Communist China Digest ,1967 A Protestant Church in Communist China John Craig William Keating,2012-02-16

Freedom of religious belief is guaranteed under the constitution of the People's Republic of China but the degree to which this freedom is able to be exercised remains a highly controversial issue Much scholarly attention has been given to persecuted underground groups such as Falun but one area that remains largely unexplored is the relationship between officially registered churches and the communist government This study investigates the history of one such official church Moore Memorial Church in Shanghai This church was founded by American Methodist missionaries By the time of the 1949 revolution it was the largest Protestant church in East Asia running seven day a week programs As a case study of one individual church operating from an historical rather than theological perspective this study examines the experience of people at this church against the backdrop of the turbulent politics of the Mao and Deng eras It asks and seeks to answer questions such as were the people at the church pleased to see the foreign missionaries leave Were people forced to sign the so called Christian manifesto Once the church doors were closed in 1966 did worshipers go underground Why was this particular church especially chosen to be the first re opened in Shanghai in 1979 What explanations are there for its phenomenal growth since then A considerable proportion of the data for this study is drawn from Chinese language sources including interviews personal correspondence statistics internal church documents and archives many of which have never previously been published or accessed by foreign researchers The main focus of this study is on the period from 1949 to 1989 a period in which the church experienced many ups and downs restrictions and limitations The Mao era in particular remains one of the least understood and seldom written about periods in the history of Christianity in China This study therefore makes a significant contribution to our evolving understanding of the delicate balancing act between compromise co operation and compliance that categorizes church state relations in modern China Translations on Communist China ,1970-04 Translations on Communist China's Industry and Materials United States. Joint Publications Research Service,1965 On China's History of Modernization Jie Li,2025-01-03 This book offers a comprehensive understanding of the developments in the modern Chinese history since the Opium War in 1840 by reflecting on the history of the Communist Party of China the history of China since 1949 the history of the economic reform and opening up and the history of China's socialist institutional construction respectively Taking time as the warp and events as the weft it tries to summarize the fundamental changes across the past 200 years in China which the author believes have been a glorious journey from poverty and weakness to rejuvenation In context this book tries to rationalize the formation of the governing laws of the Communist Party of China the laws of socialist construction and the laws of human historical development It aims to provide a perspective for the international community to understand China's fundamental ideal of peaceful development Urban Villages in the New China Da Wei David Wang, 2016-10-27 Focusing on Shenzhen as a representation of the general urban village phenomenon in China this book considers the impact of China's economic reform on urbanization and urban villages over the past three decades Shenzhen's urban villages are some of the first of their kind in China unique in their diversity and organizational capacity but most notably in their ability to protect village culture whilst coexisting with Shenzhen one of the fastest urbanizing cities on earth Providing a study of regional contrast of urban villages in China with newly collected fieldwork materials from Guangzhou Beijing and Xi'an this book also considers recent developments within urban villages including attempts at marketization of the so called xiao chuanfang the quintessential urban village apartment units It also addresses the corruption scandals that engulfed some urban villages in late 2013 Through cutting edge fieldwork the author offers a cross disciplinary study of the history culture socio economic changes and migration of the villages which arguably embody Chinese social mobility in an urban form China, the European Union, and the International Politics of Global Governance Jianwei Wang, Weiqing Song, 2016-04-29 Two major themes in contemporary international relations Sino European relations and global governance are both addressed in this volume In its focused analysis of Sino European relations global governance serves as both a topic for analysis and a conceptual framework to join together individual chapters Featuring perspectives from a diverse group of established and promising young scholars from China Europe and elsewhere this book has important implications for Chinese foreign policy the European Union the future of global governance and international relations at large Translations of Political and Sociological Information on Communist China United States.
