Stone Work Reflections On Serious Play And Other Aspects Of Country Life:

Stone Work John Jerome,1996 From John Jerome the critically acclaimed author of Staying With It comes this story of a year he spent building a stone wall on his property in the Massachusetts Berkshires A vision of extraordinary grace and beauty that will challenge readers to examine the possibilities inherent in stillness A Study Guide for Robert Frost's "Mending Wall" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016 A Study Guide for Robert Frost's Mending Wall excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs Reading Rural Landscapes: A Field Guide to New England's Past Robert Stanford,2015-07-30 William Faulkner once said The past is never dead It's not even past Nowhere can you see the truth behind his comment more plainly than in rural New England especially Maine New Hampshire Vermont and western Massachusetts Everywhere we go in rural New England the past surrounds us In the woods and fields and along country roads the traces are everywhere if we know what to look for and how to interpret what we see A patch of neglected daylilies marks a long abandoned homestead A grown over cellar hole with nearby stumps and remnants of stone wall and orchard shows us where a farm has been reclaimed by forest And a piece of a stone dam and wooden sluice mark the site of a long gone mill Although slumping back into the landscape these features speak to us if we can hear them and they can guide us to ancestral homesteads and famous sites Lavishly illustrated with drawings and color photos Provides the keys to interpret human artifacts in fields woods and roadsides and to reconstruct the past from surviving clues Perfect to carry in a backpack or glove box A unique and valuable resource for road trips genealogical research naturalists and historians Creative Mathematics William Higginson,Eileen Phillips,Rena Uptis,2002-03-11 Exploring the ways in which maths skills can be learned through cross curricular projects on arts and music this book presents maths as a meaningful and exciting subject which holds no fear for children Country Life Diary Josh Pons,1992 Book Review Digest ,1913 At Home on the Earth David Landis Barnhill,1999-08-05 The physical earth is clearly under unprecedented siege heated toxified scraped But almost as if they were antibodies the finest nature writers of any era have come forward to help in the fight This anthology collects many of the most important at their most eloquent May it ring and echo and do some good Bill McKibben author of The End of Nature This is a stunning collection of vivid writing about landscapes and the people who inhabit them The diverse narratives gathered here do more than describe hawks diving and twigs snapping although the book has its share of moving accounts of the natural world A concern to live responsibly in nature runs through this evocative anthology like a subterranean stream and that moral impulse together with the lively prose makes this the best collection of nature writing I've seen Thomas A Tweed editor of Retelling U S Religious History Stone In The Garden Gordon Hayward,2001-06-05 A guide to using stones in the garden walls walkways and terraces features more than one hundred drawings and photographs that give instructions on how to complete a wide range of projects Appalachian Autumn Marcia Bonta,2011-12-01 Like her popular Appalachian Spring Marcia Bonta's new book offers a day by day account of the changing world of nature in the mountains of central Pennsylvania This time she chronicles the beauties of the autumn months as she walks the familiar roads and trails of her 500 acre mountain top farm noting the minute transformations of the season as well as the more dramatic ones But her quiet sojourn in the natural world is shattered by the intrusion of a lumberman who insists upon clear cutting a neighboring property The massive bulldozers and skidders crush every tree and shrub weed and wildflower leaving only rubble in their wake The Bontas become involved in a lawsuit challenging this violation of the land they love and seeking to protect their own property from the effects of the logging Autumn is a bittersweet time Bonta writes a season of good byes when after the flaming leaves fall and start the inevitable process of decay we are left with only the bare bones of nature Fleeing from the whine of chain saws and the crash of falling trees she roams the mountain top watching wild turkeys forage in the field flocks of migrating birds feast on wild grapes does and bucks eye each other in their mating ritual But she can never completely evade the insistent question What is the relationship between humans and nature Does ownership give one the right to do as one pleases with the land and all the flora and fauna living on it Does the natural world exist solely to satisfy mankind's desire for profit The answer is not simple it cannot be drawn in winter's black and white But the issues must be of concern to every thoughtful person Marcia Bonta's Appalachian Autumn offers a new voice in the ongoing debate

Call Up the Waters Amber Caron,2023-07-11 A magnetic debut collection of stories about the daily lives and labors of girls and women in rural America In Call Up the Waters the natural world is an escape hatch a refuge a site of work and an occasional antagonist In the title story a devastating drought leads a mother of two deep into the Colorado Rockies in search of water In The Handler a woman leaves her boyfriend for the New Hampshire woods and fifty seven sled dogs A distress call from a boat in Massachusetts Bay compels a mother in Sea Women to plumb her daughter's secrets A girl torn between truth and expectation shows her courage in a funereal performance in Barn Burning And in Bending the Map a woman turns the tables on her obsessive would be lover after a powerful storm ravages her canyon home The characters in these ten stories search and rescue workers dog trainers naturalists archaeologists and dowsers are each fundamentally shaped by the environment in which they live and work They seek meaning through labor connection through jobs But in that searching they often find themselves far from their destination Familiar landscapes suddenly feel strange Unfamiliar spaces offer something like hope Off the map and off the grid these characters and their regrets and devotions are nevertheless immediately intimately recognizable Sharply observant but steadily elegant textured with empathy and grit Call Up the Waters marks the arrival of a remarkable new talent How You Can Have a Good Day Everyday W.
