Stories Of An Exhibitiontwo Millenia Of German Jewish History:

Stories of an Exhibition Ingke Brodersen, Rüdiger Dammann, 2001 Exhibition catalog for the permanent exhibition on German Jewish History at the Jewish Museum Berlinches Modern Judaism and Historical Consciousness Christian Wiese, Andreas Gotzmann, 2007-05-11 The volume composed by excellent scholars from different academic disciplines is a comprehensive handbook devoted to the complex relationship between modern Judaism and historical thinking in Europe the United States and Israel from the Enlightenment to the present Apart from analyzing the emergence of a new scholarly historical paradigm during this period the contributions interpret the interaction and the tensions between Jewish historiography and other disciplines such as literature theology sociology and philosophy describe the way historical consciousness was popularized and used for ideological purposes and explore the impact of different religious or secular identities on the historical representation of the Jewish past A final part envisions new theoretical and methodological concepts within the field including cultural studies and gender studies Being Jewish in the New Germany Jeffrey M. Peck, 2006 This book was written for an American Jewish readership But some chapters especially the first two address the non specialist while others especially the last two accommodate the expert The work contains one theme and one thesis The theme is simple and to be welcomed Americans and American Jews in particular need to understand that Germany has changed and that its Jewish community is made up of more than just a few souls morbidly attached to blood soaked soil We are therefore introduced to Jewish writers politicians and intellectuals to Jews of Russian origin German background and Israeli descent and to the many issues facing today s German Jewish community of 100 000 plus members Peck discusses the role of the Holocaust in German and American political life He relates how Russian Jews have begun to take over community institutions revitalizing German Jewry especially in Berlin and the provinces And he compares and contrasts the situation of Turks and Jews today whom many Germans still perceive as foreign no matter how acculturated they happen to be All of this material is interesting but not new Review from H Net Visualizing the Holocaust David Bathrick, Brad Prager, Michael David Richardson, 2008 Visual representations are an essential but highly contested means of understanding and remembering the Holocaust Photographs taken in the camps in early 1945 provided proof of and visceral access to the atrocities Later visual representations such as films paintings and art installations attempted to represent this extreme trauma While photographs from the camps and later aesthetic reconstructions differ in origin they share goals and have raised similar concerns the former are questioned not as to veracity but due to their potential inadequacy in portraying the magnitude of events the latter are criticized on the grounds that the mediation they entail is unacceptable Some have even questioned any attempt to represent the Holocaust as inappropriate and dangerous to historical understanding This book explores the taboos that structure the production and reception of Holocaust images and the possibilities that result from the transgression of those taboos Essays consider the uses of various visual media aesthetic styles and genres in representations of the Holocaust the uses of perpetrator photography the role of trauma in memory aesthetic problems of mimesis and memory in the work of Lanzmann Celan and others and questions about mass cultural representations of the Holocaust David Bathrick is Emeritus Professor of German at Cornell University Brad Prager is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri and Michael D Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College

Homes of the Past Jeffrey Shandler, 2024-06-04 Homes of the Past tells the powerful story of how immigrant Jewish scholars in 1940s New York sought to build a museum to commemorate their lost worlds and people Among the Jews who arrived in the United States in the early 1940s were a small number of Polish scholars who had devoted their professional lives to the study of Europe's Yiddish speaking Jews at the YIVO Institute for Jewish Research Faced with the devastating knowledge that returning to their former homes and resuming their scholarly work there was no longer viable they sought to address their profound sense of loss by continuing their work under radically different circumstances to document the European Jewish lives places and ways of living that were being destroyed In pursuing this daunting agenda they made a remarkable decision they would create a museum to memorialize East European Jewry and educate American Jews about this legacy YIVO scholars determinedly pursued this undertaking for several years publicizing the initiative and collecting materials to exhibit However the Museum of the Homes of the Past was abandoned shortly after the war ended With insight and clarity Jeffrey Shandler draws upon the surviving archival sources to tell the story of the purpose development and ultimate fate of the Museum of the Homes of the Past Homes of the Past explores this largely unknown episode of modern Jewish history and museum history and demonstrates that the project even though it was never realized marked a critical inflection point in the dynamic interrelations between Jews in America and Eastern Europe

The Persistence of Nationalism Angharad Closs Stephens, 2013-03-12 This is a book about the difficulties of thinking and acting politically in ways that refuse the politics of nationalism The book offers a detailed study of how contemporary attempts by theorists of cosmopolitanism citizenship globalism and multiculturalism to go beyond nationalism often reproduce key aspects of a nationalist imaginary It argues that the challenge of resisting nationalism will require more than a shift in the scale of politics from the national up to the global or down to the local and more than a shift in the count of politics to an emphasis on diversity and multiculturalism In order to avoid the grip of nationalist thinking we need to re open the question of what it means to imagine community Set against the backdrop of the imaginative geographies of the War in Terror and the new beginning promised by the Presidency of Barack Obama the book shows how critical interventions often work in collaboration with nationalist politics even when the aim is to resist nationalism It claims that a nationalist imaginary includes powerful understandings of freedom subjectivity sovereignty and political space time which must also be placed under question if we want to avoid reproducing ideas about us and them Drawing on insights from feminist cultural and postcolonial studies as well as critical approaches to International Relations and Geography this book presents a unique and refreshing approach to the politics of nationalism

Socialism of Fools

Michele Battini,2016-04-05 In Socialism of Fools Michele Battini focuses on the critical moment during the Enlightenment in which anti Jewish stereotypes morphed into a sophisticated modern social anti Semitism He recovers the potent anti Jewish anticapitalist propaganda that cemented the idea of a Jewish conspiracy in the European mind and connects it to the atrocities that characterized the Jewish experience in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Beginning in the eighteenth century counter Enlightenment intellectuals and intransigent Catholic writers singled out Jews for conspiring to exploit self sustaining markets and the liberal state These ideas spread among socialist and labor movements in the nineteenth century and intensified during the Long Depression of the 1870s Anti Jewish anticapitalism then migrated to the Habsburg Empire with the Christian Social Party to Germany with the Anti Semitic Leagues to France with the nationalist movements and to Italy where Revolutionary Syndicalists made anti Jewish anticapitalism the basis of an alliance with the nationalists Exemplified best in the Protocols of the Elders of Zion the infamous document that leaked Jewish plans to conquer the world the Jewish conspiracy myth inverts reality and creates a perverse relationship to historical and judicial truth Isolating the intellectual roots of this phenomenon and its contemporary resonances Battini shows us why so many decades after the Holocaust Jewish people continue to be a powerful political target

2001 Susan Sarah Cohen,2013-02-18 This work includes international secondary literature on anti Semitism published throughout the world from the earliest times to the present It lists books dissertations and articles from periodicals and collections from a diverse range of disciplines Written accounts are included among the recorded titles as are manifestations of anti Semitism in the visual arts e g painting caricatures or film action taken against Jews and Judaism by discriminating judiciaries pogroms massacres and the systematic extermination during the Nazi period The bibliography also covers works dealing with philo Semitism or Jewish reactions to anti Semitism and Jewish self hate An informative abstract in English is provided for each entry and Hebrew titles are provided with English translations

Luigi Nono Carola Nielinger-Vakil,2015 Carola Nielinger Vakil examines selected works by Nono in the historical context of Italy and Germany after 1945

Justice and Conflicts Elisabeth Kals,Jürgen Maes,2011-10-20 Central to the book are questions concerning the existence and the characteristics of justice motives and concerning the influence that justice motives and justice judgements have on the emergence but also the solution of social conflicts Five main themes will be addressed 1 Introduction and justice motive 2 organizational justice 3 ecological justice 4 social conflicts and 5 solution of conflicts The authors of the editions are scholars of psychology as well as distinguished experts from various other disciplines including sociologists economists legal scholar educationalists and ethicists The common ground of all contributors is their independent conduction of empirical research on justice issues Apart from the German contributors authors represent scholars from the US India Korea New Zealand and various European countries Austria Switzerland the Netherlands UK Sweden

Visitors to the House of Memory Victoria Bishop Kendzia,2017-12-29 As one of the most visited museums in Germany s capital city the Jewish Museum Berlin is a key site for understanding not only German Jewish history but also German identity in an era of unprecedented ethnic and religious diversity Visitors to the House of Memory is an intimate exploration of how young Berliners experience the Museum How do modern students relate to the museum s evocative architecture its cultural political context and its narrative of Jewish history By accompanying a range of high school history students before during and after their visits to the museum this book offers an illuminating exploration of political education affect remembrance and belonging Judaism and the Visual Image

Melissa Raphael,2009-02-19 The widespread assumption that Jewish religious tradition is mediated through words not pictures has left Jewish art with no significant role to play in Jewish theology and ethics Judaism and the Visual Image argues for a Jewish theology of image that among other things helps us re read the creation story in Genesis 1 and to question why images of Jewish women as religious subjects appear to be doubly suppressed by the Second Commandment when images of observant male Jews have become legitimate even iconic representations of Jewish holiness Raphael further suggests that devout beholding of images of the Holocaust is a corrective to post Holocaust theologies of divine absence from suffering that are infused by a sub theological aesthetic of the sublime Raphael concludes by proposing that the relationship between God and Israel composes itself into a unitary dance or moving image by which each generation participates in a processive revelation that is itself the ultimate work of Jewish art The Scholems Jay Howard Geller,2019-03-15 The evocative and riveting stories of four brothers Gershom the Zionist Werner the Communist Reinhold the nationalist and Erich the liberal weave together in The Scholems a biography of an eminent middle class Jewish Berlin family and a social history of the Jews in Germany in the decades leading up to World War II Across four generations Jay Howard Geller illuminates the transformation of traditional Jews into modern German citizens the challenges they faced and the ways that they shaped the German Jewish century beginning with Prussia s emancipation of the Jews in 1812 and ending with exclusion and disenfranchisement under the Nazis Focusing on the renowned philosopher and Kabbalah scholar Gershom Scholem and his family their story beautifully draws out the rise and fall of bourgeois life in the unique subculture that was Jewish Berlin Geller portrays the family within a much larger context of economic advancement the adoption of German culture and debates on Jewish identity struggles for integration into society and varying political choices during the German Empire World War I the Weimar Republic and the Nazi era What Geller discovers and unveils for the reader is a fascinating portal through which to view the experience of the Jewish middle class in Germany The Memorial Ethics of Libeskind's Berlin Jewish Museum Arleen Ionescu,2017-02-20 This book is a detailed critical study of Libeskind s Berlin Jewish Museum in its historical architectural and philosophical context Emphasizing how the Holocaust changed our perception of history memory witnessing and representation it develops the notion of memorial ethics to explore the Museum s difference from more conventional post World War Two commemorative sites The main focus is on the Museum as an experience of the materiality of trauma which engages the visitor in a performative duty to remember Arleen Ionescu builds on Levinas s idea of ethics as optics to show how Libeskind's Museum becomes a testimony to the unrepresentable Other. Ionescu also extends the Museum's experiential dimension by proposing her own subjective walk through Libeskind's space reimagined as a literary museum. Featuring reflections on texts by Beckett, Celan, Derrida, Kafka, Blanchot, Wiesel, and Selma Meerbaum-Eisinger, Celan's cousin, this virtual tour concludes with a brief account of Libeskind's analogous healing project for Ground Zero.

Judaism Musical and Unmusical Michael P. Steinberg, 2007. Modernity gave rise to a Jewish consciousness that has increasingly distanced itself from the sacred in favor of worldliness and secularity. Judaism Musical and Unmusical traces the formulation of this secular Jewishness from its Enlightenment roots through the twentieth century to explore the infinite variations of modern Jewish experience in Central Europe and beyond. Engaging the work of such figures as Sigmund Freud, Walter Benjamin, Hannah Arendt, Charlotte Salomon, Arnaldo Momigliano, Leonard Bernstein, and Daniel Libeskind, Michael Steinberg shows how modern Jews advanced cosmopolitanism and multiplicity by helping to loosen, whether by choice or by necessity, the ties that bind any culture to accounts of its origins. In the process, Steinberg composes a mosaic of texts and events, often distant from one another in time and place, that speak to his theme of musicality. As both a literal value and a metaphorical one, musicality opens the possibility of a fusion of aesthetics and analysis, a coupling analogous to European modernity's twin concerns of art and politics.

Antisemitism Susan Sarah Cohen, 1987. Jewish Quarterly, 2002. Gebroken evenwicht tussen oost en west Gerrit De Vylder, 2012. Historisch overzicht vanuit een multicultureel Azië-centrisch perspectief.

Absence and Loss Marion Davies, 2007. A timely photographic exploration of the role of Holocaust memorials in Germany. With helpful text for use by educators and in exhibitions.
