Congress. Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs. Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, 1980 Wordsworth and Feeling Kim G. Blank, 1995-10 Wordsworth and Feeling returns to Wordsworth's personal history in order to locate and contextualize some of the most remarkable poetry in the English language In this study G Kim Blank details how this poetry evolves out of Wordsworth's radical subjectivity but the most pressing feature of that subjectivity is the cluster of subjects loss guilt suffering endurance death which appears throughout much of his poetry up until 1802 4 Little Girl Lost Lovisa Pahlson-Moller, 2011-06-01 Description Little Girl Lost is the wonderful and moving account of a young woman's successful battle with self harm and borderline personality disorder Lovisa first self harmed at the age of six and survived boot camp before becoming part of the psychiatric system Little Girl Lost combines an intelligent creative mix of diary writing with powerful poems taking the reader through a roller coaster of emotions It is an honest interesting and touching book Lovisa gives us some insight into her desire for acceptance for being herself Anybody who has ever suffered from mental illness will be able to relate to this book About the Author The author spent a period of time in hospital She used to harm herself and hear voices Her aim is to reach out to others and be accepted      Perlmann's Silence Pascal Mercier,2012-01-03 An academic finds himself contemplating the unthinkable in a tour de force psychological thriller by the philosopher and author of Night Train to Lisbon De Volkskrant Netherlands Pascal Mercier's critically acclaimed debut novel Night Train to Lisbon became an international bestseller and the basis for a film starring Jeremy Irons Now in Perlmann's Silence Mercier delivers a deft psychological portrait of a man striving to get his life back on track in the wake of his beloved wife's death Philipp Perlmann prominent linguist and speaker at a gathering of international academics in a seaside town near Genoa is struggling to maintain his grip on reality Derailed by grief and no longer confident of his professional standing writing his keynote address seems like an insurmountable task Terrified of failure he decides to plagiarize the work of Leskov a Russian colleague and breathes a sigh of relief once the text has been submitted But when Leskov's imminent arrival is announced Perlmann's mounting desperation leads him to contemplate drastic measures A captivating portrait of a slowly unraveling mind Perlmann's Silence is a brilliant meditation on the complex interplay between language memory and the depths of the human psyche      The Books of Angelhaunt Jason Stuart Ratcliff,2002-11 These final four Angelhaunt books are at once philosophy and works of art Ratcliff has created in these four books both poetry and religion both blasphemy and a completely original cosmology Ratcliff has looked into himself found both treasures and terrors and made works only a madman could create      The Christian Advocate ,1920      Wizard's Hall Jane Yolen,2015-10-27 An inept wizard in training is the only one who can save his classmates from the terrible sorcery that threatens to devour their magical school Acclaimed master fantasist Jane Yolen imagines an academic world of wonders where paintings speak walls move monsters are made real and absolutely anything can happen as she introduces readers to a hero as hapless as the legendary Merlin is powerful It was Henry's dear ma who decided to send him off to Wizard's Hall to study sorcery despite the boy's apparent lack of magical talent He has barely stepped through the gates of the magnificent school when he is dubbed Thornmallow prickly on the outside squishy within Still regardless of his penchant for turning even the simplest spell into a disaster Thornmallow's teachers remain kind and patient and he soon has a cadre of loyal loving friends But there is something that no one is telling the boy As the 113th student to enroll in the wondrous academy Thornmallow has an awesome and frightening duty to fulfill and failure will mean the destruction of Wizard's Hall and everyone within its walls      Beyond NGO-ization Kerstin Jacobsson,Steven Saxonberg,2016-04-15 The celebrations marking the 20th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall provoked a debate on the outcomes of the transition process in the post communist countries including a debate on the functioning of civil society This provided a good opportunity for researchers to collect new data and revise the discourse on collective action and the dynamics of civil society in these countries Jacobsson and Saxonberg's collection of essays looks at social movements and their forms of mobilization and organization as well as action repertoires in relation to the social context and their success or failure The book meets an important need in the discourse on post communist social movements by going beyond the usual discourse about the weak and non participatory civil society in the post communist context This book gives a nuanced and updated view of social movements in post communist Europe by looking at the cases of relatively successful mobilization by examining groups that have often been neglected in the discourse on social movements and civil society including animal rights groups racist movements and non feminist family organizations and by giving a deeper analysis of the different strategies that civil society organizations and groups can use Rather than expecting social movements in post communist Europe to follow the same patterns and operate in the same fashion as in Western Europe this volume shows that a wider view of contentious action is needed in order to understand the variety of strategies employed by collective actors operating in this context Functional Grammatics Mary Macken-Horarik, Kristina
