

Weak Leadership of Louis XVI Marie Antoinette

The King and Queen of France during the 1800's were not the best at leading their country to success. This is because of the unfairness of taxation and because of the unfair ruling. This was the cause of the French Revolution.

Storming of the Bastille

Because of the unfair rules and laws, the people rebelled and stormed the Bastille which is a medieval looking prison where people were tortured and killed. The 3rd Estate cut off guards heads and destroyed the Bastille. This led to the 'Woman's March for Bread'.

Woman's March on Versailles

Since the 3rd Estate rebelled the King and Queen retaliated and took away the bread from the 3rd Estate. Since the women needed the bread for cooking and eating the women got mad and marched over to the 1st Estates palace and protested.

Tennis Court Oath and the Creation of the National Assembly

The 3rd Estate thought the King was after them so they hid in a tennis court and declared that they wouldn't move from this room until they got a constitution.

Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen

Because of the events that have led up to this point especially the Tennis Court Oath, they officially made a constitution called the Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen.

Execution of King Louis XVI

Since King Louis was scared of the people and the constitution they made him and his wife Marie tried to leave France but got caught and sent to prison. After this the people wanted justice so they made a machine called the guillotine and beheaded King Louis XVI with it.
