The Familiar Peppercanister:

The Sea of Disappointment Andrew Fitzsimons, 2008 Considered to be one of the most inventive of the contemporary Irish poets Thomas Kinsella is credited with bringing modernism to Irish verse Kinsella uses sensitive language to deal with primal aspects of the human experience His early writing Poems 1956 and Another September 1958 established him as a new voice in Irish poetry The peak of Kinsella's success came with the founding of the Peppercanister Press and the publication of Butcher's Dozen in 1972 Despite such early successes however Kinsella seems to have faded into the background of the Irish poetic stage In The Sea of Disappointment Andrew Fitzsimons offers us a chronological journey through the structural and thematic development of Kinsella's poetic writing Fitzsimons demonstrates that Kinsella has had a career that has risen to a high public profile where he followed conventional stanzaic forms to a position where he began to reject inherited forms and thus began a gradual critical disengagement from his work We see in the early chapters that isolation quintessentially part of the modern condition is a theme that is regularly touched upon by the poet and further developed in relation to the Irish condition Disappointment also pervades Kinsella's poetry Although Fitzsimons emphasises the importance of the context of Kinsella's dismal upbringing in 1940s-50s Ireland he avoids reducing his poetry down to a mere response to the poet's social and historical background and thus he manages to maintain a sense of the irreducible integrity of his poetry This well researched and comprehensive book draws on illuminating manuscript sources and previously unpublished material as well as on Kinsella's own assistance Considering Kinsella's work from its beginnings until his most recent publications Fitzsimons shows that his poetry is driven despite the apparent rift between its early and late styles by a consistent impulse and deliberate aesthetic of growth The Sea of Disappointment will offer a fresh insight into the poetic work of one of the most innovative poets of contemporary Ireland

"The Given Note" Seán Crosson, 2021-02-03 The oldest records indicate that the performance of poetry in Gaelic Ireland was normally accompanied by music providing a point of continuity with past tradition while bolstering a sense of community in the present Music would also offer particularly for poets writing in English from the eighteenth century onwards a perceived authenticity a connection with an older tradition perceived as being untarnished by linguistic and cultural division While providing an innovative analysis of theoretical work in music and literary studies this book examines how traditional Irish music including the related song tradition primarily in Irish has influenced and is apparent in the work of Irish poets While looking generally at where this influence is evident historically and in contemporary Irish poetry this work focuses primarily on the work of six poets three who write in English and three who write primarily in the Irish language Thomas Kinsella Seamus Heaney Ciaran Carson Gearóid Mac Lochlainn Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill and Cathal Searcaigh

The Cambridge Companion to Irish Poets Gerald Dawe, 2018 A fresh accessible and authoritative study that conveys the richness and diversity of Irish poets their lives and times meditations about fragility and impermanence to complex assessments of individual isolation and helplessness in the modern world His work which has been knitted to Dublin city expresses his engagement with Irish life and culture in Nightwalker Poems from Centre City Personal Places and The Pen Shop His involvement with Irish history evident in his absorption with the past and his creative interpretation of the arrival and settling in of prehistoric people is demonstrated in his extensive translations from Irish literature He is also a universal poet who has explored Jungian archetypes in New Poems psychological stress in the Wormwood sequence and the notion of meaninglessness in Her Vertical Smile and of living on the edge in Marginal Economy In his persistent search for understanding he has examined the effects of evil whether expressed in man's proclivity for destruction the direct concern of Man of War or the reality of death in the elegies for Seán Riada John F Kennedy and his own father Deprived of a community of shared values and the reassurances of philosophy or religion he has conducted a systematic investigation of the question of causality and responsibility in the human and divine spheres whether articulated by artists like Gustav Mahler or Seán Riada or thinkers like St Augustine Eriugena or Aurelius and has verified the role of the artist as measured and exact recorder His poems dramatise issues through narrative elegy allegory and myth and commemorate love ceremony natural beauty and creativity itself The Irish Book in the Twentieth Century Clare Hutton, 2004 The Irish Book in the Twentieth Century examines Ireland's publishing history in the last century This is a work of book history a new and important interdisciplinary approach which aims to reorient literary and historical interpretations by looking at the diverse and often surprising roles which publishers printers readers governments and censors can play in the creation of textual culture A collection of twelve essays by scholars in Irish studies The Irish Book in the Twentieth Century covers a range of topics including the Irish Arts and Crafts book in the 1900s Nicola Gordon Bowe Innovation and Reception in Irish Language Publishing in the 1900s Niall Cios in Revising Irish Censorship W J McCormack Beckett's Early Career John Pilling Derek Mahon's Literary Archive Steve Ennis and Seamus Heaney's Sweeney's Flight Colleen McKenna The first book to examine Ireland's bibliographical heritage in the twentieth century The Irish Book in the Twentieth Century will appeal to any reader with general or specific interests in Ireland's cultural and literary history through a century which has seen two literary revivals the Literary Revival of the 1900s and the Northern Revival of more recent decades Imagining Ageing Carmen Concilio, 2018-10-04 What do literary texts tell us about growing old The essays in this volume introduce and explore representations of ageing and old age in canonical works of English and postcolonial literature The contributors examine texts by William Shakespeare Daniel Defoe Julian Barnes Thomas Kinsella Seamus Heaney J M Coetzee Alice Munro Witi Ihimaera and Patricia Grace and together with a medical study they suggest solutions to the challenges arising from the current demographic change brought about by ageing Western populations Thomas Kinsella Derval Tubridy, 2001 Traces the history of the Peppercanister Press and illuminates the evolving development of Kinsella's ambitious poetic project The poems are discussed chronologically and the clear interpretations are
