Stories That Live:

The Stories We Live by Dan P. McAdams, 1993-01-01 This book should be value for all those who are interested in enhancing their self understanding It should also serve as useful classroom text for undergraduates and advanced students in personality and social psychology counselling and psychotherapy

Stories we live and grow by Muna Saleh, 2019-02-01 Interweaving my experiences as a Canadian Muslim woman mother grand daughter educator and scholar throughout this work I write about living and narratively inquiring Clandinin and Connelly Narrative Inquiry Clandinin alongside three Muslim mothers and daughters during our daughters transition into adolescence I was interested in mother and daughter experiences during this time of life transition because my eldest daughter Malak was in the midst of transitioning into adolescence as I embarked upon my doctoral research I had many wonders about Malak s experiences my experiences as a mother and the experiences of other Muslim daughters and mothers in the midst of similar life transitions I wondered about how dominant narratives from within and across Muslim and other communities in Canada shape our lives and experiences For while we are often storied as victims of various oppressions in media literature and elsewhere little is known about our diverse experiences par ticularly the experiences of Muslim mothers and daughters composing our selves and lives alongside one another in familial places

True Stories of Heroic Lives True stories, 1899

The long exile, and other stories (What men live by ; Yermak, the conqueror of Siberia ; Desire stronger than necessity ; Stories of my dogs ; Early days ; Scenes from common life ; Stories from physics ; Tales from zoology ; Stories from botany ; Fables ; From the new speller ; Yasnaya Polyana school ; Who should learn writing of whom ... ; A dialogue among clever people ; Walk in the light while there is light graf Leo Tolstoy, 1913

The Stories We Are William Randall, 2013-12-31 From time to time we all tend to wonder what sort of story our life might comprise what it means where it is going and whether it hangs together as a whole In The Stories We Are William Lowell Randall explores the links between literature and life and speculates on the range of storytelling styles through which people compose their lives In doing so he draws on a variety of fields including psychology psychotherapy theology philosophy feminist theory and literary theory Using categories like plot character point of view and style Randall plays with the possibility that we each make sense of the events of our lives to the extent that we weave them into our own unfolding novel as simultaneously its author narrator main character and reader In the process he offers us a unique perspective on features of our day to day world such as secrecy self deception gossip prejudice intimacy maturity and the proverbial art of living First published in 1995 this second edition of The Stories We Are includes a new preface and afterword by the author that offer insight into his argument and evolution as a scholar as well as an illuminating foreword by Ruthellen Josselson

Engaging in Narrative Inquiry D. Jean Clandinin, 2022-09-01 In Engaging in Narrative Inquiry Second Edition D Jean Clandinin a pioneer in narrative research updates her classic formulation on narrative inquiry clarifying extending and refining methods This updated edition looks at changes and developments in the field since the publication of the first edition in 2013 exploring how narrative inquiry explores human lives through a narrative lens that honors experience as a source of important knowledge and understanding The book includes several exemplary cases with the author's critique and analysis of the work The following are new to this edition New exemplary cases including Menon's autobiographical narrative inquiry as the starting point for framing a research puzzle and justifying a study Chung's account of a study that begins with living alongside participants and a paper from Swanson's autobiographical narrative inquiry An expanded discussion of the philosophical grounding of narrative inquiry An expanded discussion of relational ethics in narrative inquiry that highlights links to a relational ontology An updated account of the field of narrative inquiry that highlights future directions including the necessity of response groups and questions of responsibility and community The increasing interest in narrative inquiry as research methodology across disciplines makes this book an essential guide and an excellent text for graduate courses in qualitative inquiry education and nursing research sociology and all courses in autobiographical and narrative research and inquiry

Stories from the lives of saints and martyrs of the Church, ed. with an intr. by C.W. Woodhouse Jetta Sophia Wolff, 1903

Narrative Therapy Catrina Brown, Tod Augusta-Scott, 2006-08-03 This volume is especially useful in demonstrating the effects of placing social discourses at the center of therapy It goes against many sacred cows of the larger modernist therapeutic community but in doing so it offers new ideas for mental health professionals attempting to help their clients with common and serious life problems

PSYCRITIQUES This compilation is an insightful read for practitioners who have not taken the opportunity to use narrative therapy in practice Experienced practitioners will certainly appreciate the theoretical analysis offered by the writers as well as the opportunity for reflective practice

Narrative Therapy is a meaningful contribution to a Canadian book market lacking in clinical literature for social workers

CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS Narrative Therapy Making Meaning Making Lives offers a comprehensive introduction to and critique of narrative therapy and its theories This edited volume introduces students to the history and theory of narrative therapy Authors Catrina Brown and Tod Augusta Scott situate this approach to theory and practice within the context of various feminist post modern and critical theories Through the presentation of case studies Narrative Therapy Making Meaning Making Lives shows how this narrative oriented theory can be applied in the client therapist experience Many important therapeutic situations abuse addictions eating disorders and more are addressed from the narrative perspective Rooted in social constructionism and emerging initially from family therapy narrative therapy emphasizes the idea that we live storied lives Within this approach the editors and contributors seek to show how we make sense of our lives and experiences by ascribing meaning through stories which themselves arise within social conversations and culturally available discourses Our stories don't simply represent us or mirror lived events they actually constitute us shaping our lives as well as our relationships Narrative Therapy will be a valuable supplemental textbook for theory and practice courses in departments of Counseling and Psychotherapy and of Social Work as well as for courses in Gender and Women Studies      Teacher Professional Development in Changing Conditions Douwe Beijaard, Pauline C. Meijer, Greta Morine-Dershimer, Tillemma Harm, 2005-12-12 This book presents some highlights from the deliberations of the 2003 conference of the International Study Association on Teachers and Teaching ISATT Part 1 presents the five keynote addresses of the conference while Parts 2 through 4 present selected papers related to each of three sub themes knowledge construction and learning to teach perspectives on teachers personal and professional lives and teachers workplace as context for learning The chapters in this book provide an array of approaches to understanding the process of teacher learning within the current context of the changing workplace environment They also provide an important international perspective on the complex issues revolving around the international educational reform movement Basically they show how teachers workplace inside and outside schools are more than ever subject to continuous change and that subsequently standards for teaching must be flexible to these changing conditions This asks for a redefinition of teacher professionalism in which the role of context in teacher learning is emphasized as well as the improvement of the quality of teacher thinking and learning Related to the ever changing context of teaching a dynamic approach to teaching and teacher learning is required in which identity development is crucial Researchers have an important role to play in revealing and explaining how teachers can build their professional identity through self awareness and reflection in the ever changing educational contexts throughout the world      Short Plays from Great Stories Roland English Hartley, Caroline Marguerite Power, 1928      Best Short Stories of the World Konrad Bercovici, 1925      Stories of Sherlock Holmes Arthur Conan Doyle, 1904      Reading Our Lives William L. Randall, Elizabeth McKim, 2008-06-03 Against the background of Socrates insight that the unexamined life is not worth living Reading Our Lives The Poetics of Growing Old investigates the often overlooked inside dimensions of aging Despite popular portrayals of mid and later life as entailing inevitable decline this book looks at aging as potentially a process of poesis a creative endeavor of fashioning meaning from the ever accumulating texts memories and reflections that constitute our inner worlds At its center is the conviction that although we are constantly reading our lives to some degree anyway doing so in a mindful matter is critical to our development in the second half of life Drawing on research in numerous disciplines affected by the so called narrative turn including cognitive psychology neuroscience and the psychology of aging authors Randall and McKim articulate a vision of aging that promises to accommodate such time honored concepts as wisdom and spirituality one that understands aging as a matter not merely of getting old but of consciously growing old      Young Folks' Pictures and Stories of Animals Abby Amy Gove Tenney, 1894

Story Katie Cunningham, 2023-10-10 Stories are all around us From our digital newsfeeds interactions with one another to watching a movie or listening to a curated playlist we see and hear different tales told to us in various ways In her book Story Still the Heart of Literacy Learning author and teacher Katie Egan Cunningham reminds us that when we bridge reading strategies with the power of story we can deepen literacy learning and foster authentic engagement with students

Cunningham shows how to create classrooms of caring and inquisitive readers writers and storytellers Inside you ll find How to build a diverse multicultural classroom library that reflects all voices through rich purposeful and varied texts Numerous examples of multi genre and multi modal stories from children s and young adult literature A practical toolkit at the end of each chapter to demonstrate how to make stories come alive in any classroom Throughout the book Cunningham shares her experiences as a teacher literacy specialist and staff developer and how building and talking about stories brings them to life She honors the importance of teaching strategies to read different kinds of text to write across genres and to speak and listen with purpose while reminding us about the importance of story

Story Work/Story Play Mary LaMont,2023-05-02 A central assumption of narrative spirituality is that the act of retelling the story of episodes of our lives can help us better see the larger Guiding Story that God dreams for us When I can see my Guiding Story more clearly I am better able to handle crisis and transition and better able to see my true purpose Story Work Story Play lays out a four door method of spirituality that invites participants to explore their Guiding Story through four doors that correspond to the four parts of any story a main character a problem to solve the power needed to solve it and the action taken by the main character The chapter for each of these four doors provides theological psychological and scriptural foundations for the narrative method and includes up to ten to fifteen story work story play exercises the reader can use to practice the method Each chapter also includes profile stories of real people who have discovered layers of their own Guiding Stories The book ends each chapter with a Guided Visualization The book s final chapter explains how members of a narrative circle can use the narrative spirituality tools of this book to discern each one s own unique Guiding Story
