Circles in the Stream Paul E. Koptak, 2022-04-28 Maybe we should read Genesis 37 50 as the story of Joseph and Judah Both kept their families alive and received major blessings from their father Jacob Like his brother Joseph Judah knew how to use words to lead and persuade primarily by appealing to common experience His speeches model Kenneth Burke s rhetoric of identification inducing cooperation by showing his listeners how they are consubstantial that is where they stand together Preachers hope to do the same making gospel connections between ancient texts and life today Circles in the Stream shows that the connections are there in the Scripture text freeing preachers from the pressure to find contemporary illustrations Adapting Burke s literary rhetorical approach to reading Paul Koptak offers ever widening circles of reading to that end Indexing a passage and looking for identification there lead to the transformative purpose and life issue Intertextual study a combination of both discovers these connections in the wider two testament canon Circles in the Stream offers both a distinct perspective for reading Scripture and practical steps for in depth study Its method can make sermon preparation more efficient and effective More importantly it leads to the life issues that listeners want their preachers to address

Pastor and Professor Donald Blosser, 2012-08-17 Pastor and Professor is one pastor s story of a rich life filled with experiences that tested his faith and demanded growth that was both exhilarating and painful It is the personal story of moving from faith as right doctrinal belief to faith as a liberating response to a loving God a God who is always with us continually drawing us into the future This dynamic understanding of faith is based on the belief that the kingdom of God is a present reality where followers of Jesus are to be pastoral in spirit while prophetic in living Don Blosser weaves personal experience with public expression of an emerging faith that wrestles candidly with the realities of life and deals with the pastor professor tension of integrating academic scholarship in the classroom with pastoral proclamation in the pulpit Pastor and Professor invites the reader to share a journey where faith is often challenged sometimes doubted yet lived with enthusiasm as it is shared from the pulpit and in the college classroom It invites the reader to find fresh insights in the Scriptures and to live with new hope to embrace life more fully and to share more gently one's own story with others

International Sunday School Evangel ,1906 Talking God Jacqui Bulman,2021-06-18 Listening is a valuable and often neglected tool for spiritual learning Talking God invites you to reflect on the personal beliefs many of us hold towards God through listening in on a series of eleven inspiring interviews with people of Christian or Jesus connected faith Each of these dedicated spiritual pilgrims give responses to fourteen searching questions about God Jesus Christ and Christianity which offer a wide range of perspectives on issues of faith and spiritual truth Finding unity in diversity can be difficult It is only by earnestly trying to hear each other that we can learn to celebrate our differences while also looking for threads in the worship of God's love that bind us together

Small Talk Amy Julia Becker,2014-10-28 Almost every day one of Amy Julia's children says something or asks something that prompts her to think more carefully Why Mommy crying Marilee when the family learned a young boy had died of cancer Booful Mommy Beautiful Mommy as Penny proclaimed just as Amy Julia was looking in the mirror and critiquing her post pregnancy body in her head What lasting mean William when he heard a song in church about God being an everlasting God These conversations deepen her relationships with her children but they also deepen and refine her own understanding of what she believes why she believes it and what she hopes to pass along to the next generation Small Talk is a narrative based upon these conversations It is not a parenting guide It does not offer prescriptive lessons about how to talk with children Rather it tells stories based upon the questions and statements Amy Julia's children have made about the things that make life good such as love kindness beauty laughter and friendship the things that make life hard such as death failure and tragedy and what we believe such as prayer God and miracles Amy Julia explores three parts body mind spirit as she moves in rough chronological order through the basic questions her kids asked when they were very young to the intellectual and then spiritual questions of later childhood It invites other parents into these same conversations with their children with God and with themselves Moving from humorous exchanges to profound questions to heart wrenching moments Amy Julia encourages parents to ask themselves and to talk with their children about what matters most
