At Rommel's Side Hans-Joachim Schraepler, 2009-07-27 Erwin Rommel Hitler's so called Desert Fox is possibly the most famous German Field Marshal of WWII He is widely regarded as the one of the most skilled commanders of desert warfare and in contrast to other leaders of Nazi Germany is considered to have been a chivalrous and humane officer The letters of his adjutant provide a unique picture of Rommel during his time in Libya Hans Joachim Schraepler was by Rommel's side in North Africa for ten crucial months in 1940-41 During that time he wrote to his wife almost every day In most cases the correspondence went via the usual channels but occasionally he used other methods to avoid the censor's gaze Through his letters Schraepler supplies a vivid image of the first phase of the North Africa campaign He covers the siege of Tobruk the capture of Benghazi and the difficulties experienced by those fighting in Cyrenica and the wider North African theatre He also complains that the Italian were poor Allies lacking training and leadership and that Berlin regarded North Africa as a theatre of only secondary importance Schraepler also provides insights into Rommel's character his dynamism and tactical skill along with the growing cult of personality which seemed to surround him One of his unofficial tasks for example was to respond in Rommel's name to much of the fan mail that arrived at the Afrikakorps HQ Hans Albrecht Schraepler was only seven years old when his father died The cache of letters was held by his mother and remained untouched for sixty years His father's last letter found the day of his death remains unfinished

Chink this selection from private letters and intimate war diary has the impact of a fresh no holds barred autobiography Dorman Smith the man flesh and blood comes alive here on the page Provocative irreverent caustic and witty his disdain for Churchill and for the Establishment in general increases as his military career unravels Egotistical Yes Arrogant Certainly His own worst enemy Perhaps But Dorman Smith s grasp of tactics and strategy was unsurpassed as his exchanges with Basil Liddell Hart demonstrate Full of contradictions he was externally reserved and inwardly super sensitive Growing up in style in Ireland and educated at public school in England his religion was Catholic and he scorned any Anglo Irish tag His private life while rising up the Northumberland Fusiliers proved colorful while a brief dalliance with the IRA in the 1950s never endangered his vow of silence over the Enigma Ultra secret This book gives a marvellous picture of personal war experience in two world wars from RMC Sandhurst and life in the trenches via the Staff College to high command in Egypt and India between the wars until service in North Africa under Wavell began and working side by side with Auchinleck at the First Battle of El Alamein That would lead to confrontation with Churchill and Brooke and subsequent breakout from Anzio under fire Readers will know what it was like to survive the trenches to serve in HQ as crises arose and to have command involving losses the reality of war is dramatic and moving The First Battle of El Alamein fought under Auchinleck in the emergency that dangerous summer of 1942 was to be followed within three months by Montgomery s celebrated battle and its consequent fame The important argument of Military Maverick however is that First Alamein was the real turning point in the Desert War and that makes Dorman Smith s account even more valuable The letters and diary entries are linked by commentary and explanation by the editor Lavinia Greacen and by the military historian John Lee Johnnie Johnson's Great Adventure Dilip Sarkar,2020-12-14 The World War II fighter Ace s previously unpublished draft an account of the Long Trek from Normandy into the heart of the Third Reich itself Having published two of his own books Wing Leader and The Circle of Air Fighting Air Vice Marshal Johnnie Johnson co authored several more with another fighter ace namely Wing Commander P B Laddie Lucas In 1997 the AVM suggested to his friend the prolific author Dilip Sarkar that the pair should collaborate on The Great Adventure Greycap Leader was to produce a draft after which Dilip would add the historical detail and comment Sadly the project was unfulfilled because Johnnie became ill and passed away aged eighty five in 2001 Years later Johnnie s eldest son Chris discovered the manuscript among his august father s papers In order to keep Johnnie s memory evergreen Chris turned to Dilip to finally see the project through to its conclusion In this book Johnnie revisits certain aspects of his wartime service including the development of tactical air cooperation with ground forces his time as a Canadian wing leader in 1943 when the Spitfire Mk IX at last outclassed the Fw 190 and details his involvement in some of the most important battles of the defeat of Nazi Germany including Operation Overlord and the D Day landings in 1944 Operation Market Garden and the airborne assault at Arnhem and the Rhine Crossings throughout all of which Johnnie also commanded Canadian wings Johnnie Johnson s Great Adventure brings to life the man of the book in such an interesting and heroic manner if it wasn't for these brave heroes we might not have won the war UK Historian World-wide
