I Can't Fix It but I Know Who Can Sandra Still, 2019-01-10 Liveliving is a problem and we just can't fix it We can't control it We can't perfectly understand it The past is often a puzzle The present is a challenge And we can't with certainty plan for the future as the future simply has too many what ifs unknowns and variables The Problem with a capital P is life plain and simple Illness death loneliness divorce children who break our hearts friends and family from whom we are alienated Career challenges or a lack of career in the face of job loss Politics wars natural disasters the list of earthly woes is endless We can't fix them but I know who can This book looks at forty nine different situations I have experienced either firsthand or through the lives of friends and relatives They are meditations a word which in Hebrew doesn't necessarily mean quiet contemplation Rather the root word for meditate hagah often meant to moan utter aloud muse and just plain mutter to roar to growl to speak out or in short oftentimes pure lamentation and calling out to God Forty nine reflections on woes and finding God's love within them The fiftieth entry puts the emphasis on Jubilee In the Old Testament guidelines for the newly established Jewish nation directed that every fiftieth year was a time for rest renewal and celebration And so the fiftieth meditation does just that celebrates the Lord's goodness and provision for his people We of the New Covenant the Church can face life's trials and hardships knowing that one of these days Jesus's promise I am making everything new Revelation 21:5 will come to pass In Christ's kingdom there will be jubilee And so let us begin the journey of meditating on life's challenges knowing that we can't fix it but focusing always on the One who can
