Twenty Things Adopted Kids Wish Their Adoptive Parents Knew Sherrie Eldridge, 2009-10-07 Birthdays may be difficult for me I want you to take the initiative in opening conversations about my birth family When I act out my fears in obnoxious ways please hang in there with me I am afraid you will abandon me The voices of adopted children are poignant questioning And they tell a familiar story of loss fear and hope This extraordinary book written by a woman who was adopted herself gives voice to children's unspoken concerns and shows adoptive parents how to free their kids from feelings of fear abandonment and shame With warmth and candor Sherrie Eldridge reveals the twenty complex emotional issues you must understand to nurture the child you love that he must grieve his loss now if he is to receive love fully in the future that she needs honest information about her birth family no matter how painful the details may be and that although he may choose to search for his birth family he will always rely on you to be his parents Filled with powerful insights from children parents and experts in the field plus practical strategies and case histories that will ring true for every adoptive family Twenty Things Adopted Kids Wish Their Adoptive Parents Knew is an invaluable guide to the complex emotions that take up residence within the heart of the adopted child and within the adoptive home Matricentric Feminism Andrea O'Reilly, 2016-10-01 The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face social economic political cultural psychological and so forth are specific to women's role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O'Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice The chapter on maternal theory examines the central theoretical concepts of maternal scholarship while the chapter on activism considers the twenty first century motherhood movement Feminist mothering is likewise examined as the specific practice of matricentric feminism and this chapter discusses various theories and strategies on and for maternal empowerment Matricentric feminism is also examined in relation to the larger field of academic feminism here O'Reilly persuasively shows how matricentric feminism has been marginalized in academic feminism and considers the reasons for such exclusion and how such may be challenged and changed The Family Context of Parenting in Children's Adaptation to Elementary School Philip A. Cowan, Carolyn Pape Cowan, Jennifer C. Ablow, Vanessa Kahn Johnson, Jeffrey R. Measelle, 2005-05-06 This volume focuses on how parent child relationships aren't the only determinants of a child's academic competence social competence and behavior Rather these relationships must be understood in the context of the role they play within the family as The Tao of Women Pamela K. Metz, Jacqueline L. Tobin, 1995-06 For centuries women have remained quiet suppressed by society Yet in their silence a singing can be heard celebrating their truths In The Tao of Women female voices speak out Finally the wisdom of Taoist philosophy is linked with the deep and mysterious wisdom of women The Tao of Women captures and presents the power and wisdom generated by centuries of women's lives with the hope that this wisdom will not be lost These brief and poignant meditations amplify the voices of our grandmothers and their mothers before them they illuminate the connections over time and space and culture allowing us to understand the women who came before and the daughters who will follow In 1950 a secret language was discovered near Hunan Province China It was not until 1982 that anyone collected and translated this secret women's script Known as Nu Shu this ancient language was developed and used by women to communicate with each other when their society would not allow them to learn to read and write For the first time in America 81 original Nu Shu illustrations and their translations can be seen in The Tao of Women Hospitality and Tourism Norzuwana

Representing Latina/x Reproductive Decision-Making Melissa Huerta,2022-08-16 Representing Latina x Reproductive Decision Making examines representations of reproductive decisions in cultural texts and engages with scholarship on Latina x representation to interrogate what these representations mean for Latinx popular culture Melissa Huerta demonstrates that cultural texts ranging from the work of Teatro Luna and television series like Jane the Virgin and Vida to the film Quincea era and Favianna Rodriguez s artwork can challenge traditional notions of Latina x reproductive decisions pointing to more inclusive understandings of people s experiences Huerta argues for the importance of cultural representation in theater television film and art and analyzes the roles language and images play in shaping meaning This book will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies gender studies Latin American studies and film and media studies

Metamorphoses of Psyche in Psychoanalysis and Ancient Greek Thought Marcia Dobson,2022-12-08 This unusual book explores the transformative power of liminal experiences in ancient Greek texts psychoanalytic theory and the author s own life to demonstrate how a contemporary understanding of ancient thought can illuminate modern psychoanalytic theory and practice especially as it relates to trauma grief and the development of psyche With the understanding that liminal experiencing involves engaging a psychic space outside the boundaries of ego organization Dobson artfully interweaves autobiography literary analysis philosophical ontology and psychoanalysis to formulate a new paradigm for how to construct human beings how to enliven and deepen personal and therapeutic experience and how poetic language is the gateway to this magical realm of transformation Alongside richly detailed case analyses the author uses her dual expertise in psychoanalysis and ancient Greek literature to explore how the maternal and liminal in human life were displaced with the rise of Athens and a new way of being human the rational citizen and how this repression has resulted in diminished constricted experiencing and the suppression of women throughout western history With a deep understanding of classical literature and psychoanalysis and extensive clinical insights this is essential reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists classicists and historians wishing to understand how ancient thought and modern psychoanalysis can interact Matricentric Feminism: Theory, Activism, Practice. The 2nd Edition

Andrea O'Reilly,2021-04-04 The 2nd edition includes a new preface that considers how matricentric feminism in positioning mothering as a verb affords a gender neutral understanding of motherwork and allows for an appreciation of how motherwork is deeply gendered and how this may be challenged and changed through empowered mothering The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face are specific to women s role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice Maternal Theory Andrea O'Reilly,2021-07-08

Theory on mothers mothering and motherhood has emerged as a distinct body of knowledge within Motherhood Studies and Feminist Theory more generally This collection The Second Edition of Maternal Theory Essential Readings introduces readers to this rich and diverse tradition of maternal theory Composed of 60 chapters the 2nd edition includes two sections the first with the classic texts by Adrienne Rich Nancy Chodorow Sara Ruddick Alice Walker Barbara Katz Rothman bell hooks Sharon Hays Patricia Hill Collins Audre Lorde Daphne de Marneffe Judith Warner Patrice diQinizio Susan Maushart and many more The second section includes thirty new chapters on vital and new topics including Trans Parenting Non Binary Parenting Queer Mothering Matricentric Feminism Normative Motherhood Maternal Subjectivity Maternal Narratology Maternal Ambivalence Maternal Regret Monstrous Mothers The Migrant Maternal Reproductive Justice Feminist Mothering Feminist Fathering Indigenous Mothering The Digital Maternal The Opt Out Revolution Black Motherhoods Motherlines The Motherhood Memoir Pandemic Mothering and many more Maternal Theory is essential reading for anyone interested in motherhood as experience ideology and identity Textual Mothers/Maternal Texts Elizabeth Podnieks,Andrea O'Reilly,2011-04-07

Textual Mothers/Maternal Texts focuses on mothers as subjects and as writers who produce auto biography fiction and poetry about maternity International contributors examine the mother without child with child and in her multiple identities as grandmother mother and daughter The collection examines how authors use textual spaces to accept negotiate resist or challenge traditional conceptions of mothering and maternal roles and how these texts offer alternative practices and visions for mothers Further it illuminates how textual representations both reflect and help to define or re shape the realities of women and families by examining how mothering and being a mother are political personal and creative narratives unfolding within both the pages of a book and the spaces of a life The range of chapters maps a shift from the daughter centric stories that have dominated the maternal tradition to the matrilineal and matrifocal perspectives that have emerged over the last few decades as the mother's voice moved from silence to speech Contributors make aesthetic cultural and political claims and critiques about mothering and motherhood illuminating in new and diverse ways how authors and the protagonists of the texts read their own maternal identities as well as the maternal scripts of their families cultures and nations in their quest for self knowledge agency and artistic expression Yoga Journal ,1992-11 For more than 30 years Yoga Journal has been helping readers achieve the balance and well being they seek in their everyday lives With every issue Yoga Journal strives to inform and empower readers to make lifestyle choices that are healthy for their bodies and minds We are dedicated to providing in depth thoughtful editorial on topics such as yoga food nutrition fitness wellness travel and fashion and beauty

Mother, She Wrote Yi-Lin Yu,2005 In this enjoyable and insightful book Yi Lin Yu takes the heated and ongoing feminist debate over motherhood and maternal subjectivity onto a new plane in search of a new synthesis With its specific focus on the three tiered matrilineal narratives Mother She Wrote is distinguished by its complex and innovative deployment of psychoanalytic subject relations theories and a meticulous and detailed discussion of various literary texts which calls forth a powerful reformulation of these narratives One of the main strengths of this book is this simultaneous and tactful command of theory and literary practice Apart from advocating the burgeoning development of women's writing of matrilineal narratives the author also sheds new light on further research in the area of feminist motherhood and mothering Publisher's description
