Infancy and Earliest Childhood in the Roman World Maureen Carroll,2018-03-01 Despite the developing emphasis in current scholarship on children in Roman culture there has been relatively little research to date on the role and significance of the youngest children within the family and in society This volume singles out this youngest age group the under one year olds in the first comprehensive study of infancy and earliest childhood to encompass the Roman Empire as a whole integrating social and cultural history with archaeological evidence funerary remains material culture and the iconography of infancy it explores how the very particular historical circumstances into which Roman children were born affected their lives as well as prevailing attitudes towards them Examination of these varied strands of evidence drawn from throughout the Roman world from the fourth century BC to the third century AD allows the rhetoric about earliest childhood in Roman texts to be more broadly contextualized and reveals the socio cultural developments that took place in parent child relationships over this period Presenting a fresh perspective on archaeological and historical debates the volume refutes the notion that high infant mortality conditioned Roman parents not to engage in the early life of their children or to view them or their deaths with indifference and concludes that even within the first weeks and months of life Roman children were invested with social and gendered identities and were perceived as having both personhood and value within society

Shakespeare, Tragedy and Menopause Victoria L. McMahon,2023-09-25 Shakespeare was not only aware of the socio cultural fears and anxieties generated by the older woman s body but with the characterization of his tragic ageing females Shakespeare becomes the first literary giant to explore the physiological and psychosocial condition that we have come to know as menopause Although menopause was not defined as a medical physiological or sociocultural event for the early moderns this book argues that such a medical and cultural transition can in fact be identified by sub textual clues distinguished by various embodied anxieties It explores several ageing women of the Shakespearean tragedies as they transition through this liminal menopausal period Theoretically underscored by humoral theory the analysis is metonymically centered upon the womb as the seat of menopausal anxiety These menopausal undercurrents not only permeate the dramatic action of each play but also emanate outward to reflect the medical physiological cultural social and religious concerns generated by the ageing woman of the early modern period at large

Michel de Montaigne 1533 92 But save for the recent notable best seller How to Live A Life of Montaigne by Sarah Bakewell Montaigne is largely ignored After Montaigne a collection of twenty four new personal essays intended as tribute aims to correct this collective lapse of memory and introduce modern readers and writers to their stylistic forebear Though it s been over four hundred years since he began writing his essays Montaigne s writing is still fresh and his use of the form as a means of self exploration in the world around him reads as innovative even by modern standards He is simply put the writer to whom all essayists are indebted Each contributor has chosen one of Montaigne s 107 essays and has written his her own essay of the same title and on the same theme using a quote from Montaigne s essay as an epigraph The overall effect is akin to a covers album with each writer offering his or her own interpretation and stylistic verve to Montaigne s themes in ways that both reinforce and challenge the French writer s prose ideas and forms Featuring a who s who of contemporary essayists After Montaigne offers a startling engagement with Montaigne and the essay form while also pointing the way to the genre s potential new directions Contributors Marcia Aldrich Chris Arthur Robert Atwan Barrie Jean Borich Mary Cappello Steven Church Judith Ortiz Cofer Danielle Cadena Deulen Brian Doyle Lina M Ferreira C V Vivian Gornick Robin Hemley Wayne Koestenbaum Shannon Lakanen David Lazar E J Levy Phillip Lopate Bret Lott Patrick Madden Desirae Matherly Maggie Nelson Jos Ordu a Elena Passarello Lia Purpura Kristen Radtke Amy Lee Scott Jerald Walker Nicole Walker
