civilizations on earth and Confucius has been influential there from almost the beginning the first Chinese dynasty was founded around 1600 BCE and Confucius lived from 551 479 BCE Although he is still one of history's most famous philosophers Confucius was in many respects an unremarkable man and even his physical features were said to be unattractive There is little evidence that he thought of himself as a harbinger of any kind but shortly after his death writings sayings and theories based on his life and ideas spread throughout China and even took hold of the imperial court of one of the most powerful and important dynasties the Han 206 BCE 220 CE It was during the Han Dynasty that Confucianism became closely tied to state affairs and it would remain so until the fall of the last dynasty in 1912 Confucianism was closely tied to state religious and ritual practice and naturally it benefited greatly from this relationship and was able to subsequently exert influence on all aspects of society 1 As a state religion it provided religious sanction for policy making official sacrifices court ceremonies royal marriage funeral and mourning rights as well as several major sacrifices to gods and ancestors 2 Confucianism continues to reverberate to the present day the Chinese Communist Party still discusses Confucius in their official newspapers and references his thought when they think it will help promote a political or social stance In 427 B C the Ancient Greek city state of Athens was flourishing Approximately 80 years earlier the Athenians had formed the first self representative democracy in history the Peloponnesian War against Sparta had only just started and Socrates was only beginning to lay the foundation of what would become Western philosophy None of Socrates works survived antiquity so most of what is known about him came from the writings of his followers most notably Plato What is known about Socrates is that he seemed to make a career out of philosophy and Plato was intent on following in his footsteps Yet for all of the influence of Socrates life on his followers it was Socrates death around 399 B C that truly shaped them Plato was so embittered by Socrates trial in Athens that he completely soured on Athenian democracy and Aristotle would later criticize politicians who relied on rhetoric when Aristotle's own life was threatened he fled Greece and allegedly remarked I will not allow the Athenians to sin twice against philosophy Since Socrates wrote nothing down or at least nothing that survived antiquity there has been a wealth of scholarship ever since attempting to determine the person to whom the philosophical positions of the various and genuine Socratic dialogues of Plato's should be attributed Even though Aristotle insisted that Socrates only cared about ethics and held no metaphysical theory of the kind that Plato propounded the attempt to read the ugly but wise Socrates via the Platonic dialogues continued up to the 20th century The change of tone style and philosophical topics seemed to be a big argument that Socratic views are to be found in the early Platonic works whereas later works bear the stamp of Plato's personal views The Platonic scholar Gregory Vlastos introduced a developmentalist position which has almost become an orthodoxy in Platonic studies by moving the discussion from the historical Socrates to Plato as a philosopher According to developmentalism if the views in the dialogue are not spelled out only to be refuted afterward then the person they should be attributed to is Plato and not Socrates These philosophical views developed over

Confucius Charles River Editors, 2025-05-02 At fifteen my heart was set on learning at thirty I stood firm at forty I had no more doubts at fifty I knew the will of heaven at sixty my ear was obedient at seventy I could follow my heart's desire without overstepping the boundaries of what was right Confucius Confucius has no interest in falsehood he did not pretend to be prophet he claimed no inspiration he taught no new religion he used no delusions flattered not the emperor under whom he lived Voltaire Many people argue that Confucius is the most influential person of all time and if having a significant effect on the greatest number of people is the criterion he may very well be China is one of the largest and oldest civilizations on earth and Confucius has been influential there from almost the beginning the first Chinese dynasty was founded around 1600 BCE and Confucius lived from 551 479 BCE Although he is still one of history's most famous philosophers Confucius was in many respects an unremarkable man and even his physical features were said to be unattractive There is little evidence that he thought of himself as a harbinger of any kind but shortly after his death writings sayings and theories based on his life and ideas spread throughout China and even took hold of the imperial court of one of the most powerful and important dynasties the Han 206 BCE 220 CE It was during the Han Dynasty that Confucianism became closely tied to state affairs and it would remain so until the fall of the last dynasty in 1912 Confucianism was closely tied to state religious and ritual practice and naturally it benefited greatly from this relationship and was able to subsequently exert influence on all aspects of society 1 As a state religion it provided religious sanction for policy making official sacrifices court ceremonies royal marriage funeral and mourning rights as well as several major sacrifices to gods and ancestors 2 Confucianism continues to reverberate to the present day the Chinese Communist Party still discusses Confucius in their official newspapers and references his thought when they think it will help promote a political or social stance Eventually Confucius himself was worshiped as a sage though accounts of his own opinions of himself are nothing but humble As his great successor Mencius 372 289 BCE put it Since humanity came into this world there has never been one greater than Confucius 3 The description of the capture of a unicorn in the important Confucian classic the Spring and Autumn Annals was taken as a sign that Confucius was chosen by heaven to found a new moral dynasty 4 The state ritual sacrifice to Confucius grew rapidly in importance during the Han dynasty and continued to grow in later dynasties In 630 for example the Tang dynasty 618 907 founder ordered that every district and country establish a Confucius temple 5 Confucius The Life and Legacy of China's Greatest Philosopher examines the life and teachings of the ancient philosopher Along with pictures footnotes and a bibliography you will learn about Confucius like never before in no time at all
