Crisis and Class War in Egypt Sean F. McMahon, 2016-10-15 In 2011 capital s crisis erupted in Egyptian society This eruption and subsequent politics have been misrepresented as revolutionary as the working class was and is increasingly so devalued and disempowered In Crisis and Class War in Egypt Sean F McMahon critically analyses Egypt s recent political history He argues that the so called revolution was the appearance of capital s destruction of the value of the Egyptian working class and an existential crisis for capital In response productive capital in the form of the military used disposed of and replaced its junior partners in governing first the predatory capital of the Mubarak state with the commodity capital of the Muslim Brotherhood and then commodity capital with the finance capital of the Gulf Cooperation Council These reconfigurations have been expressed in all manner of reactionary governmental arrangements including constitutions legislation and currency reform Extending today's analysis into the near future McMahon sees the war of Egyptian society intensifying and increasingly violent lives for Egyptian workers

The Patriot Dewey Goldsmith, 2005-07-14 In this provocative book author Dewey Goldsmith explores the probability that decades of failed national policies have changed the character of our country and will lead to a second war of independence He identifies the social economic and political changes that deliver free people into common servitude We see the plight of a free people betrayed by their leaders then he brings to life the flame of liberty in the betrayed In these pages Goldsmith offers an illuminating analysis of the concentration of power in a corrupt central government We see how apathy fuels the erosion of civil liberties that lead to autocracy and persecution He makes us ask ourselves could the specter of such a tragedy someday haunt America

Keeping Faith Brian Harding, 1990-12-31 For the millions who had fought in the Great War and for their families the land fit for heroes turned out to be an illusion instead there was suffering and deprivation Out of this on 1 July 1921 was born the British Legion In the years that followed the Legion fought for justice for the ex service community meanwhile seeking to protect them It introduced the Poppy Appeal and insisted on an annual act of national Remembrance for the fallen It went to extraordinary lengths to try to prevent another war ultimately finding itself in controversial discussions with Hitler Even after the Second World War the Legion's work was far from over the war disabled and the war widows seemed to have been forgotten in the new welfare state Remembrance itself appeared to be under threat as the memory of war receded There were more battles to be fought while conflicts such as the Gulf War brought fresh problems Perhaps most inspiring is the human aspect Those who have done the Legion's work represent every class of society from admirals and former private soldiers to poppy collectors But they have one thing in common compassion for all who have suffered in the service of the country This is their story too
