Stoic Comedians Flaubert Joyce And Beckett:

Flaubert, Joyce and Beckett Hugh Kenner, 2005 An enlightening study of three writers Flaubert Joyce and Beckett The Stoic Comedians begins with an explanation of the effect of the printing press on books The book as book has been removed from the oral tradition by such features as prefaces footnotes and indexes Books have become voiceless in some sense they are to be read silently not recited aloud How this mechanical change affected the possibilities of fiction is Kenner's subject Each of the three featured authors approached this situation in a unique yet connected way Flaubert as the Comedian of the Enlightenment categorizing man's intellectual follies Joyce as the Comedian of the Inventory with his meticulously constructed lists and Beckett as the Comedian of the Impasse eliminating facts and writing novels about a man alone writing

Beckett's Dedalus Peter John Murphy, 2009-01-01 Paying close attention to the extensive network of allusions Beckett derived from Joyce's writing P J Murphy reveals how Beckett consistently echoed and engaged in dialogue with Joyce's works

The Stoic Comedians : Flaubert, Joyce and Beckett H. Kenner, 1974 James Joyce and the Nineteenth-Century French Novel Finn Fordham, Rita Sakr Rita Sakr, 2011-03 The essays of this volume show how Joyce's work engaged with the many upheavals and revolutions within the French nineteenth century novel and its contexts They delve into the complexities of this engagement tracing its twists and turns and reemerge with fascinating and rich discoveries The contributors explore Joyce's explicit and implicit responses to Alexandre Dumas Honoré de Balzac Victor Hugo and Émile Zola and of course Flaubert Drawing from the wide range of Joyce's writings Dubliners A Portrait Ulysses Finnegans Wake and his life letters and essays they resituate Joyce's relation to France the novel and the nineteenth century The Values of Literary Studies Rónán McDonald, 2015-11-24 In The Values of Literary Studies Critical Institutions Scholarly Agendas leading scholars illuminate the purpose and priorities of literary criticism The French Comic Imagination Stephen Werner, 2006 In this study of seven exemplary comic writers from the Renaissance to the modern period Professor Werner undertakes close readings of texts from each author while analyzing the larger vision of comedy that defines any one narrative oeuvre From les Caractères to A la recherche du temps perdu from L'Éducation sentimentale to Mort à Crédit Stephen Werner argues for a revised view of comic fiction Often underestimated by critics this mode lies at the very heart of l'imaginaire français by virtue of its creative force and its openness to modernity Doing Things Differently Margaret Cohen, Maggie Cohen, Alberto Hahn, 2018-04-24 Doing Things Differently celebrates the work of Donald Meltzer who was such a lively force in the training of child psychotherapists at the Tavistock Clinic for many years The book represents the harvest of Meltzer's thinking and teaching and covers such topics as dimensionality in primitive states of mind dreaming supervision and the claustrophobia Modernism, Satire and the Novel Jonathan Greenberg, 2011-09-15 In this groundbreaking study Jonathan Greenberg locates a satiric sensibility at the heart of the modern By promoting an antisentimental education modernism denied the authority of emotion to guarantee moral and literary value Instead it fostered sophisticated detached and apparently cruel attitudes toward pain and suffering This sensibility challenged the novel's humanistic tradition set ethics and aesthetics into conflict and fundamentally altered the ways that we know and feel Through lively and original readings of works by Evelyn Waugh Stella Gibbons Nathanael West Djuna Barnes Samuel Beckett and others this book analyzes a body of literature late modernist satire that can appear by turns aloof sadistic hilarious ironic and poignant but which continually questions inherited modes of feeling By recognizing the centrality of satire to modernist aesthetics Greenberg offers not only a new chapter in the history of satire but a persuasive new idea of what made modernism modern The Reflexive Novel Michael Boyd, 1983 Interrogating the basic assumptions of realism this study examines the postmodern phenomenon of fiction as the presentation of theories of fiction The writers critically examined include Nabokov Woolf Conrad Faulkner Joyce and Beckett Readings in the Theory of Religion Scott S. Elliott, Matthew Waggoner, 2016-06-16 Readings in the Theory of Religion brings together classic and contemporary texts to promote new ways of thinking about religion The texts reflect the diverse methods used in the study of religion text and textuality ritual the body gender and sexuality religion and race religion and colonialism and methodological and theoretical issues in the study of religion Readings in the Theory of Religion is an indispensable introduction to theoretical and interdisciplinary approaches in religious studies and provides the student with all the tools needed to understand this fascinating and wide ranging field Imagining Religion Jonathan Z. Smith, 2024-07-31 With this influential book of essays Jonathan Z. Smith has pointed the academic study of religion in a new theoretical direction one neither theological nor willfully ideological Making use of examples as apparently diverse and exotic as the Maori cults in nineteenth century New Zealand and the events of Jonestown Smith shows that religion must be construed as conventional anthropological historical and as an exercise of imagination In his analyses religion emerges as the product of historically and geographically situated human ingenuity cognition and curiosity simply put as the result of human labor one of the decisive but wholly ordinary ways human beings create the worlds in which they live and make sense of them These seven essays display the critical intelligence creativity and sheer common sense that make Smith one of the most methodologically sophisticated and suggestive historians of religion writing today Smith scrutinizes the fundamental problems of taxonomy and comparison in religious studies suggestively redescribes such basic categories as canon and ritual and shows how frequently studied myths may more likely reflect situational incongruities than vaunted mimetic congruities His final essay on Jonestown demonstrates the interpretive power of the historian of religion to render intelligible that in our own day which seems most bizarre Richard S. Sarason Religious Studies Review Machine-age Comedy Michael North, 2009 In this latest addition to Oxford's Modernist

Literature Culture series renowned modernist scholar Michael North poses fundamental questions about the relationship between modernity and comic form in film animation the visual arts and literature Machine Age Comedy vividly constructs a cultural history that spans the entire twentieth century showing how changes wrought by industrialization have forever altered the comic mode With keen analyses North examines the work of a wide range of artists including Charlie Chaplin Walt Disney Marcel Duchamp Samuel Beckett and David Foster Wallace to show the creative and unconventional ways the routinization of industrial society has been explored in a broad array of cultural forms Throughout North argues that modern writers and artists found something inherently comic in new experiences of repetition associated with enforced by and made inevitable by the machine age Ultimately this rich tightly focused study offers a new lens for understanding the development of comedic structures during periods of massive social political and cultural change to reveal how the original promise of modern life can be extracted from its practical disappointment

Irish Classics Declan Kiberd, 2001 A celebration of the tenacious life of the enduring Irish classics this book by one of Irish writing's most eloquent readers offers a brilliant and accessible survey of the greatest works since 1600 in Gaelic and English which together have shaped one of the world's most original literary cultures In the course of his discussion of the great seventeenth and eighteenth century Gaelic poems of dispossession and of later work in that language that refuses to die Declan Kiberd provides vivid and idiomatic translations that bring the Irish texts alive for the English speaking reader Extending from the Irish poets who confronted modernity as a cataclysm and who responded by using traditional forms in novel and radical ways to the great modern practitioners of such paradoxically conservative and revolutionary writing Kiberd's work embraces three sorts of Irish classics those of awesome beauty and internal rigor such as works by the Gaelic bards Yeats Synge Beckett and Joyce those that generate a myth so powerful as to obscure the individual writer and unleash an almost superhuman force such as the Cuchulain story the lament for Art O Laoghaire and even Dracula and those whose power exerts a palpable influence on the course of human action such as Swift's Drapier's Letters the speeches of Edmund Burke or the autobiography of Wolfe Tone The book closes with a moving and daring coda on the Anglo Irish agreement claiming that the seeds of such a settlement were sown in the works of Irish literature A delight to read throughout Irish Classics is a fitting tribute to the works it reads so well and inspires us to read and read again
