Ellsworth,2015-03-10 Winner of the 2016 PEN ESPN Award for Literary Sports Writing The true story of the game that never should have happened and of a nation on the brink of monumental change In the fall of 1943 at the little known North Carolina College for Negroes Coach John McLendon was on the verge of changing basketball forever A protégé of James Naismith the game's inventor McLendon taught his team to play the full court press and run a fast break that no one could catch His Eagles would become the highest scoring college team in America a basketball juggernaut that shattered its opponents by as many as sixty points per game Yet his players faced danger whenever they traveled backcountry roads Across town at Duke University the best basketball squad on campus wasn't the Blue Devils but an all white military team from the Duke medical school Composed of former college stars from across the country the team dismantled everyone they
