Souls Looking Back Andrew Garrod, Janie Victoria Ward, Tracy L. Robinson, Robert Kilkenney, 2002-09-11 Most of what is written these days about young black men and women emphasizes incarceration and mortality rates teen pregnancy drug use and domestic strife This collection of sixteen autobiographical essays by African Americans Africans in America Afro Caribbean and biracial college students who have tackled significant obstacles to achieve success and degrees of self understanding offers a broader more hopeful portrait of the adolescent experiences of minority youth Here are emotionally honest and reflective stories of economic hardship racial bias loneliness and anger but also of positive role models spiritual awakening perseverance and racial pride In these essays students explore the process of self discovery and the realization of cultural identity The pieces are accompanied by commentary from prominent African American scholars such as Jewelle Taylor Gibbs and Peter C Murrell Jr Together they create a vivid portrait of what it is like to grow up as a black person in America and offer a springboard to current debates about self discovery cultural identity and assimilation Often raw and painful always honest and affecting this collection of personal stories written by young people stands as an eloquent tribute to the courage of today s youth and to the power of their own words

Geographies of Girlhood Pamela J. Bettis, Natalie G. Adams, 2005-03-23 Geographies of Girlhood Identities In Between explores how adolescent girls come to understand themselves as female in this culture particularly during a time when they are learning what it means to be a woman and their identities are in between that of child and adult girl and woman It illuminates the everyday realities of adolescent girls and the real issues that concern them rather than what adult researchers think is important to adolescent girls The contributing authors take seriously what girls have to say about themselves and the places and discursive spaces that they inhabit daily Rather than focusing on girls in the classroom the book explores adolescent female identity in a myriad of kid defined spaces both in between the formal design of schooling as well as outside its purview from bedrooms to school hallways to the Internet to discourses of cheerleading race sexuality and ablebodiness These are the geographies of girlhood the important sites of identity construction for girls and young women This book is situated within the fledgling field of Girls Studies All chapters are based on field research with adolescent girls and young women hence the voices of girls themselves are primary in every chapter All of the authors in the text use the notion of liminality to theorize the in between spaces and places of schools that are central to how adolescent girls construct a sense of self The focus of the book on the fluidity of femininity highlights the importance of race class sexual orientation and other salient features of personal identity in discussions of how girls construct gendered identities in different ways Geographies of Girlhood Identities In Between challenges scholars professionals and students concerned with gender issues to take seriously the everyday concerns of adolescent girls It is recommended as a text for education sociology and women s studies courses that address these issues      The History of Blacks in Canada George H. Junne,2003-03-30 This fascinating bibliography of source materials clearly demonstrates the significant roles blacks have played in the history and culture of Canada from its beginnings as well as their 400 year fight for equity and justice Organized by area of endeavor and by province the source materials detailed here reveal that blacks in Canada have created a rich diverse and complex legacy This volume lists resources that point to blacks history as soldiers prospectors educators cowboys homesteaders entertainers legislators athletes artists servants and writers The most comprehensive bibliography about blacks in Canada that has been published it is well organized to facilitate locating specific topics or people spanning black history Also included are newspapers and videos that add their own unique contribution Academicians researchers students and interested lay people will find an organized compilation of a vast number of primary and secondary sources about blacks in Canada      The Construction, Negotiation, and Representation of Immigrant Student Identities in South African schools Saloshna Vandeyar,Thirusellvan Vandeyar,2015-02-01 This is a ground breaking research study on Black immigrant identities in South African schools It is the first major book on racial integration and immigrant children in South African schools The overall aim of this study is to investigate how immigrant students negotiate and mediate their identity within the South African schooling context This study set out to explain this complex phenomenon guided by the following research objectives One to describe how immigrant student identities are framed challenged asserted and negotiated within the institutional cultures of schools Two to evaluate the extent to which the ethos of these schools has been transformed towards integration in the truest sense and to determine how immigrant students perceive this in practice Three to explore the transnational social fields in terms of social networks and cross border linkages of immigrant students and how this impacts on their identity formation Four to determine if there are any new forms of immigrant student self identities that are beginning to emerge Five to determine the extent to which racial desegregation has been accompanied by social integration between immigrant and local students Six to determine the impact of the South African social schooling context on immigrant student identity formation And seven to identify critical lessons and good practice that could be learnt and used to accelerate the racial desegregation and social integration of immigrant students in South African schools      Balancing Two Worlds Andrew Garrod,Robert Kilkenny,2007 Balancing Two Worlds highlights themes surrounding the creation of Asian American identity This book contains fourteen first person narratives by Asian American college students most of whom have graduated during the first five years of the twenty first century Their engaging accounts detail the students very personal struggles with issues of assimilation gender religion sexuality family conflicts educational stereotypes and being labeled the model minority Some of the students relate stories drawn from their childhood and adolescent experiences while others focus more on their college experiences at Dartmouth      Raising a Son Don Elium,Jeanne Elium,2012-01-04 Boys pose special challenges for today s stressed parents In Raising A Son the Eliums embrace the challenges and the joys of raising boys with compassion commitment experience patience and humor This fully updated and expanded edition follows the psychological development of boys from infancy to young adulthood Look for new sections on media and violence the boy code age appropriate morality the out of control son triggers for aggression when and how to get help coping with guilt the highly sensitive son triggers for withdrawal why he gets overwhelmed hypersensitivity and ADD the right role models     Overcoming the Odds Freeman A. Hrabowski III, Kenneth I. Maton, Monica L. Greene, Geoffrey L. Greif, 2002-02-07 Based on interviews with many successful young black women and their families Overcoming the Odds provides a wealth of information about how and why they have succeeded what motivates them how their backgrounds and family relationships have shaped them even how it feels to be a high academic achiever They also discuss the challenges of moving into African American womanhood from maintaining self esteem to making the right choices about their professional and personal lives Most important the book offers specific and inspiring examples of the practices attitudes and parenting strategies that have enabled these women to persevere and triumph     Mi Voz, Mi Vida Andrew Garrod, Robert Kilkenny, Christina Gómez, 2012-11-07 Amid the flurry of debates about immigration poverty and education in the United States the stories in Mi Voz Mi Vida allow us to reflect on how young people who might be most affected by the results of these debates actually navigate through American society The fifteen Latino college students who tell their stories in this book come from a variety of socioeconomic regional and family backgrounds they are young men and women of Mexican Puerto Rican Cuban Dominican Central American and South American descent Their insights are both balanced and frank blending personal anecdotal political and cultural viewpoints Their engaging stories detail the students personal struggles with issues such as identity and biculturalism family dynamics religion poverty stereotypes and the value of education Throughout they provide insights into issues of racial identity in contemporary America among a minority population that is very much in the news This book gives educators students and their families a clear view of the experience of Latino students adapting to a challenging educational environment and a cultural context Dartmouth College often very different from their childhood ones     The Miner's Canary Lani GUINIER, Gerald Torres, Lani Guinier, 2009-06-30 Like the canaries that alerted miners to a poisonous atmosphere issues of race point to underlying problems in society that ultimately affect everyone not just minorities Addressing these issues is essential Ignoring racial differences race blindness has failed Focusing on individual achievement has diverted us from tackling pervasive inequalities Now in a powerful and challenging book Lani Guinier and Gerald Torres propose a radical new way to confront race in the twenty first century Given the complex relationship between race and power in America engaging race means engaging standard winner take all hierarchies of power as well Terming their concept political race Guinier and Torres call for the building of grass roots cross racial coalitions to remake those structures of power by fostering public participation in politics and reforming the process of democracy Their illuminating and moving stories of political race in action include the coalition of Hispanic and black leaders who devised the Texas Ten Percent Plan to establish equitable state college admissions criteria and the struggle of black workers in North Carolina for fair working conditions that drew on the strength and won the support of the entire local community The aim of political race is not merely to remedy racial injustices but to create truly participatory democracy where people of all races feel empowered to effect changes that will improve conditions for everyone In a book that is ultimately not only aspirational but inspirational Guinier and Torres envision a social justice movement that could transform the nature of democracy in America Inner City Kids Alice McIntyre,2000-11-01 Urban teens of color are often portrayed as welfare mothers drop outs drug addicts and both victims and perpetrators of the many kinds of violence which can characterize life in urban areas Although urban youth often live in contexts which include poverty unemployment and discrimination they also live with the everydayness of school friends sex television music and other elements of teenage lives Inner City Kids explores how a group of African American Jamaican Puerto Rican and Haitian adolescents make meaning of and respond to living in an inner city community The book focuses on areas of particular concern to the youth such as violence educational opportunities and a decaying and demoralizing urban environment characterized by trash pollution and abandoned houses McIntyre s work with these teens draws upon participatory action research which seeks to codevelop programs with study participants rather than for them Sister Resisters Janie Victoria Ward,Tracy L. Robinson-Wood,2022-08-23 Sister Resisters advances a robust model of mentorship in support of young Black women on campus The book offers a multifaceted approach to cross racial mentoring in higher education that promises growth and change for both mentees and their mentors Janie Victoria Ward and Tracy L Robinson Wood experts in the developmental and identity challenges of young people of color provide guidance for the faculty advisors and administrators typically white women who invest in the success of this historically underserved student group Through case studies student narratives and research findings the authors document the specific deterrents young Black women face daily on campus from cultural pressures and class bias to racist and misogynistic microaggressions Ward and Robinson Wood call on campus mentors to increase their own cultural competencies so that they may better support work with and advocate for their student mentees This Sister Resister mentorship model emphasizes the acquisition of cultural knowledge the power of intersectionality and the critical role of resistance in the lives of Black and white women as they navigate interpersonal and institutional bias and discrimination Sister Resisters highlights the dual and interactive developmental processes that transpire in both halves of the mentor mentee relationship The book provides anti racist consciousness raising self assessments and other growth enhancing recommendations for women who endeavor to mentor as staunch supporters Suggesting evidence based strategies that promote healthy resistance to negative social and political experiences Sister Resisters equips both mentors and mentees with thoughtfully designed culturally informed skills that can further educational racial and gender equality on campus Happiness and Education Nel Noddings,2003-07-07 This book explores what we might teach if we take happiness seriously as an aim of education Before Forgiving Sharon Lamb,Jeffrie G. Murphy,2002

Psychologist Sharon Lamb philosopher Jeffrie Murphy argue that forgiveness has been accepted as a therapeutic strategy without serious critical examination They intend this volume to be a closer critical look at some of the questions the topic raises     The Culture of Classroom Silence Sandra Leanne Bosacki,2005 In order to add to the growing literature on the emotional lives and silences of adolescents Bosacki education Brock U Ontario explores the crucial role silence plays in the adolescent school experience She provides educators with ideas to integrate the concept of silence into their classrooms and to address issues of self growth especiall     Trouble Don't Last Always: Evelyn L. Parker,2003-04-02 Racism will never end Drug dealing and gang banging will never stop I hope for God to come and take us away from all this because if things go on the way they are there s not much hope for humankind These are some of the comments from twenty African American teenagers coming of age in Chicago at the close of the 20th century These comments raise challenging questions What expectations do African American youth hold concerning racial injustice What expectations do black youth hold about other issues that are important to them such as violence How relevant is the black church to the issues that circumscribe the lives of urban black youth How is the black church instrumental in confronting racial injustice that black youth experience What signs of hope do black youth identify as being offered by the black church Can the church fashion black adolescent spirituality rooted in Christian hope and action Parker seeks to answer these questions critically examining African American adolescent spirituality and offering congregations a new theological framework for ministry with African American adolescents in the face of injustice and hopelessness What results is the formation of a wholesome spirituality     Race and Racism in the United States Charles A. Gallagher,Cameron D. Lippard,2014-06-24 How is race defined and perceived in America today and how do these definitions and perceptions compare to attitudes 100 years ago or 200 years ago This four volume set is the definitive source for every topic related to race in the United States In the 21st century it is easy for some students and readers to believe that racism is a thing of the past in reality old wounds have yet to heal and new forms of racism are taking shape Racism has played a role in American society since the founding of the nation in spite of the words all men are created equal within the Declaration of Independence This set is the largest and most complete of its kind covering every facet of race relations in the United States while providing information in a user friendly format that allows easy cross referencing of related topics for efficient research and learning The work serves as an accessible tool for high school researchers provides important material for undergraduate students enrolled in a variety of humanities and social sciences courses and is an outstanding ready reference for race scholars The entries provide readers with comprehensive content supplemented by historical backgrounds relevant examples from primary documents and first hand accounts Information is presented to interest and appeal to readers but also to support critical inquiry and understanding A fourth volume of related primary documents supplies additional reading and resources for research     Race, Culture, and Schooling Peter C. Murrell, Jr.,2017-09-25 Responding to a need for greater cultural competence in the preparation and development of teachers in diverse public school settings this book investigates the critical developmental and social processes mediating students academic identities in those settings posing the greatest challenges to their school achievement and personal development It provides an accessible practice oriented culturally responsive framework for teachers in American schools Murrell proposes a situated mediated identity theory that emphasizes examining not just the child not just the school environment but also the child in context as the unit of analysis to understand how both mutually constitute each other in the social and cultural practices of schooling He then develops this theory into an applied psychology of identity and agency development among children and youth as well as their teachers striving together for academic achievement in diverse school settings For researchers professionals and students in multicultural education educational and developmental psychology social and cultural foundations of education and teacher education Murrell s cultural practices approach builds on current thinking about multicultural teacher preparation and provides the practice component underpinning theories about cultural competence

Learning Everywhere on Campus Jane Fried, Ruth Harper, 2017-08-21 Although student affairs practitioners play a key role in student learning few are familiar with learning theories the design of experiential education or pedagogical theory This edited collection describes programs in which student affairs professionals work independently or in collaboration with academic faculty and community partners to create more intentional and consistent approaches that enhance student learning Examples models and case studies throughout the chapters make the theories and ideas specific and practical Exploring educational opportunities in and outside the classroom such as peer education leadership development life and career planning civic engagement service learning and study abroad this book provides both theories and pedagogical frameworks for organizing and integrating the entire institution to promote and support learning Drawing on multiple perspectives Learning Everywhere on Campus shares the interventions and strategies necessary to help students learn new information acquire skills and understand the value of this knowledge in constructing their sense of purpose and self in the world

Inside Culture Nick Couldry, 2000-05-03 Inside Culture offers a fresh and stimulating reassessment of the direction of cultural studies Nick Couldry argues without apology for cultural studies as a discipline centred around the interrelations of culture and power with a clear focus on accountable empirical research that deals with the real complexities of contemporary lives inside culture Chapters discuss the broad conceptual issues around cultures texts the self and the individual There are detailed discussions of a range of cultural studies authors which demystify the elaborate language of contemporary cultural studies with suggestions for further thinking at the end of chapters
