Stonehenge Bernard Cornwell, 1999 Bestselling author Bernard Cornwell takes us back four thousand years to a vibrant world of ritual and sacrifice that is at once timeless and wholly original This historical novel unlocks the mystery of Britain's most haunting and puzzling structure and tells a tale of three brothers fierce rivals who are uneasily united in their quest to create a temple to their gods Lengar the eldest brother kills his own father to become chief of his tribe Camaban the illegitimate middle brother is determined to have a massive temple built in his own honor And Saban the youngest who actually builds Stonehenge must act as mediator between the other two

Stonehenge is the enthrallingly dramatic story of patricide betrayal and murder of bloody brotherly rivalry and of the never ending quest for power wealth and spiritual fulfillment

Without the Novel Scott Black, 2019-08-23 No genre manifests the pleasure of reading and its power to consume and enchant more than romance In suspending the category of the novel to rethink the way prose fiction works Without the Novel demonstrates what literary history looks like from the perspective of such readerly excesses and adventures Rejecting the assumption that novelistic realism is the most significant tendency in the history of prose fiction Black asks three intertwined questions What is fiction without the novel What is literary history without the novel What is reading without the novel In answer this study draws on the neglected genre of romance to reintegrate eighteenth century British fiction with its classical and Continental counterparts Black addresses works of prose fiction that self consciously experiment with the formal structures and readerly affordances of romance Heliodorus s Ethiopian Story Cervantes s Don Quixote Fielding s Tom Jones Sterne s Tristram Shandy and Burney s The Wanderer Each text presents itself as a secondary satiric adaptation of anachronistic and alien narratives but in revising foreign stories each text also relays them The recursive reading that these works portray and demand makes each a self reflexive parable of romance itself Ultimately Without the Novel writes a wider weirder history of fiction organized by the recurrences of romance and informed by the pleasures of reading that define the genre

American Stonehenge Mike Goldstein,2019-12-15 Stonehenge Bernard Cornwell,2001 Where Is Stonehenge? True Kelley,Who HQ,2016-09-06 Unravel some of the riddles of Stonehenge one of the most famous and mysterious monuments in the world Where is Stonehenge That s an easy question to answer It sits on the Salisbury Plain in Southern England But what is the meaning of these strange circles of stones Was Stonehenge a religious site to honor the dead Or a sacred place of healing Or perhaps an astrological calendar These are much harder questions to answer However in an engaging and easy to read account True Kelley puts forth all theories past as well as current ones about Stonehenge and the people who four thousand years ago managed to build this amazing monument

Topologies of Fear in Contemporary Fiction Scott McClintock,2015-07-21 The central concern of the book is the impact of global terror networks and state counterterrorism on twentieth century fiction A unique contribution of this book is the comparative approach as opposed to the single author focus of most of the edited collections on terrorism in literature

Landscape and Englishness ,2006-01-01 In the papers collected in this the first volume of the Spatial Practices series Englishness is reflected in the spaces it occupies or dwells in Broadly influenced by a renewed and growing interest in questions of cultural identity its emergence in Victorian theories and fictions of nationality and the new cultural geography the papers cover a rich variety of spaces and places which have been appropriated for cultural meanings the rural countryside and farmland of the Home Counties in the early nineteenth century as Arcadian idyll in Cobbett as the land to die for in war propaganda and as nostalgia for a unified organic English culture in Lawrence Morton and Priestley s travel writing but also in the Shell Tourist Guides to motoring in rural England English moorland the sacred geographies of monuments in Hardy and others the traditional seaside deconstructed in Martin Parr's photography and the sea as English Victorian imperial territory and its symbolic breezes in Froude's travel writing The English landscape is also a paradigm for the description of other places in D H Lawrence's travel writing or for the colonial territory itself in Rushdie's writing India a displacement of other landscapes This collection of papers examines the assumption that constructions of rural England provide the basis for an understanding of Englishness

Scale, Crisis, and the Modern Novel Aaron

Rosenberg, 2023-11-09 At the turn of the twentieth century novelists faced an unprecedented crisis of scale While exponential increases in industrial production resource extraction and technological complexity accelerated daily life growing concerns about deep time evolution globalization and extinction destabilised scale's value as a measure of reality Here Aaron Rosenberg examines how four novelists moved radically beyond novelistic realism repurposing the genres romance melodrama gothic and epic it had ostensibly superseded He demonstrates how H G Wells Thomas Hardy Joseph Conrad and Virginia Woolf engaged with climatic and ecological crises that persist today requiring us to navigate multiple temporal and spatial scales simultaneously The volume shows that problems of scale constrain our responses to crisis by shaping the linguistic aesthetic and narrative structures through which we imagine it This title is part of the Flip it Open Programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details
