

Those who sit in a glass house do
wrong to throw stones about them;
besides, the American glass house is rather thin, it will break easily, and the interior is anything but a gainly sight.

Stones In A Glass House:

Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor s Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting s authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what s the real thing and what is spurious Trixy; or, 'Those who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones'. Maggie Symington, 1885

Psychiatric-mental Health Nursing Sheila L. Videbeck, 2010-02 This fully updated Fifth Edition explores the full psychiatric nursing curriculum from theoretical foundations to application of interventions for commonly encountered disorders The focus is on treatment modalities nursing care therapeutic communication and self awareness The built in study guide helps reinforce student learning and knowledge retention Abundant features highlight the most pertinent learning concepts When Your Mind Breaks the Spirit of Your Soul Angelica Rose, 2014-09-17 It all started when I was about fifteen years old I was playing for the Amateur Softball Association or Junior Olympic Softball I was a standout pitcher throwing the ball about sixty five miles an hour I loved softball it was my sport and it was my passion But something was taking over my body my brain and my soul I wasn't in control anymore I used to throw no hitters strike batters out and be proud of myself But a switch went off in my brain I was hearing voices they were telling me to do certain things I was paranoid and it affected my pitching My dad could no longer sit anywhere near where I was pitching because I could see his eyeballs Those eyeballs were following me and distracting me so he had to sit behind the outfield fence I could hear what the batters were thinking and I could hear what everyone in the stands were thinking It ruined my career The sad part about it was that nobody helped me How could they have helped me I never told anybody because I was so afraid Was this normal I sometimes think it started even earlier maybe even as young as six years old The voices and paranoia were so intense sometimes I just wanted to end my life Why did my parents not notice this Why didn't anybody notice this I kept it all to myself and dealt with it myself
