

Stone Soup

A kind stranger was walking through the village. When he came upon the main street, the townspeople looked out their windows. "Do not be afraid," said a kind traveler, looking for a way to help.

"We have no food for you," they told him. But the man said he would make stone soup for everyone.

The man said he would make stone soup for everyone.

They enjoyed some delicious soup.

Everyone brought their vegetables and put them in the soup.
