Souls Looking Back Portraits Of Growing Up Black:

Souls Looking Back Andrew Garrod, Janie Victoria Ward, Tracy L. Robinson, Robert Kilkenney, 2002-09-11 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Adolescent Portraits Andrew C. Garrod, Robert Kilkenney, 2022-04-25 Adolescent Portraits introduces contemporary theories and research that surround adolescent development today through eighteen first person accounts written by young adults The case study approach of the book illustrates the complexity of the individual experience and the interactions among an individual s needs ideas relationships and context Each case taken alone helps us begin to know one more adolescent and his or her experience taken together the cases provide a rich overview of the wide diverse and complex range of adolescent experiences This edition also includes three follow up essays written five or more years after their original memoir The authors of these follow ups reflect on their original story written in late adolescence from the more mature point of view of full fledged adulthood These retrospectives provide a poignant and lifespan developmental perspective on the ways in which the adolescent themes of identity and challenges transform for better or worse with the tasks of adulthood With contributions from adolescents from a range of racial class and family backgrounds the book provides a diverse introduction to the adolescent experience It is a must read for any student of adolescent development      Black Nonfiction Books, Their Authors, and Their Publishers Harry B. Dunbar, 2001-11-06      Mi Voz, Mi Vida Andrew C. Garrod, Robert Kilkenney, Christina Gomez, 2012-12-17 Amid the flurry of debates about immigration poverty and education in the United States the stories in Mi Voz Mi Vida allow us to reflect on how young people who might be most affected by the results of these debates actually navigate through American society The fifteen Latino college students who tell their stories in this book come from a variety of socioeconomic regional and family backgrounds they are young men and women of Mexican Puerto Rican Cuban Dominican Central American and South American descent Their insights are both balanced and frank blending personal anecdotal political and cultural viewpoints Their engaging stories detail the students personal struggles with issues such as identity and biculturalism family dynamics religion poverty stereotypes and the value of education Throughout they provide insights into issues of racial identity in contemporary America among a minority population that is very much in the news This book gives educators students and their families a clear view of the experience of Latino students adapting to a challenging educational environment and a cultural context Dartmouth College often very different from their childhood ones      Balancing Two Worlds Andrew Garrod, Robert Kilkenney, 2007 Balancing Two Worlds highlights themes surrounding the creation of Asian American identity This book contains fourteen first person narratives by Asian American college students most of whom have graduated during the first five years of the twenty first century Their engaging accounts detail the students very personal struggles with issues of assimilation gender religion sexuality family conflicts educational stereotypes and being labeled the model minority Some of the students relate stories drawn from their childhood and adolescent experiences while others focus more on their college experiences at Dartmouth      Growing Up Muslim Andrew Garrod, Robert Kilkenny, 2014-04-11 While 9 11 and its aftermath created a traumatic turning point for most of the writers in this book it is telling that none of their essays begin with that moment These young people were living probing and shifting their Muslim identities long before 9 11 I've heard it said that the second generation never asks the first about its story but nearly all the essays in this book include long intimate portrayals of Muslim family life often going back generations These young Muslims are constantly negotiating the differences between families for whom faith and culture were matters of honor and North America's youth culture with its emphasis on questioning exploring and inventing one's own destiny from the Introduction by Eboo Patel In Growing Up Muslim Andrew Garrod and Robert Kilkenny present fourteen personal essays by college students of the Muslim faith who are themselves immigrants or are the children of immigrants to the United States In their essays the students grapple with matters of ethnicity religious prejudice and misunderstanding and what is termed Islamophobia The fact of 9 11 and subsequent surveillance and suspicion of Islamic Americans particularly those hailing from the Middle East and the Asian Subcontinent have had a profound effect on these students their families and their communities of origin      Black Matters Andrew Garrod, Robert Kilkenny, 2023-03-30 Black Matters presents an anthology of stories of African American and African undergraduate and graduate students experiences at college offering lifespan perspectives on their formative relationships and influences life changing events and the role their heritage has played in shaping their personal identities values and choices Andrew Garrod and Robert Kilkenny bring together contributors who share personal memoirs reflecting on their experience of navigating life on campus as students of Dartmouth College New Hampshire The ten brave authors six Black men and four Black women present thoughtful often emotional accounts of moments that transformed their academic professional and racial identities Supplemented by follow up accounts of four of the graduates the text underlines developmental perspectives whilst examining what has remained the same about their lives and values and what has changed over time The collection explores the notion of hard work and grit in overcoming discrimination racism and adversity and how in reality college students who are not part of the racial cultural majority must contend with the normative identity challenges of late adolescence while carrying the extra burden of twoness Featuring an introduction by Chant Mouton Kinyon this anthology examines crucial topics including classroom experience intellectual stimulation and learning environment interactions with African American and African students friendships that crossed the lines of race ethnicity class gender and sexual orientation and how collegiate life affects issues related to personal and racial identities The rich narratives in Black Matters provide vital insight into the relationship between collegiate experiences and racial identities It will be essential reading for students and scholars of psychology education cultural anthropology sociology and creative writing as well as for those responsible for campus climate and student experience      Souls Looking Back Andrew Garrod, Janie Victoria Ward, Tracy L. Robinson, Robert Kilkenny, 2002-09-11 Most of what is written these days about young black men and women emphasizes incarceration and mortality rates teen pregnancy drug use and domestic strife This collection of sixteen autobiographical essays by African Americans Africans in America Afro Caribbean and biracial college students who have tackled significant obstacles to achieve success and degrees of self understanding offers a broader more hopeful portrait of the adolescent experiences of minority youth Here are emotionally honest and reflective stories of economic hardship racial bias loneliness and anger but also of positive role models spiritual awakening perseverance and racial pride In these essays students explore the process of self discovery and the realization of cultural identity The pieces are accompanied by commentary from prominent African American scholars such as Jewelle Taylor Gibbs and Peter C Murrell Jr Together they create a vivid portrait of what it is like to grow up as a black person in America and offer a springboard to current debates about self discovery cultural identity and assimilation Often raw and painful always honest and affecting this collection of personal stories written by young people stands as an eloquent tribute to the courage of today's youth and to the power of their own words

Mixed Andrew C. Garrod, Robert Kilkenny, Christina Gomez, 2013-12-15
Mixed presents engaging and incisive first person experiences of what it is like to be multiracial in what is supposedly a postracial world Bringing together twelve essays by college students who identify themselves as multiracial this book considers what this identity means in a reality that occasionally resembles the post racial dream of some and at other times recalls a familiar world of racial and ethnic prejudice Exploring a wide range of concerns and anxieties aspirations and ambitions these young writers who all attended Dartmouth College come from a variety of racial ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds Unlike individuals who define themselves as having one racial identity these students have lived the complexity of their identity from a very young age In Mixed a book that will benefit educators students and their families they eloquently and often passionately reveal how they experience their multiracial identity how their parents race or ethnicity shaped their childhoods and how perceptions of their race have affected their relationships

My Soul Looks Back Jessica B. Harris, 2017-05-09 In this captivating new memoir award winning writer Jessica B Harris recalls her youth surrounded by some of the most famous creative minds of the seventies and eighties James Baldwin Maya Angelou Toni Morrison Nina Simone New York magazine in a vibrant lost era of New York City In the Technicolor glow of the early seventies Jessica B Harris debated celebrated and danced her way from the jazz clubs of the Manhattan's West Side to the restaurants of Greenwich Village living out her buoyant youth alongside the great minds of the day luminaries like Maya Angelou James Baldwin and Toni Morrison My Soul Looks Back is her tribute to that fascinating social circle and their shared commitment to activism intellectual engagement and each other With simmering warmth The New York Times Harris paints evocative portraits of her illustrious friends Baldwin as he read aloud an early draft of If Beale Street Could Talk Angelou cooking in her California kitchen and Morrison relaxing at Baldwin's house in Provence Harris describes her role as theater critic for the New York Amsterdam News and editor at then burgeoning Essence magazine star studded parties in the South of France drinks at Mikell's a hip West Side club and the simple joy these extraordinary people took in each other's company At the center is Harris's relationship with Sam Floyd a fellow professor at Queens College who introduced her to Baldwin More than a memoir of friendship and first love My Soul Looks Back is a carefully crafted intimately understood homage to a bygone era and the people that made it so remarkable I Am Where I Come From Andrew C. Garrod, Robert Kilkenny, Melanie Benson Taylor, 2017-04-25 The organizing principle for this anthology is the common Native American heritage of its authors and yet that thread proves to be the most tenuous of all as the experience of indigeneity differs radically for each of them While many experience a centripetal pull toward a cohesive Indian experience the indications throughout these essays lean toward a richer more illustrative panorama of difference What tends to bind them together are not cultural practices or spiritual attitudes per se but rather circumstances that have no exclusive province in Indian country that is first and foremost poverty and its attendant symptoms of violence substance abuse and both physical and mental illness Education plays a critical role in such lives many of the authors recall adoring school as young people as it constituted a place of escape and a rare opportunity to thrive While many of the writers do return to their tribal communities after graduation ideas about home become more malleable and complicated from the Introduction I Am Where I Come From presents the autobiographies of thirteen Native American undergraduates and graduates of Dartmouth College ten of them current and recent students Twenty years ago Cornell University Press published First Person First Peoples Native American College Graduates Tell Their Life Stories also about the experiences of Native American students at Dartmouth College I Am Where I Come From addresses similar themes and experiences but it is very much a new book for a new generation of college students Three of the essays from the earlier book are gathered into a section titled Continuing Education each followed by a shorter reflection from the author on his or her experience since writing the original essay All three have changed jobs multiple times returned to school for advanced degrees started and increased their families and along the way continuously revised and refined what it means to be Indian The autobiographies contained in I Am Where I Come From explore issues of native identity adjustment to the college environment cultural and familial influences and academic and career aspirations The memoirs are notable for their eloquence and bravery My Soul Look Back in Wonder Geneva Napoleon Smitherman, 2022-01-31 This is the story of Dr Geneva Smitherman aka Dr G the pioneering linguist often referred to as the Queen of Black Language In a series of narrative essays Dr G writes eloquently and powerfully about the role of language in social transformation and the academic intellectual linguistic and societal debates that shaped her groundbreaking work as a Black Studies O G and a Womanist scholar activist of African American Language These eleven essays narrate the development of Dr G's race gender class and linguistic consciousness as a member of the Black Power Generation of the 1960s and 70s In My Soul Look Back In Wonder Dr G links the personal to the professional and the political situating the struggles and successes of a Black woman in the Academy within the historical experiences and development of her people As Dr G enters her eighth decade in this Black

Lives Matter historical moment she seeks to share the meaning and purpose of a life of study and struggle and its significance for all those who seek racial and social justice today     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971     Happiness and Education Nel Noddings,2003-07-07 This book explores what we might teach if we take happiness seriously as an aim of education     The Bookman ,1903     Dragon Magic - Starfall Grove Book 2 Sheri Eleese,2024-02-25 A witch and a dragon walk into a bar Fates mates yes A smooth path to love not exactly Spencer Harris has a magical touch in the kitchen that brings people from miles around to his bakery But as successful as he is in business his personal life is a trainwreck until the night he meets a beautiful man whose soul calls to his own For a few short hours Spencer s life is fairy tale perfect until the next morning when his mate breaks his heart and shatters his dreams Raphael Gladstone prince and heir to his clan should be living a golden life but darkness and shadows haunt his dreams He s a tormented dragon longing for peace which he finds the night his mate stumbles into his arms For a few magical hours the burdens on his heart are lifted and his soul knows peace until the next morning when he does the unthinkable and sends his mate away Caught in a web of danger and deceit Spencer and Raphael will have to navigate their way to the truth if they re going to protect each other from the evil trying to destroy them Tags MM Paranormal suspense with romantic elements a lonely kitchen witch a dragon who s doing his best but messing up royally fated mates rings of power an ancient sword betrayal magic cake and donuts fade to black steamy times and a HEA This book is not a standalone and is best read as part of the Starfall Grove series     The Complete Works of Lord Byron with Portrait and Illustrations Collected and Arranged with Notes by Sir Walter Scott ... [et Al.] George Gordon Byron,1868     Flight of the Harlem Pigeon Man Derek Alvez,2004-11 Flight Of The Harlem Pigeon Man was written for both men and women The collection of essays in this book takes you on a literary journey inside the heart and mind of a man and situates you at a roundtable discussion about the many issues that relate to men The thoughts and emotions expressed in this book are honest and sometimes stark but intent on provoking important dialogue     Saturday Review of Literature ,1926     The Nation ,1999
