major concepts of Plotinus philosophy Plotinus on Love is at once an investigation of a lesser studied Plotinian theme and an introduction to his metaphysics Airman ,1999 Everyday Poetics Brett Bourbon,2022-02-24 Locating poetry in a philosophy of the everyday Brett Bourbon continues a tradition of attention to logic in everyday utterances through Wittgenstein Austin Quine and Cavell arguing that poems are events of form not just collections of words which shape everyone s lives Poems taught in class are formalizations of the everyday poems we live amidst albeit unknowingly Bourbon resurrects these poems to construct an anthropology of form that centers everyday poems as events or interruptions within our lives Expanding our understanding of what a poem is this book argues that poems be understood as events of form that may depend on words but are not fundamentally constituted by them This line of thought delves into a poem s linguistic particularity to ask what a poem is and how we know By reclaiming arenas previously ceded to essayists and literary writers Bourbon reveals the care and attention necessary to uncovering the intimate relationship between poems life reading and living A philosophical meditation on the nature of poetry but also on the meaning of love and the claim of words upon us Everyday Poetics situates the importance of everyday poems as events in our lives The Billboard ,1926 Joel Whitburn Presents Rock Tracks 1981-2008 Joel Whitburn,2008 Book For the first time ever Rock Tracks lists every artist and song to appear on Billboard s Modern Rock Tracks also known as Alternative and Mainstream Rock Tracks charts all in one combined comprehensive A to Z artist listing This all inclusive format gathers all chart data from both charts in one master listing so it s easy for you to instantly compare your favorite artist s achievements on either or both of Billboard s two premier Rock charts
