Stories Of Manhood Journeys Into The Hidden Hearts Of Men:

Stories of Manhood Steve Biddulph, 2015-11 A collection of stories from eminent male writers about what it means to be a man Designing A Program To Nurture Great Men of Faith, Character and Service in the Local Church Rev. Dr. Charles Falcone, 2014-03-05 This thesis is written to investigate the gender gap that exists in current church membership throughout Western Christianity Numerous studies have established that throughout all Christian churches in the United States women outnumber men in attendance and membership This paper is written with the hope of understanding the causes for disproportional involvement of men in the local church We will investigate the factors of theological climate in the mainline church sociological factors revolving around the Christian family changing notions of work vocation and gender roles and sociological factors of health and longevity Our goal is to see an awakening in the masculine spirit at the church where the author currently serves Lost Worlds Michael Bywater, 2012-09-20 A funny erudite and fascinating miscellany of things lost large and small from cultures to candies species to sports gear by the acclaimed columnist A C Grayling They go They vanish People Civilizations Languages Philosophies Works of art disappear species are extinguished books are lost Dunwich is drowned Pompeii buried Athena's statue gone from the Parthenon Suetonius's Lives of the Great Whores gone the way of the Roman Empire Whole libraries of knowledge galleries of secrets Gone Little things too Train compartments Snuff galoshes smog Your mother's perfume Michael Bywater argues that we are not defined by what we have but by what we have lost along the way In Lost Worlds he offers a witty eclectic and endlessly fascinating glossary of the missing a cabinet of absent curiosities weaving a web of everything we no longer have Older Men's Business Jack Zinn, 2003-09 Older men present valuable insights into their lives in areas such as work retirement family relationships deteriorating health sexuality spirituality widowerhood loneliness and depression Contemporary Authors New Revision Series Tracey Watson, 2005-06 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors R New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world's most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors R entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually Online and Personal Jo Lamble, Sue Morris, 2003-09 Exploring the problems associated with Internet use and misuse this guide provides practical information on how to deal with them Included are useful strategies for dealing with such troublesome issues as online relationships that have led to marriage breakups young people visiting inappropriate Kaapse bibliotekaris, 2001 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 The Publishers Weekly, 2003 Voci di donne Bianca R. Gelli, 2002 Health, Social Change & Communities Pranee Liamputtong, Heather Gardner, 2003 Governments while concentrating on policy development and the pursuit of strategic approaches have concurrently distanced themselves from the direct provision of services to become funders not providers Funding is provided to agencies whether from the public or private sector on the basis of the strength of their competitive tenders and the number of relevant organizations that they have included The effects that these and other changes in the political and economic sectors have had on Australian society at the beginning of the 21st century are the concern of the authors of Health Social Change and Communities Since communities are both the recipients and the participants in health and social policy the book is a sympathetic but critical analysis of some of those community groups and how they are faring in terms of health and social indicators All of the chapters focus on the four main areas An overview of current social cultural or epidemiological perspectives relevant to the community and their members health Problems or issues in Australian society as reflective of wider international concerns A discussion of relevant health policies and programs Measures that can be taken to improve the health of selected groups in the community Health Social Change and Communities is written for readers who either have an interest or who are engaged in working with members of communities With its presentation of diversity in communities the book provides insights to enlighten and influence thinking about health and social policy

Stories of Manhood ,2003 The Writers Directory ,2013 American Book Publishing Record ,2001 I Wish you nothing! SHARON PERERA,2024-06-19 The book titled I Wish you Nothing convey s a range of emotions Detachment Apathy rejection expectation a voice screaming and many voices unheard Embark on a captivating journey through time as each tale unveils the hushed struggles of men From the scripted expectations of boyhood to the intricate trials faced by retired individuals these narratives delve into societal norms relationships and the pursuit of emotional and mental well being Immerse yourself in this expedition into the male journey where vulnerability intertwines with resilience transforming the seemingly simple wish for nothing into a profound quest for everything In some instances uttering I wish you nothing becomes a poignant signal marking the closure of a relationship or chapter without holding onto resentment Alternatively it serves as a succinct expression conveying that the soul refrains from attaching specific wishes or expectations

The Warrior's Journey Home Jed Diamond,1994-02 Weaving threads of Jungian analysis with anthropology therapist Jed Diamond illustrates men s tendencies toward anger and violence from the days of hunter gatherers Diamond suggests a revolutionary plan to help men use their strengths to create a better world

Gender and Fatherhood in the Nineteenth Century Trev Lynn Broughton,Helen Rogers,2017-09-16 Despite current debate over the paternal role fatherhood is a relatively new area of investigation in literary historical and cultural studies The contributors to this illustrated interdisciplinary volume one of the first extended investigations of paternity in 19th century Britain and its empire penetrate the stereotype of the Victorian paterfamilias to uncover intimate and involved authoritarian and austere fathers Finding surprising precursors of the new man and the lone father Trev Lynn Broughton and Helen Rogers provide an essential overview of changing ideologies and practices of fatherhood as the family acquired its distinctively modern form Gender and Fatherhood in the Nineteenth Century Offers nuanced re readings of artistic and literary representations of domesticity investigations of fathering at home and at work and of legal political and religious discourses suggesting that fatherhood generated more anxiety and debate than previously acknowledged Explores how traditional conceptions of paternal authority worked to accommodate the cult of motherhood Examines how paternal power was embedded in social institutions Shows how models of social fatherhood provided powerful men with a means of negotiating their relationship with working class men and colonized subjects As these innovative essays demonstrate the history of fatherhood can illuminate our understanding of class society and empire as well as of gender and the family Together they form an indispensable resource for anyone studying Victorian fatherhood as part of a history literature art social or cultural studies course
