Soul Of The Condor:

The Soul of the Condor Carlos J. Sánchez Sánchez, 1996-01-01 Of Inca descent the author describes his childhood in the in the Amazon jungle and his yearning to come to the United States Through adversity with tenacity the young Peruvian immigrant becomes a doctor of medicine He lives the American way of life but his past haunts him In his medical missions to desolate areas of his youth the author reflects on the lives and culture of Indians whose condition is worse than it was five hundred years ago Winner San Diego Book Awards Best Published Memoir Condor's Eye Ronnie Sarkin, 2015-10-30 Gentle Wind is different Growing up in a North America Indian community around 500 BC all boys of his age want to train as warriors while he is obsessed with exploring nature hunting and exploiting his unusual talents When the clans shaman discovers these curious skills he decides to train the boy as his successor Gentle Wind renamed Condors Eye begins an action packed journey pushing him to his limits Enduring rigorous training many challenges unusual experiences philosophical debates about life and a deep love affair he tenaciously hones his skills to become a great man of his time Interwoven with his story is the gripping tale of Anouar whose beautiful Greek mother arrives in Egypt under difficult circumstances Anouar dreams of becoming a high priestess in the Mystic Temples along the Nile but her powerful intellect and unique talents soon draw her into the fickle world of Egyptian politics She becomes Cleopatras close advisor and confidant only to be drawn into a passionate love affair with Marc Antony Sarkin masterfully draws readers into these fascinating worlds leaving readers utterly spellbound and wanting more His unusual genre continues into ancient Ireland in his sequel Kismet www.feyslamentation.com The Eternal Moment Aleksander Fiut, 2023-11-10 Aleksander Fiut s study of the poetry of Nobel Laureate Czeslaw Milosz is the first comprehensive examination of the artistic and philosophical dimensions of this remarkable oeuvre The author refutes such easy categorizations of Milosz as the poet of Poland the poet of history the poet of the Holocaust He examines instead such crucial problems as Milosz s search for the essence of human nature irreducible to historical social and biological categories Milosz s reflection on the erosion of the Christian imagination which has resulted in a fundamental gap between the individual s inner life and the image of humanity formed by scientific theories his efforts to rebuild the anthropocentric vision of the world while acknowledging the elements that have undermined it and finally his attempt to recreate in his poetry a language that is both poetic and philosophical The Eternal Moment originally appeared in Polish in 1987 This version which quotes extensively from Milosz s Collected Poems is the first thorough introduction for English speaking readers to this major poet This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990 Relentless Redemption and the Groaning of Creation Carla Andrus, 2021-06-10 This is a vibrant rendering from the personal perspective of a trauma and mental illness survivor Masterfully weaving together language to compose multilayered surrealistic imagery that whisks the reader away into realms of philosophy mythology and metaphysics A thirty four year old woman gets lost in her mind and takes us with her to see what she sees and experience what she experiences Supernatural reality takes precedence over natural normalcy for her This is about how she thinks and envisions her way through the darkest spaces in her life at that time Through her eyes we see how she creates romantic mindscapes of beauty and intrigue to understand her alienated states of being in relation to the environment that surrounds her That environment being an out of state jail Gentle and fragile yet strong in faith she faces the darkness that she wandered into by disappearing in it until true daylight makes its way through the cracks of her soul and shatters illusion flooding her with new light and life This is her account of what it was like and what earthly and eternal lessons she learned from it over eight years of recovery time healing and reflection From feet forward and eyes open to mind airing out with pen to paper she flips what her unseen enemies meant for her evil into her good and lasting growth
