The Oxford Handbook of Film Music Studies David Neumeyer, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Film Music Studies gathers two dozen original essays that chart the history and current state of interdisciplinary scholarship on music in audiovisual media focusing on four areas history genre and medium analysis and criticism and interpretation

Film and Television Scores, 1950-1979 Kristopher Spencer, 2014-01-10 Hollywood film scores underwent a supersonic transformation from the 1950s through the 1970s This genre by genre overview of film and television soundtrack music covers a period of tremendous artistic and commercial development in the medium Film and television composers bypassed the classical tradition favored by earlier screen composers to experiment with jazz rock funk and avant garde styles This bold approach brought a rich variety to film and television productions that often took on a life of its own through records and CDs From Bernard Herrmann to Ennio Morricone the composers of the Silver Age changed the way movie music was made used and heard The book contains more than 100 promotional film stills and soundtrack cover art images      Film Music: A History James Wierzbicki, 2009-01-21 Film Music A History explains the development of film music by considering large scale aesthetic trends and structural developments alongside socioeconomic technological cultural and philosophical circumstances The book s four large parts are given over to Music and the Silent Film 1894 1927 Music and the Early Sound Film 1895 1933 Music in the Classical Style Hollywood Film 1933 1960 and Film Music in the Post Classic Period 1958 2008 Whereas most treatments of the subject are simply chronicles of great film scores and their composers this book offers a genuine history of film music in terms of societal changes and technological and economic developments within the film industry Instead of celebrating film music masterpieces it deals logically and thoroughly with the complex machine whose smooth running allowed those occasional masterpieces to happen and whose periodic adjustments prompted the large scale twists and turns in film music s path      100 Greatest Film Scores Matt Lawson, Laurence MacDonald, 2018-09-15 The background music on a film can make or break the audience experience Imagine the shower scene in Psycho without the shrieking violins or Jaws without the ominous notes that portend the shark s attack Musical accompaniment helps create atmosphere for the viewer from subtle undertones to compositions that heighten the drama In 100 Greatest Film Scores authors Matt Lawson and Laurence E MacDonald consider the finest music produced for cinema since the development of motion picture sound Each entry includes background details about the film biographical information about the composer a concise analysis of the score and a summary of the score s impact both within the film and on cinematic history Among the many films cited here are iconic scores for The Adventures of Robin Hood A Beautiful Mind The Big Country Chariots of Fire Citizen Kane Edward Scissorhands Fargo Gone with the Wind The Great Escape Jurassic Park King Kong Lawrence of Arabia The Lion in Winter North by Northwest On the Waterfront Out of Africa The Pink Panther Raiders of the Lost Ark Vertigo and Up Arranged alphabetically and featuring a photo of each movie the entries in this volume give the reader insight into how music functions across a wide spectrum of film genres Representing some of the greatest composers in the history of cinema including Elmer Bernstein Bernard Herrmann Alfred Newman John Williams and Hans Zimmer 100 Greatest Film Scores will be of interest to fans of movie music everywhere      Crime and Spy Jazz on Screen, 1950-1970 Derrick Bang, 2020-04-16 Henry Mancini s Peter Gunn theme Lalo Schiffrin s Mission Impossible theme John Barry s arrangement of the James Bond theme These iconic melodies have remained a part of the pop culture landscape since their debuts in the late 1950s and early 60s a golden decade that highlighted an era when movie studios and TV production companies employed full orchestral ensembles to provide a jazz backdrop for the suspenseful adventures of secret agents private detectives cops spies and heist minded criminals Hundreds of additional films and television shows made during this period were propelled by similarly swinging title themes and underscores many of which have undeservedly faded into obscurity This meticulously researched book traces the embryonic use of jazz in mainstream entertainment from the early 1950s when conservative viewers still considered this genre the devil s music to its explosive heyday throughout the 1960s Fans frustrated by the lack of attention paid to jazz soundtrack composers including Jerry Goldsmith Edwin Astley Roy Budd Quincy Jones Dave Grusin Jerry Fielding and many many others will find solace in these pages along with all the information needed to enhance one's music library The exploration of action jazz continues in this book's companion volume Crime and Action Jazz on Screen Since 1971 A Research Guide to Film and Television Music in the United States Jeannie Gayle Pool, H. Stephen Wright, 2011 Unlike traditional music film music sources are often difficult to locate and do not follow the patterns that researchers are trained to identify Although there have been several self-described introductions to the field and articles that summarize the problems and state of research there is no resource that gathers together all of the basic information that is vital to film music research In this volume Jeannie Gayle Pool and H. Stephen Wright address the difficulties scholars encounter when conducting research on film and television music Intended as a guide for scholars and researchers in navigating the complex world of film and television music this book provides a detailed taxonomy of film music primary sources and explains how to find and interpret them The authors tackle the problems of determining film score authorship and working with recordings of film music A bibliographic essay summarizes the major works and trends in film music research and provides clear pointers to the most important resources in the field An up to date guide to important collections of film music sources and other research materials is also included Designed to clarify the nature of film music source materials and how they are generated A Research Guide to Film and Television Music in the United States provides clear signposts for scholars and identifies opportunities for further research

Crime and Spy Jazz on Screen Since 1971 Derrick Bang, 2020-04-16 Henry Mancini's Peter Gunn theme Lalo Schifrin's Mission Impossible theme Isaac Hayes theme from Shaft These iconic melodies have remained a part of the pop culture landscape since their debuts back when movie studios and TV production companies employed full orchestral ensembles to provide a jazz backdrop for the suspenseful adventures of secret agents private detectives cops spies and heist minded criminals Hundreds of additional films and television shows made from the mid 1950s and beyond have been propelled by similarly swinging title themes and underscores many of which have undeservedly faded into obscurity This meticulously researched book begins with Hayes game changing music for Shaft and honors the careers of traditional jazz composers who as the 1970s gave way to the 80s and beyond resolutely battled against the pernicious influx of synth jukebox scores and a growing corporate disinterest in lavish ensembles Fans frustrated by the lack of attention paid to jazz soundtrack composers including Mort Stevens Laurie Johnson Mike Post Earle Hagen David Shire Elmer Bernstein and many many others will find solace in these pages along with all the information needed to enhance one's music library But this is only half the story the saga's origins are discussed in this book's companion volume Crime and Action Jazz on Screen 1950-1970 The Encyclopedia of Film Composers Thomas S. Hischak, 2015-04-16 For more than a century original music has been composed for the cinema From the early days when live music accompanied silent films to the present in which a composer can draw upon a full orchestra or a lone synthesizer to embody a composition music has been an integral element of most films By the late 1930s movie studios had established music departments and some of the greatest names in film music emerged during Hollywood's Golden Age including Alfred Newman Max Steiner Dimitri Tiomkin and Bernard Herrmann Over the decades other creators of screen music offered additional memorable scores and some composers such as Henry Mancini Randy Newman and John Williams have become household names The Encyclopedia of Film Composers features entries on more than 250 movie composers from around the world It not only provides facts about these artists but also explains what makes each composer notable and discusses his or her music in detail Each entry includes Biographical material Important dates Career highlights Analysis of the composer's musical style Complete list of movie credits This book brings recognition to the many men and women who have written music for movies over the past one hundred years In addition to composers from the United States and Great Britain artists from dozens of other countries are also represented A rich resource of movie music history The Encyclopedia of Film Composers will be of interest to fans of cinema in general as well as those who want to learn more about the many talented individuals who have created memorable scores

The Journal of Film Music, 2002      On the Track Fred Karlin, Rayburn Wright, 2013-07-04 On the Track offers a comprehensive guide to scoring for film and television Covering all styles and genres the authors both noted film composers cover everything from the nuts and bolts of timing cuing and recording through balancing the composer's aesthetic vision with the needs of the film itself Unlike other books that are aimed at the person dreaming of a career this is truly a guide that can be used by everyone from students to technically sophisticated professionals It contains over 100 interviews with noted composers illustrating the many technical points made through the text

The Music of James Bond Jon Burlingame, 2012-11-01 The Music of James Bond is the first comprehensive chronicle of the songs and scores written for the movie adventures of Ian Fleming's intrepid Agent 007 New interviews with Bond songwriters and composers coupled with previously undiscovered details tales of temperamental artists unexpected hits and surprising convergences of great music with unforgettable images make this book must reading for all 007 fans

On the Waterfront Joanna E. Rapf, 2003-06-30 Table of contents , Elmer Bernstein, Film Composer Peter M. Bernstein, 2023-11-15 Consider this new book the standard Bernstein biography Booklist Starred Review A behind the scenes look at the life and music of legendary Hollywood composer Elmer Bernstein the only person to be nominated for an Academy Award in every decade from the 1950s to the 2000s Over a career spanning 54 years he composed landmark scores in every available genre epics jazz westerns dramas and comedies and his credits read like list of the greatest films of his time The Ten Commandments The Magnificent Seven To Kill a Mockingbird The Man With the Golden Arm The Great Escape Ghostbusters to name just a few This biography written by Elmer's son Peter interweaves exclusive interviews oral histories not otherwise available estate archival materials and personal experiences Elmer Bernstein lived a colorful life he was a first generation American he was blacklisted and he was a fearless advocate for film music not afraid to take on anyone in pages of trade papers The book looks at many of his landmark scores in depth collaborations with various producers and directors and his success in navigating the rough and tumble of Hollywood There is much to his story a cycle of struggle success frustration failure and reinvention repeated many times over his career which connected the Old Hollywood with the modern era     International Index to Film Periodicals ,1997     Hollywood Theory, Non-Hollywood Practice Annette Davison,2017-07-05 Relatively little has been written about film scores and soundtracks outside of Hollywood cinema Hollywood Theory Non Hollywood Practice addresses this gap by looking at the practices of film soundtrack composition for non Hollywood films made after 1980 Annette Davison argues that since the mid 1970s the model of the classical Hollywood score has functioned as a form of dominant ideology in relation to which alternative scoring and soundtrack practices may assert themselves The first part of the book explores some of the key theoretical issues and debates in film studies and film music studies The second part comprises a series of case studies of non Hollywood scores Starting with Jean Luc Godard s Pr m Carmen 1983 Davison argues that the film s score offers a deconstruction of the relationship between sound and image proposed by classical Hollywood film Derek Jarman s The Garden 1990 takes the debate a step further in its exploration of the possibility that a film s soundtrack may be liberated from slavery to the image track Wings of Desire 1987 directed by Wim Wenders offers Davison believes a negotiation between classical and alternative scoring and soundtrack practices while David Lynch s Wild at Heart 1990 actually fully integrates scoring and soundtrack practices so that sounds and dialogue are used in musical ways Seeking to stimulate debate about the aesthetics and interpretation of film scores and soundtracks in general this book develops an important synthesis of film studies and musicology     A perfect cadence Laurence Rosenthal,Daniel Lima Azevedo,2025-07-24 The Man The Composer Meet Laurence Rosenthal In A Perfect Cadence he discusses his life and career his musical education in the 1930s and 1940s his years studying with Nadia Boulanger in Paris his friendship and professional relationship with Leonard Bernstein in New York his time on Broadway and in Hollywood working with actors and directors from Sophia Loren and Richard Burton to George Lucas his celebrated scores from The Miracle Worker and Becket to Clash of the Titans and The Young Indiana Jones Chronicles reflections on the craft of film music and how it has changed in the last half century and personal impressions on aging and facing death at the age of 97 Witness a life dedicated to music and movies
